How a Dog Reasoned.

A dog of one of our friends acquired the bad habit of rushing out and attacking passing vehicles, and his master, thinking to cure him, attached a piece of wood by a chain to his collar. This answer admirably; for no sooner other items subject to the three:mill did the dog start in pursuit of anything than the clog not only checked his speed, but generally rolled him over. But to the surprise of all, doggie was soon at his old work, nearly as bad as ever. This is how he managed: He did not attempt to drag the clog on the ground and allow it to check and upset him, but before starting he caught it up in his mouth, ran before the passing horse, dropped it, and commenced the attack; and when distanced, would again seize the clog in his mouth, and resume his position ahead, and thus became as great a pest as ever. Many such cases are explained by referring to patural instinct as the cause. This case cannot be explained in that way. Our doggie evidently was possessed something corresponding to dog more than last year, when the rate reason, if not to human reason.

BALTIMORE, July 8.—Captain Ackerly of the steamship Kenelworth, from Port Antonio, Jamaica, reports June 27 the island swept by a tornado which created havoc with the propety of the natives and caused a loss estimated at $500,000. A Three-Mill Tax Rebate.

Seventeen counties of the state have made reports to the Auditor General's department of the amount of the as: sessment of money at interest and tax imposed by the general revenue act. As compared with the assess: ment of last year, there is an increase of over 300 per cent, and, excepting Chester county in which the increase is only 100 per cent, the average in: crease is about 500 per cent. Last year the assessment of money at in. terest, etc., reached $145, 286,762, and the tax at four mills on the dollar, $581,000. This year the assesment if the increase in the counties which have not reported to the auditor gen: eral sustains the same proportion as that already reported, will aggregate about $581,000,000, realizing a tax, at 3 mills, of $1,753,000, or $1,162,000 was one mill higher. If the propor, tion of increase in the counties to be heard from is equal to that of the counties which have made their report (excepting Chester) the aggregate will reach $870,000,000, and the tax $2,610,000.

Auditor General Niles will recom. mend, in his next annual report, that one:third of the amount realized from the three:mill tax law be turned into the county treasuries, and he thinks that the state will also be able, with: out crippling the treasury, to devote to the counties the liquor license and mercantile tax, in view of the satisfac. ed that Dr. J.
