A Pitiable Story.

GEN. GRANTS DAUGHTER'S WRETCHED TREATMENT BY HER HUSBAND'S FAMILY.

WATHINGTON, July 12 .- A relative of the Grant family in this city is author for the statement that the married life of Nellie Grant Sartoris is far more humiliating and unpleasant than has yet been made public. Mrs. Sartoris makes her home with her husbands father, in the north of England. He, according to all accounts, she is treated as a sort of urged the construction of such a switch poor relotion. Two rooms are set aside at the earliest practical day, and I took for the use of herself and children and their meals furnished, but nothing else the citizens of Lock Haven, that if the is given to them, either by the husband B. C. R. R. Co., would construct such or Mr. Sarteris. So far, indeed, as the a switch into the city, and would erect younger Sartoris is concerned, it is said, its railroad shops here, that the citizens that he has not contributed a penny to his wife's support for years. It is a well known fact that for a couple of years or more prior to General Grant's death remittances of money were regularly sent to Nellie to provide herself and childen with clothing and other useful artiles. When the General became impov. erished through the rascality of Ferdinand Ward, the greatest regret he is said to have expressed was, that his poverty would prevent him from further assisting Nellie, who was practically supported by his bounty. All the members of the Grant family who still con- made to absorb the Beech Creek line, tribate to the support of Mrs. Sartoris | the strong indications are that it will owing to the smallness of the amounts and the children have urged Mrs. Sar- remain in present hands and by fail involved, and it is thought that the toris for years to separate from her hus. and reasonable competition will induct men under arrest are involved in the band and return to America. It is said the establishment of iron works and matter also. They will have a hearing that Mrs. Frant made such a request other large manufactories in our midst. before Mayor Wyman this morning.

only a few months ago, after hearing of some fresh indignity on Sartoris' part. But the daughter replied that she would not entertain such a proposition a moment, and added indignantly that she would refuse to sustain relations of any character with her family if these importunities did not cease. Meanwhile, Sartoris is racing about England, spend ing the meagre allowance his father gives nim, among companions of his own kind. The reports which reach here from New York say that Sartoris has been absent from his wife since last spring, and that she hears from him only at rare internals.

How Rich Americans Travel-

Mrs. George M. Pullman, wife of the palace-car inventor, her four children, twelve servants, five horses, family carriage and dog cart took up the room in two large Pullman cars on the Fort Wayne Road, at Pittsburg, on Friday last. The Pullman family is enroute to Long Branch for the summer. The car for the horses and carriages has six stalls and rooms for three carriagrs, besides the berths, lockers and sittingrooms for the grooms and hostlers. The stalls are models of conveinience and square comfort. Separate compartments are also arranged for the feed, hay, lamps and other articles required for the horses and carriages.

The private car in which Mrs. Pullman travels is in imitation of a modern dwelling. Divans of more than Turkish luxuriousness occupy the corners and sides of the main room in the centre of the car, while reclining chairs, ottomans and easy chairs are scattered around. A magnificent cabinet organ is one of the handsomest of ornaments of this drawing room. The diningroom and sleeping and kitchen apartments are fitted up on the same magni, ficent scale.

"I regard the re-organization as very favorable to the interest of the region through which the road passes, so far as Lock Haven is concerned. I pointed out to Vanderbilt and the gentlemen accompanying him, the routes for the proposed switch into Lock Haven. I the liberty of promising, on behalf of would give $25,000, of which amount I now say I am willing to give $5,000. Mr. Vanderbilt expressed himself as highly pleased with the road, and my belief is that he left with a high appreciszion of its value to the stockholders and the public. The object of building the Beech Creek road was to open up and develop the great Clearfield coal region and afford the best facilities for business along its line. It was intend- $1 to $10.
