New dress goods—Gaman's. Don't neglect to pay your tax before the 2nd of October. The Renovo News changed type and now prints a cleaner sheet. The second of October is the last day for paying your tax, if you desire to vote. E. T. Tuten the amusement editor of the Daily News took in the opera on Saturday evening. C. M. Power Esq., attended the Ref. Sunday School Convention at Millburg on Tuesday. Every town is wanting new enterprises. It is a very good thing to want but we can't always get it. The ladies of the Presbyterian Mite Society will hold a festival and fancy table on the 29th of this month. Look over this issue of the DEMOCRAT and see if your name has been drawn as a juror at the next term of court. On the 23rd the Firemen's parade will take place in Altoona. Companies from all over the state will be present and one from Virginia. A serious cave-in occurred at one of the coal mines at Scranton on Monday morning. Six men are entombed alive, while the seventh was taken out dead. The District schools will soon open for a five months term. Teachers are much more plentiful than the schools this year, there being an average of five for every school. There is some talk of capitalists of this town and county starting another bank. Why not put that amount of money into some manufacturing enterprise that will benefit the town. Above everything else, do not fail to read Mr. John Norris' speech made before the Grangers at William's Grove on the day of their picnic. We publish the speech in full in another column. It is said that a Curtin township woman, a wife of a respectable man, and a mother of several young children, has eloped with an Italian. What a weakness some people have for other nationalities beside their own. Louise Pomroy and her excellent company will produce some one of Shakespeares plays in Humes' Hall on Wednesday and Thursday the 22nd and 23rd inst. The Post is very fortunate in getting Miss Pomroy, one of the leading stars before the American public to come to this place, and she will no doubt be greeted by a large house. Mr. Chas. W. Lambert of this place, showed us a copy of the CENTRE DEMOCRAT published by Col. Shugert in 1842. The paper was well preserved and is a very interesting relic to Mr. Lambert, as it contains his marriage notice. Among the firms liberally advertising in those days, we notice W. F. Reynolds & Co., During the progress of the speeches on Tuesday evening of last week, the steps of the First National Bank were occupied by a number of ladies and gentlemen, most of the ladies wearing white dresses. A number of the gentleman (?) occupying the upper steps displayed their good breeding by spitting tobacco juice upon the dresses of the ladies ruining several that we have heard of. In the distant future Bellefonters will have the pleasure of hearing and seeing the beautiful and accomplished actress Miss Lillie Hinton, in a repertoire of standard plays supported by a first-class company. The entertainment will be given under the auspices of Gregg Post No. 95 G. A. R. The class of entertainments booked by the entertainment committee is good. The companies all having a national reputation. The Public Schools of the borough opened on Tuesday and Wednesday. Prof. D. O. Etters principal of the High School began on Tuesday with quite a large attendance while Prof. Lieb Supt. with his able corps of instructors opened the regular term in the school building proper. Prof. Etters will receive about sixteen additional pupils from Prof. Lieb's room, while the number he will lose will be about twelve, thus leaving him with a few more than last winter. The "Adamless Eden" on Saturday evening was attended by a large audience of old, middle-aged and young men. Contrary to expectation the play was more chaste and refined than some of the operas we have seen produced here to Bellefontes most refined audience. In fact their dress and make up with a few exceptions was an improvement over some of the social party dress we sometimes see here. The singing and acting was excellent while the deportment of the ladies could not be questioned.

Dress goods—Garman's. To-day is the day for the Granger picnic. The farmers are beginning to "cut off corn." Mr. Lyman Beck of Madisonburg, was up in the vicinity of Port Matilda, on Wednesday, looking for game. There is some talk of a company opening up the Gregg ore banks at Centre Hill. Messrs. Valentine are interested. The death of Mr. Simon Smull of Madisonburg occurred on Sunday last, of fever. Mr. Smull was about 45 years of age. Prepare for your annual tussle with the stovepipe, these cool evenings the stove would feel very comfortable, if it was only up. A 15 month old child of Joseph Ake, of Indiana county, recently fell in to a pan of scalding water, and received injuries from which it died. There will be a convention held in Lock Haven to-day and to-morrow of the Good Templars. The delegates from here are Dr. Dorworth and Jno. C. Miller. Mrs. Hutchinson and Mrs. Twitmore as alternates. A silver dollar was accidentally dropped on Saturday last on the west end of the High street bridge, and rolled into a crevice between the planks. Officer Foulk and Mr. Parsons removed the plank and recovered the truant coin. The Sensational story published stating that the Island of Cuba was sunk by the recent earthquake, is a canard. The Western Union Telegraph company report that they are at present in telegraphic communication with Havana. The plays to be produced here by Louise Pomroy are "As You Like It," on the evening of the 22nd, and "Camille" on the 23rd inst. The company opened to an immense house at Shenandoah on Monday evening. Don't fail to see them. The first passenger train over the Philadelphia branch of the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad, will leave to-day (Thursday) from 24th and Walnut street. It is a special conveying veterans to the battle ground at Antietam where a re-union will be held. The Cambria Iron Company has requested Gov. Pattison to appoint 188 extra policeman for the protection of its works at Johnstown. The company is discharging Knights of Labor and filling their places by non-union men, and they fear damage from persons opposed to this policy. Mr. Al. Garman returned from Renovo, Lock Haven and Williamsport where he had been visiting friends and cleaning out the boss checker players of the several towns. But upon his return home he soon lost his laurels when he tackled Mr. Henry Keller Esq., and was floored. We hope to see Al. regain his former record. Edward Kreamer Esq., of Boalsburg, started for Johnstown on Wednesday, where he will locate permanent. Mr. Kreamer has been a life long Democrat and a resident of this county for many years. He has been a candidate for Sheriff several times, and is a man of excellent qualities both socially and morally, and will no doubt be greatly missed in his neighborhood. Grand Army Day at Lewisburg was attended by thousands of people. An excursion train from this place with fifteen cars was crowded and people flocked in from all directions, and over all railroads leading to that town. There was no scarcity of provisions, music or fun, and all express themselves as highly pleased with the treatment received at the hands of that hospitable people. The accommodations for the people are pronounced perfect, some of our people were surprised to see the inexhaustible supply of eatables. The house of Mr. Al. Klare, at Hoover, Hughes & Co's mill, Penfield, Clearfield county, was robbed of $75 and a watch one day last week, while the family was absent for a few minutes only. Mr. Klare, who is sawyer in the company's mill, had gone to work as usual in the morning, and about half-past 7 o'clock Mrs. Klare locked the doors and went in search of the cow. When she returned in a short time, a door was found broken open and an upper chamber rifled of the above valuables. In another column will be found the time table of the Philadelphia & Reading railroad. This road in connection with the Beech Creek & Southwestern to Clearfield makes the best time to Philadelphia of any of the roads from that place. The road is being traveled quite extensively by people from this county who pronounce the accommodations superior to the average road and equal to any in the country. It is hoped that the day is not far distant when this road may through its feeders, the Beech Creek & Southwestern and others have a direct line to this place. We are in need of competing lines, and the trade and travel will warrant the same.

The subject of the following obituary notice. Dr. Thomas Burnside Shugart was a native of Centre county, and for several years prior to his majority resided in this place. He was a son of Joseph B. Shugert, Esq., well known to our older citizens, and a brother of S. T. Shugert of this place. He studied medicine with his distinguished brother Dr. Wm. B. Shugert, in Titusville, Crawford county, and located in Pleasantville, Vanango county, where he became quite eminent in his profession and distinguished for his excellent character and usefulness as a valued citizen. The Tusville Citizen says of him: "The many friends of Doctor Thomas B. Shugert will be pained to hear of his death which occurred at his residence on Main street, Tuesday afternoon, Sept. 7th, in the 65th year of his age of Bright's disease of the kidneys. Thomas B. Shugert was one of our oldest and most respected citizens. He had been a resident of this place (Pleasantville,) and practiced his calling as a physician among us for nearly forty years. He was a man of liberal education, high standing in his profession, generous and tolerant towards his fellow man, a kind indulgent parent and a loving husband. His illness covered a period of several months duration. He thoroughly understood the nature of his disease and realized its eventual fatal termination and bore his sufferings patiently, and was perfectly resigned at the last. His death leaves a widow, one son and three daughters to mourn his death. His funeral took place on Thursday morning at 11 o'clock Rev. Stephenson officiating. The remains were interred in Fairview cemetery. Mr. John Cole of Coleridge a suburban village which bears his name, died quite suddenly on Wednesday morning at 6.30 o'clock of cholera morbus. He was sick but three days. Mr. Cole was the father of Mrs. Jno. Garbrick Messrs Jacob Cole, Robert, Perry, and George, the last of whom died about four years ago. His first wife was Martha Houser daughter of the venerable Jacob Houser. To his second wife who still survives him he has had four children all of whom are living, the oldest being about nine years old. The funeral will occur at the residence in Coleridge on Friday at 2 o'clock. Interment in the Union cemetery in this place. Rev. J. M. Goheen, son of our esteemed friend, J. J. Goheen, of Rock Spring, Centre county, is visiting the family of William Gardner, on Howard avenue. Mr. Goheen has been stationed at Kolhapur, India, a city of about 40,000 inhabitants. He is a gentleman whom it is a pleasure to meet, and his conversation regarding the natives of India and their customs is very interesting. Perhaps American workingmen will be surprised to hear that in India the laboring man receives but ten cents per day, while skilled mechanics are content to receive twice that much. Mr. Goheen will remain with his friends about a year, when he will return to his adopted home and his chosen life work.—Altoona Tribune. The first annual reunion of survivors of the Third Artillery and 188th Regiment, Pa. Vols., will be held at Sunbury, Pa., September 29 and 30, 1886. All comrades are cordially invited to attend and urgently requested to pass the word along the lines and give the matter all possible publicity. Special rates will be given over the railroads passing through Sunbury, and extensive arrangements have been made for a grand good time. For further particulars address Major F. A. Roem, president Reunion Association, Watsonstown Pa.; Harry T. Graves, secretary, Millerton, Tioga county, Pa., or Lieutenant Lemuel Shipman, chairman of executive committee, Sunbury, Pa., One of the most ingenious tricks, was perpetrated at the county jail a few days ago. Mr. Jack Kenny who was sent to jail at the August court, blackened himself up and disguised himself as best he could, and then gave the usual signal given by parties who visit prisons and are ready to be let out. The turnkey came and seeing Jack resembling a colored man and knowing there were no colored convict in opened the door and Jack walked out very unconcerned, but the deputy observed Jack and knew him and sent him back. It is stated that Joe. Furey, of the Watchman, has had some very encouraging offers to assume editorial charge of several other journals, and especially from the Clinton Democrat. The Watchman could ill afford to lose so valuable a man as Joe, while to the Democrat it would be the means of making that one of the liveliest papers in the county. Joe says a great many smart and original things, even if some are a little operative, and wear short clothes. Jno. After the entertainment, refreshments were served, consisting of ice cream, cake, coffee, fruit etc., an Anthem by the choir, and the usual closing exercises ended one of the most enjoyable evenings of the season for the Lodge. The Centre Hall Lodge tendered a resolution of thanks for their excellent entertainment and departed for home, feeling that "it had been good to be here." Rolle Ammerman a hard case of Lock Haven got beastly drunk, (not an uncommon thing for him to do) and after hammering a fellow almost to death went home and began abusing his poor aged mother. His elder brother interfered when Rolle fired two shots at him one taking effect in his hip. He has not been captured yet. The wound received is not necessarily a dangerous one. Both are married men and have families. Mr. Isaac Way a very highly respected citizen of Half Moon, was found dead in the barn. He had been sitting on a box and had his arms folded and fell forward and died seemingly without a struggle. He was 78 years of age, heart disease is the supposed cause. Col. Mrs. Will Ludwig has been confined to her bed for over five weeks with a very severe attack of chronic rheumatism. At present she is quite poorly. We trust she may speedily recover. The condition of the senior editor of this paper is very much improved, but notwithstanding he has been housed up for seven weeks, it will be several more before he will be able to be down town. A woman with a boy about 8 years old, has been circulating in the neighborhood of Hublersburg and Nittany, begging money. Her stories as to her purpose in asking for help are so varied, no two agreeing, that it is evident she is an impostor. The office of H. S. EAGLEVILLE. The Baptist church at Eggleville was fully dedicated to the service of the Lord on Sabbath evening, Sept. 12, 1886. Rev. S. F. Furgens preached the dedicating sermon from 1 Cor. 15: 58. "An appeal, the duty and encouragement." After the sermen some $200 was raised of the $500 to be raised. The afternoon session was conducted by Rev. C. W. Ray, D. D., from Philadelphia. The doctor is an excellent musician and noted singer. The evening service was preached by Rev. J. H. Chambers, of Huntington, from John 2: 17, showing plainly the "object of the zeal" and "the characteristics." Another appeal was made ending in liquidating the debt. The dedicating prayer was offered by Rev. S. F. Furges, of Bellwood. Excellent music was offered by Mrs. James Cox, of Philadelphia. She is undoubtedly an accomplished singer especially with the assistant help of Howard M. Miles, of Port Matilda, as organist. For a young man he is entitled to our hearty thanks and warmest congratulations. Every part of the exercises during the day was richly enjoyed. Amidst the inclement weather the house was full at each session. F. S. B. The committee on the part of common council, in Philadelphia, to investigate the charges against Mayor Smith yesterday afternoon made a lengthy report. It reviews the evidence submitted, and closes by recommending the adoption of a resolution, "that the Honorable William B. In case impeachment is authorized by Common council, the Select becomes the tribunal by which the mayor may be tried. The law bearing on the subject is the act of Consolidation of February 2, 1854, which vests in Select council all necessary powers. When sitting for impeachment the Select councilmen shall be upon oath or affirmation. No person shall be convicted without the vote of two thirds of the members present. Two fatal accidents occurred at or near Clearfield last week. On Wednesday about noon a son of Milton Lawhead, who lives in Lawrence township took a colt to water. He had foolishly tied the strap by which he was leading it around his waist. On the way he stumbled and fell, frightening the animal which ran away dragging the unfortunate lad over the ground a considerable distance. It was some time before he was missed and upon search being made he was found lying by the roadside in an unconscious condition in which state he continued until Friday when he died. Harry Gaines, employed on a saw mill at Surveys Run, met his death Friday in the following manner. He was riding on a truck on a tramway connected with the mill when it jumped the track and crushed him to death. He carried a child in his arms at the time of the accident but it escaped injury. It is reported from Pittsburg that at the national convention of the Knights of Labor at Richmond next month, changes in the present laws will be made that will amount practically to a complete reorganization of the order. "The district plan has not proved so successful as was expected, for the reason that in many places districts have been formed within districts, and in consequence the local strength has been divided. The great number of district assemblies also make it impossible for the general officers, even with the assistance given the executive board at the Cleveland meeting, to keep up with business. The result is that important matters frequently cannot be investigated promptly enough to prevent dissatisfaction. To remedy this it is proposed to modal after the government of the United States—that is to have state organization and a supreme and national assembly. The state assemblies, under the new plan, will have control of the territory under their jurisdiction but the acts of their officers will be subject to reversal by the general master workman. Thus! Mr. Powderly will retain supreme control, while gaining relief from the routine work that now falls on his shoulders. The puddlers association in the state is very large, and a few will be employed in this town at the Nail Works. The rolls have not been giving the satisfaction desired. The puddlers who were discharged when the new machine was put in have been re-engaged. Dress goods—Garman's.
