The delegate elections must be conducted in accordance with the following rules : The Democratic County Convention of Centre county shall be composed of one delegate for every fifty Democratic votes polled at the Presidential or Gubernatorial ection next preceding the convention. The allotment of delegates to the several election districts in the county shall be made by the Standing Committee of the nate year succeeding the Presidential and Gubernatorial elections, and shall be in proportion to the Democratic votes cast in each district at such elections. 2. The election for delegates to represent the different districts in the annual Demogratic County Convention shall be held at the wual place of holding the general elections for each district, on the Sat-urday preceding the second Tuesday of August in each and every year, beginning at two o'clock p. m. on said day and continuing until six o'clock p. m. The delegates so elected shall meet in County Convention at the Court House, at Bellefonte, on the Tuesday following at two o'clock

3. The said delegate elections shall be held by an election board, to consist of the member of county committee for each district and two other Democratic voters thereof, who shall be appointed or desig-The Democratic voters of Centre nated by the County Commistee. In case any of the persons so constituting the board shall be absent from the place, of boilding the election for a quarter of an hour after the time adpointed by Rule First for the opening of the same, his or ie voters present at that time.

4 Every qua ified voter of the district, who at the late general election voted the Democratic ticket, shall be entitled to a time will meet at the Court House, in qualified elector of the district who will piedge his word of honor to support the 1886, at 2 P. M., to nominate: One Democratic ticket at the next general election shall be permitted to vote at the delegate elections. 5. The voting at all the delegate elecshall be written or printed the name or names of the delegate or delegates voted or delegates. Each ballot shall be received from the person voting the same by a member of the election board, and by him deposited in a box or other receptacle provided for that purpose, to which box or other receptacle no persons but members of the board shall have access.

6. No instructions shall be received or recognized unless the same be voted upon the ballot as provided in Rule Fourth, nor shall such instructions if voted upon the ballot, be binding upon the the delegates, unless one-half or more of the ballots shall contain instructions concerning the same office. Whenever half or more of the baltots shall contain instructions concerning 3 any office, the delegates elected at such elections shall be held to be instructed to support the candidates having the highest number of votes for such office.

7. Each election board shall keep an accurate list of the names of all persons voting at such elections, when the list of voters, together with a full and complete return of such election, containing an accurate statement of the persons elected delegates and all instructions voted, shall be certified by said board to the county convention, upon printed blanks to be furnished by the county committee.

Whenever from any district qualified Democratic voters, in numbers equal to five times the delegates which such district has in the county convention, shall complain in writing of an undue election or false return of delegates, or of instructions, in which complaints the alleged facts shall be specifically set forth and verified by the affidavit of one or more persons, such complaints shall have the right to contest the seat of such delegates or the validity of such instructions. Some complaint shall be heard by a committee of five delegates to be appointed by the president of the convention; which said committee shall proceed to hear the parties proofs and allegations, and as soon as may be report to the convention what delegates are entitled to seats therein, and what instructions are binding upon such delegates. Whereupon the convention shall proceed immediately upon the call of the yeas and nays to adopt or reject the report of the contesting parties; in which call of the yeas and nays the names of the delegates whose seats are contested or whose instructions are disputed shall be omitted

9. All delegates must reside in the district they represent. In case of absence or inability to attend, substitutions may be made from citizens of the district.

10. Delegates must obey the instructions given them by their respective districts, and, if violated, it shall be the duty of the president of the convention to cast one other things which have always the vote of such delegate or delegates if accordance with the instructions and the delegate or delegates so offending shall be forthwith expelled from the convention, and shall not be eligible to any office of place of trust in the party for the period

In the convention a majority of all voters shall be necessary to a nomination; and no persons name shall be excluded from the list of candidates until after the third ballot or vote, when the person receiving the least number of votes shall be omitted and struck from the roll, and so on at each successive vote until a nomina-

12. If any person who is a candidate for any nomination before a county conven tion shall be proven to have offered or paid any money, or other valuable thing, or made any promise of a consideration or reward to any delegates for his vote, or to person with a view of inducing or securing the votes of delegates, or if the same shall be done by any other person with the knowledge and consent of such candidate, the name of such candidate shall be immediately stricken from the list of candidates; or if such fact be ascertained after his nome ination, shall be struck from the ticket and the vacancy supplied by a new nomination and, in either case, such person shall be inelegible to any nomination by the convention, or to an election as a delegate thereafter. And in case it shall be alleged after the adjournment of the convention that any candidate put in nomination has been guilty of such acts or of any other fraudulent practices to obtain such nomination, the charges shall be investigated by the county committee and such steps taken as the good of the party may require.

13. If any delegate shall receive any money or other valuable thing, or accept the promises of any consideration or reward to be paid, delivered or secured to him or to any person for such candidate, as an inducement for his vote upon proof of the fact to the satisfaction of the conven tion, such delegate shall be forth with exgate to any further convention, and shall be ineligible to any party nomination.

14. Cases arising under the 8th, 12th and 13th Rules shall have precedence over all other business in account of the same of the all other business in convention until de-

15. That the term of the chairman of the county committee shall begin on the first day of January of each and every year. 16. ACTS vs. PREJUDICE

Prejudice is hard to combat. It cannot be overcome in a day. More than likely it wasn't formed hastily. Indeed it may have been gradually strengthening its hold for years. For instance, some folks believe Rheumatism cannot be cured. Their fathers believed so before them. So did their grandfathers:
Now, RHEUMATISM CAN BE

CURED, notwithstanding this prejudice, but the trouble is to make people think so. The only way we know to meet popular unbelief is to state the PLAIN FACTS, and then present the POSITIVE PROOFS that they are facts. It is a fact that the RUSSIAN RHEUMATISM CURE not only relieves but banishes Rheumatic Pain. There is positive proof of it too. It comes from those who have suffered untold agony with Rheumatism and have been com-pletely cured by this remedy. All who have tried it have had this experience. Some of them permit us to print their testimony. It makes quite a little book, which we send free to any who are interested enough to ask for it.

A complete Russian Rheumatism Cure, costs $2.50. If mailed, 10c. additional. If registered, 10c, more. You'll never need but one, so the price isn't high. Who wouldn't give $2.50 to get rid of Rheumatism? As yet it cannot be found at the stores, but can be had only by enclosing the amount as above, and addressing the American Proprietors.
