The Earthquake Takes a Fresh Start.

CHARLESTON, S. C., September 3.—A sharp shock of earthquake was felt just before 11 o'clock to-night and the buildings fell, while a woman, name unknown, was killed by a falling wall this evening. The people rushed from their houses to the streets.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., September 3.—At 10:02 o'clock to-night a distinct shock of earthquake was felt here lasting five seconds. It caused great excitement.

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa., September 3.—At 11:05 to-night another earthquake shock was felt at a number of points in this city. The buildings rolled slightly and gas fixtures swayed perceptibly. The duration of the demonstration was very brief.

RICHMOND, Va., September 3.—At 11:03 to-night a shock of earthquake was felt here. In some places in the upper part of the city it was as severe as that of last Tuesday night, the people in some cases leaving their beds and rushing into the streets. The oscillation is said to have been very perceptible from the southeast to the northwest. No noise accompanied this shock.

RALEIGH, N. C., September 3.—At 11:02 to-night a well defined shock of earthquake was felt here. It was preceded by a light rumbling noise.

The oscillation of buildings was marked on upper floors.

AUGUSTA, Ga., September 3. At 10:40 p. m. another shock was distinctly felt. The streets are again filled with people.

WILMINGTON, N. C., September 3.—Another distinct but not severe earthquake shock was felt here at 11 p. m. Much alarm was created and many people fled from their homes.

A Bridegroom's Suicide.

READING, September 5.—An exciting scene was witnessed on the midnight express train while running at a high rate of speed on the Lebanon Valley Railroad ten miles from this city, last Friday night. The passengers were suddenly startled by a scuffle in the middle of the car. A well dressed young man named Levi W. Brobst arose abruptly, and in a loud voice exclaimed:

"I'm tired of riding."
His beautiful young wife beside him grasped him by the coat and said: "Sit down, we'll soon be at Reading."
"Not a bit of it, Gussie," he replied. "I'm going no further; see the lamps dancing out yonder."

He then made a hasty move toward the door of the car, when his wife seized him by his coat and implored him to sit down. The other passenger in the car at first thought it might simply be a personal misunderstanding and they made no effort to interfere. Another lady of the party, a middle-aged woman, named Mrs. J. C. High left her seat and ran to the wife's assistance. He leaped for the door, crying out at the top of his voice:

"Good by. Here she goes."
The young wife fainted in her seat, while her husband was being hurled headlong down a twenty-foot rocky embankment. The train was speedily stopped, and the victim was found dying among the boulders. His face and body were horribly cut. He was brought to Reading, where he died in St. Joseph's Hospital next morning. His wallet, containing $300, was lost when he jumped, and was not found.

He was 30 years of age, and a handsome, well built young man. He was married to Miss Gussie Lefler last Wednesday in West Point, Neb., and they were on their wedding trip to Slaton, north of this city. His body was taken there last night, where his parents live. The bride says she first noticed a change in her husband in Chicago. He had not been well and had not eaten anything for three days. The excitement of his wedding made him very nervous. His mind gradually became unbalanced. He raved and spoke incoherently, and at last jumped off the train.

Burned to Death.

WILLIAMSPORT, September 3.—Word has been received of a shocking calamity which occurred about midnight last night, five miles and a half above Jonestown on the line of the Williamsport and North Branch railroad where a large number of Hungarian laborers are employed on an extension of the road. A shanty in which over twenty of these men lodged caught fire last night from the overturning of a stove while the men were asleep. Sixteen men slept on the second floor. Those on the first floor and all on the second floor but seven succeeded in getting out. The others were left to their fate and were roasted alive in the burning shanty. Their charred remains were afterward found in the ruins. The men who escaped were so panic stricken that they made no effort to save their companions.

The seven dead bodies were removed to Jonestown to await the arrival of the coroner from Laporte. The results of the coroner's investigation and the names of the victims have not yet been received here.

A report was also received here that a Hungarian named Joseph Kehunski was murdered and his body hidden under a shanty on the same railroad at Elk Lick a short time since. When the shanty was torn down portions of human remains were found and a quantity of bloody straw. The men who occupied the shanty have disappeared.

Prince Alexander Insulted. Singular Coincidence.

LONDON, September 3.—The Daily News says: Prince Alexander has been abandoned and isolated by agreement of the three empires. Nothing could exceed the humility of his letter to the czar which is only equalled in degree by the brutality of the czar's answer. It is rumored that Prince Alexander's father wants to throw up his honorary commission in a Russian regiment and that the German and Austrian governments are trying to dissuade him from doing so, as such a course would be a great offense to the czar.

An attempt was made to wreck the train which was conveying Prince Alexander to Sofia. When near Philippopolis the engineer discovered an obstruction on the track and brought the train to a standstill. On investigation it was found that five sleepers had been placed across the track. Prince Alexander, when informed of the attempt upon his life, showed no fear, maintaining a calm demeanor. A conflict between the revolutionists and followers of Prince Alexander is feared at Sofia.

SOPIA, September 3.—The revolutionary elements here have surrendered unconditionally to Prince Alexander and applied to him for clemency. Bulgaria is now tranquil. Prince Alexander, when he reached Bucharest on his journey to Sofia, telegraphed to the sultan assurance of homage and devotion.

A Bold, Bad Man.

Jesse Baughman lives in the mountains of Somerset county, near Sand Patch. Deputy Collector Tate learned that he was violating the law by selling whiskey and ordered his arrest. On Thursday of last week Deputy U. S. Marshal Beagle and Frank P. Gilchrist went to Sand Patch for the purpose of gathering the offender in. Baughman is a desperate character. Although 68 years old, he is as powerful as an ox. He once served a term of seven years in the penitentiary for killing a man. When the officers attempted to arrest him he resisted. He rudely shoved Beagle back against a low watering trough. The trough caught Beagle at the knees and upset him into the water. He got a thorough soaking. While the tussle was in progress an accomplice of Baughman's armed with two pistols, appeared on the scene. Gilchrist covered him with a six shooter and kept him at bay. Beagle came out of his bath with pistol in hand and blood in his eye, and in about two seconds Baughman was handcuffed. The prisoner was brought to Bedford. He gave bail for a hearing before U. S. Commissioner Lingenfeiler.—Bedford Gazette.

SARANAC INN, N. Y., September 3.—After an absence of four days President Cleveland and party returned to Saranac to-day. They had a most enjoyable time.

ROANOKE, Va., Sept. 4.—A singular incident occurred at Wytheville, Va., a few days since. Two deaths occurred on the same day, two hearse were on the street at the same time, and two funeral sermons were preached in the same church at the same time. The subjects were negroes, who bore exactly the same name and were the same age, but were no relation. They were also buried at the same time in the same cemetery.

Severe Sentence.

LANCASTER, Sept. 4.—Joseph J. Dosh, who made a murderous assault on Judge Livingston on January 13th last, was brought into court to-day and sentenced by Judge Patterson to three years and nine months in the eastern penitentiary. A commission in lunacy some time ago disagreed as to his case, but he is now sane. His counsel made a strong plea for leniency, and after the sentence asked the court to make record to enable them to apply for a special allocution.

Jersey Shore Pa., Sept. 4.—Samuel Overdorf, proprietor of the hotel at Tomb's Run, up Pine Creek, met with a terrible accident Thursday night. About ten o'clock he took down from his resting place on the wall an old army musket, intending to draw the load from the barrel, which had been rusted in, but in attempting to draw it out the gun exploded with terrible effect. Nearly the whole of Mr. Overdorf's left hand was blown off by the discharge and the stump of the hand hung in shreds, while the blood spurted all over. Drs. Fuller and Meekly, of Jersey Shore, were immediately sent for and soon arrived and dressed the unfortunate men's wounded hand. They say that Mr. Overdorf is in a pretty bad condition, but they think he will pull through all right.

An Eruption in Illinois.

OAKLAND, Ill., September 3.—Yesterday the citizens of Bowdenstown, north of the city, were startled by a noise like the explosion of a steam-blast. On examination it was found to have been caused by the eruption on the farm of Christian Lukenbach. That gentleman said to-day that when the noise occurred a cloud of smoke and dust was thrown sixty feet in the air, among which were bits of dust, stumps and roots. A deep hole was left in the earth which has not yet been explored.

New York, September 3.—The Brooklyn Examiner has received the following dispatch from Vicar General P. L. Duffy to Bishop Northrop, of Charlton, S. C.: "The Catholic churches, orphan's infirmary, schools and pastoral residences have been seriously damaged. Miraculous were the escapes of the priests, sisters and orphans, who are now camping out. I am erecting a temporary altar in the cathedral grounds. Our loss and suffering are great."
