

MADE MAN AND WIFE.

You now to follow me with reverent hearts in prayer to Him. Almighty and everlasting God, the father of our spirits, the framer of our bodies, the giver of every good and perfect gift, though who canst see the end from the beginning, who knowest what is best for us, Thy children, and has appointed the holy rite of marriage to be sacredly observed throughout all generations, regard now, I beseech Thee, Thy servant, our Chief Magistrate; endow him plentifully with Thy grace and fill him with wisdom to walk in Thy ordinances. Be ever nigh to him in the midst of many cares and grave responsibilities. Day by day may Thy law direct him and Thy strength uphold him, and be Thou forever his sun and shield. And be graciously pleased to look down upon this Thy daughter even as Thou didst favor the chosen Rebecca, and many noble women that have adorned the world. May she indeed be a precious boon of God to her husband, to cheer and help him continually; a woman gifted with the beauty of the land and shedding the sweet influence of a Christian life upon the Nation in whose sight she is to dwell. Wilt Thou approve what we, Thy servants come to do in Thy name by Thine authority and under the laws of the land in which we live, and graciously assist them this man and this woman, who are here to be united in the bonds of holy wedlock according to the institution of Thy words? Mercifully be pleased, Almighty God, to vouchsafe to each of them Thy grace that they may well and truly weigh the unfulfilling vows which they are now about to make to each other in the presence of this company and before Thee, and that they may be enabled hereafter at all times so to live together as to rejoice in the solemnization of this union with joy unspeakable and full of glory, through Jesus Christ, our Lord, Amen.

Addressing the company he said:

Marriage is honorable among all men in that a man shall leave his father and mother and shall cleave unto his wife, and the twin shall be one flesh, it was constituted by our Creator in the first paradise. It was confessed by patriarch and priest, prophet and apostle. It was confirmed by the teaching and charm of the presence of the redeemer, and has been proved by the faithful keeping of all good men and women since the world began. It is not therefore to be undertaken lightly or unadvisedly, but soberly, discreetly and in the fear of God. Unto this holy estate this man and this woman come now to enter. If any now can show just cause why they may not be lawfully united in marriage let him speak, or else hereafter forever hold his peace.

To the bride and groom:

"If you desire to be united in marriage, you will signify the same by joining hands." (The groom and bride joined hands.)

"Grover," said the minister, "Do you take this woman whom you hold by the hand to be your lawful wedded wife, to live together after God's ordinance in the holy estate of wedlock. Do you promise to love her, cherish, comfort and keep her in sickness and in health, in joy and in sorrow, and forsaking all others keep you only unto her as long as you both shall live?"

The groom (firmly), "I do."

Dr. Sunderland—"Frances, do you take this man whom you hold by the hand to be your lawful wedded husband, to live together after God's ordinance in the holy estate of wedlock? Do you promise to love, honor, comfort and keep him in sickness and in health in joy and in sorrow, and forsaking all others keep you only unto him so long as you both shall live?"

The bride responded in a low but clear voice, "I do."

Dr. Sunderland (solemnly)—"For as much as Grover and Frances have here agreed and confirmed the same by giving and taking a wedding ring, now therefore, in the presence of this company, in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Ghost, I pronounce and declare that they are husband and wife, and what God hath joined together let not man put asunder."

The Rev. Mr. Cleveland then pronounced the following benediction: "God the Father, God the Son, and God the Holy Ghost, bless, preserve and keep you. The Lord mercifully fill you with all temporal and spiritual blessings and grant that you may so live together in this world that in the world to come you may have life everlasting. Amen."

At the conclusion of the ceremony, Mrs. Folsom, showing traces of deep emotion, was the first to tender her congratulations to the newly married pair. She was followed by Miss Cleveland, the Rev. Mr. Cleveland and the other relatives and friends in turn. While the congratulations were in progress, the band under the leadership of Professor Sousa, performed the bridal chorus and march from Lohengrin, and to this music the President and his wife led the way into the stately East Room.

The adornments of this noble hall were in keeping with its majestic proportions and its ample space and brilliant illumination afforded an opportunity for a fitting display of the ladies' toilettes. From the east room the company proceeded, after a season of promenading and conversation, to the family dining room of the Mansion, where the wedding supper was served.

The decorations of the Executive Mansion to-night were of an elaborate character, and in the language of one of the oldest employees, "It never presented a handsomer appearance." The various public gardens in the city and many private conservatories here and in other cities contributed their choicest plants and flowers to lend their beauty and fragrance to the scene. Of course the Blue Room, where the ceremony was performed, occupied the principal attention of the decorators. It was transformed into a veritable bower of beauty.

The decorations of the private dining room where the wedding collation was served were also of an elaborate character. The main table decoration was a full rigged three-masted ship, composed of pinks, centaureas, eggans, roses and pansies, displaying the word "Hymen." It rested on a mirror representing a lake the shores of which were composed of different varieties of selaginellas and tiny pieces of coral. The surrounding land was represented by banks of Jacqueminot roses. The National color, hung from the main mast and two small white flags with the monogram "C. F." in golden letters from the other masts. At either end of the table resting on mirrors were handsome vases containing long stemmed hybrid roses. The east room and red and green parlors were decorated in the style usual at the receptions and state dinners. To the usual decorations of the main corridor were added four astra groupes of palms and foliage and flowering plants.

THE BRIDE'S COSTUME.

The bride wore an enchanting wedding dress of ivory satin, simply garnished on the high corsage with India muslin crossed in Grecian folds, and carried in exquisite falls, simplicity of petticoat and orange blossoms garniture. Commencing upon the veil in a superb coronet, continued throughout with artistic skill. Her veil of mulle, about five yards in length, completely enveloped her, falling to the edge of the petticoat in front and extending the entire length of her full court train. She carried no flowers and wore no jewelry except an engagement ring, containing a sapphire and two diamonds.

There was no formal order observed in the supper room, but the collation was served and the guests sat at small tables or slowly promenaded the room as they discussed the menu and chatted over the event of the evening. Elegantly designed souvenirs, satin boxes containing dainty slices of bridal cake, and each one bearing the hand painted monogram "C. F." were received with great admiration. While the orchestra was playing one of the happiest selections and guests were gathered about the table the bride quietly slipped away to her room and changed her wedding dress for a heavy grey silk traveling dress. She then returned to her company and was soon afterwards joined by the President, who had in the meantime changed his dress suit for a traveling costume.

OFF FOR DEER PARK.

This was about 8:30 o'clock, and the President and his bride said a hasty "Good Bye" to their friends and left the house through a private exit from the red room into the grounds. A closed carriage awaited them, and as they entered and the horses started off a shower of rice was thrown on the carriage, and their friends waved them a final "God speed" from the rear porch. His carriage was driven direct to the Baltimore and Ohio railroad station where a special train was in waiting to take the President and his bride to Deer Park. They were escorted through the station and into a car without attracting attention. About 9 o'clock the train started off to its destination. The President and his bride were wholly unaccompanied on this journey. They will probably remain at Deer Park about a week, during which time they will occupy the small cottage attached to the hotel which has not yet opened for the season. The guests began to leave the White House soon after the Presidents departure. The orchestra continued to play enlivening music until nearly ten o'clock, by which time all the guests had taken their departure but the crowd of curious sight-seers remained near the mansion until preparations were made to close it for the night. The wedding presents were many, but they were not exhibited, nor will any list be furnished. This is in deference to the wishes of the President. The groom's gift to his bride was a handsome diamond necklace, composed of a single string of brilliants. The presents from the cabinet officers and their wives were mostly articles of jewelry, though there were several beautiful presents of silverware.

THE WEDDING BELLS.

Just as the wedding ceremony began, a Presidential salute was fired by a battery of artillery near the river, and the chime of bells of the Metropolitan M. E. church pealed forth Mendelssohn's wedding march and the bells in the other churches joined in the happy salute. The gentlemen present at the wedding were not fortunate enough to receive a salute from the bride, who confined her kisses to the ladies. Otherwise the ceremony was orthodox in form.

KIND WORDS FROM VICTORIA.

LONDON, June 2.—The Queen has sent the following cable message to President Cleveland: "Pray accept my sincere congratulations on your marriage and my best wishes for your happiness." (Signed) VICTORIA.

NEW YORK, June 5.—At a meeting of the executive board of the Empire Protective association it was decided to order a tie-up of all the surface railroads in this city, Brooklyn and Jersey City. The order was issued and all the lines except the Third Avenue stopped running this morning. The blow thus struck was a sudden and crushing one. The police reserve, over fourteen hundred men, was at once concentrated at stations along the line of the most important roads. The men have no grievance and the sudden strike has been ordered as a means of forcing the Third Avenue road to terms.

Maxwell Found Guilty.

St. Louis, June 6.—The jury in the Maxwell-Preller murder trial brought in a verdict of murder in the first degree yesterday a little after noon. The condemned was prostrated with nervousness. A motion for a new trial will be made, and if denied Maxwell's counsel will take the case to the Supreme court on exceptions and ask a stay of proceedings. This will certainly be granted, and even if the Supreme Court refuses to grant a new trial it will be nearly a year before the prisoner will be sentenced.

—The foundations of disease are often laid by the irregularities of eating, sleeping and movement of the bowels experienced during traveling. To prevent an irregular action, and a torpid condition of the digestive apparatus use Dr. Walker's California Vinegar Bitters. No traveler by sea or land should fail to take it with him. It may save his life.

—For ladies who frequently need a regulator in the many little colds, sick headaches, nervous complaints and other troubles incident to sudden exposure and to indoor life, and yet do not need a regular physician, Royal Elixir is an invaluable relief. The Elixir is a household remedy, and it acts like a charm in children's ailments.

—Down in Tyrone the other evening, a dude followed a party of young ladies and insisted in forcing his attentions upon them contrary to their wishes, until at last in self defence they laid violent hands on the shallow-pated little thing, gave him a thorough shaking and wound up by mashing his hat over his eyes. To the credit of Tyrone it can be said that his duds were not a production of that town.—Holidaysburg Standard.

Undigested Food.

In the stomach develops an acid which stings the upper part of the throat and palate, causing "heartburn." It also evolves a gas which produces a "wind on the stomach," and a feeling of distension in that organ after eating. For both this acidity and swelling Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is a much better remedy than alkaline salts, like hartshorn and carbonate of soda. A wineglassful of the Bitters, after or before dinner, will be found to act as a reliable carminative or preventive. This fine specific for dyspepsia, both in its acute and chronic form, also prevents and cures malarial fever, constipation, liver complaint, kidney troubles, nervousness and debility. Persons who observe in themselves a decline of vigor should use this fine tonic without delay.

Anarchists Seeking Revenge.

CHICAGO, June 8.—A special dispatch from Milwaukee says: An attempt was made yesterday morning to carry out some of the threats recently made against Major George P. Traeumer, of the Fourth Battalion of State troops since the Bay View riots. Major Traeumer and daughter participated in the excursion to Sheboygan arranged by the Fourth Battalion Band, Sunday. Soon after arriving home yesterday the laundry was discovered to be in a blaze. Major Traeumer called his son, and together they extinguished the flames with the garden hose. An examination of the premises showed that an entrance had been effected by incendiaries through a basement window, from which the screen had then been torn. The fire had then been set to a pile of kindling and shavings. That the fire was of incendiary origin there seems no doubt. The affair has created much talk. Heretofore Major Traeumer has paid little attention to threats which were made, but it now looks as if they meant more than he was willing to admit.

Notwithstanding the fact that the President has vetoed several private pension bills the warning has been unheeded, and claims of this nature continue to be pushed through without consideration, and each house appears to be striving to outdo the other in the pension business.

ERIC, June 5.—When Farmer William Meyer, of Sterrettia, came home today a horrible sight greeted him. His wife whom he had left in health, was lying on the floor dead, with her two-year-old babe clasped tightly in her arms. The child was crying piteously and struggling to free itself from the embrace in which its dead mother had held it for several hours.

AN END TO BONE SCRAPING.—Edward Shepherd, of Harrisburg, Ill., says: "Having received so much benefit from Electric Bitters, I feel it my duty to let suffering humanity know it. Have had a running sore on my leg for eight years; my doctors told me I would have to have the bone scraped or leg amputated. I used, instead, three bottles of Electric Bitters and seven boxes Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and my leg is now sound and well."

Electric Bitters are sold at 50 cents a bottle, and Bucklen's Arnica Salve at 25 cents per box by J. Zeller & Son.
