of them, doubtless, drowned without platform in its reference to the labor any one now living, knowing anything of it. It is feared that whole families in different places have been swept away without leaving a vestige of their fate. It is said that the situation during the latter part of the after. noon, beggared description. The manifestation of terror and agony by the people looking face to face at death and realizing that there was no escape, the dying cries of women au. dible but rendered almost noiseless by the roar of the mad sea, the hoarse voices of the palid men trying to save those near to them, all combined made a scene too horrible to be described. The damage to property is very great.

A relief party has left here for the scene of the disaster.

Simonton Sustained.

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 19 .- The Supreme Court to-day rendered a decision in the South Pennsylvania Railroad case. It was a per curiam opinion affirming the decrees of the Dauphin county court. and putting the costs on the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, the appellants. The decision was a severe blow to the claims of the Pennsylvania Railroad, Five distinct appeals were involved, and embraced those of the Pennsylvania and Northern Central Companies concerning the lease of the Beech Creek ; and the Pennsylvania, the Bedford and Bridgeport, and the Pennsylvania Com pany, as to the lease of the South Pennsylvania. In all these cases the decision of the lower court was sustained. The decision of the Supreme Court sustains that of Judge Simonton, of the Dauphin County Court, in granting, at the instance of Attorney-General Cassidy, a perliminary injunction restraining the transfer of a majority of the stock in the South Penn Company to the Northern Central Railway Company. The latter is the representative of the Penn sylvania Railroad from Harrisburg to Baltimore. The decision also forbids the transfer of the majority of the stock of the Beech Creek, Clearfield and Southwestern Railroad Company to the Bedford and Bridgeport Railroad Company, a small branch line controlled by the Pennsylvania Railroad Company. This leaves the South Penn Road in the hands of the originators of scheme, and, although sympathy for. I was once a newspaperthe control is nominally with the Vanderbilts, it is generally supposed to be really with the minority, which favors the completion of the road.

question, is very pointed, demanding those reforms that have been advocated for years by the labor organizotions of this Common wealth.

Pennsylvania has upon her statute books many laws enacted solely for the purpose of intimidating the waye workers-laws that were placed there at a time when capital was in a position to tread upon oppressed labor, and, what is more, by the votes of Republican Legis atures

It is very well for the diciples of the dominent party in this State to proclaim friends for the working classes, but it would be far better for them to give us something more practical than mere words. The last Legislature was Republican, but there was not a single jabor measure of any importance passed by that body.

Further, the candidates of the Democratic party have been outspoken in favor of every labor reform demanded in their party platform, while the Republicans have conticued the old time cry that their party is the "only friend of labor." If the Republican managers desire to counteract the favor with which the candidates of the Democracy are being received among the working people they pronounce in favor of the repeal of the Conspiracy Laws and such other measures that do not bear equally upon capital and Labor; against convict and contract labor; against the emyears of age, and all other reforms enumerated in the platform of the opposition party .- The Tocsin, Labor Organ.

A Young Man's Suicide.

A man about 25 years of age entered Adam Lofink's saloon, at No. 235 South Twelfth street, shortly after ten o'clock last night, and, ordering a drink of whisky, sat down at one of the tables. He drank the liquor and then quietly took out a revolver, placed it against his temple and fired. He died ten minutes later and the body was removed to the Fifth district pelice stationhouse. A letter was found upon him, which said :

Richard Elder is an aged farmer who resides with his wife and daughtr about a mile on this side of Ashland Furnace. On Tuesday last he sold a large portion of his farm to Messrs. John A. Smith and John Louden, of this city. The ready money secured by the sale, which was several thousand dollars, he deposited in bank here and set out for home. Arriving there at a late hour he was called to the rear door of the house by a loud rapping. When he opened the door, a crowd of men, seven in number, pushed their way into the room. and, surrounding the startled man,demanded the money he had gotten for his land. The farmer's affirmation that he had not the money in his possession was received with angry jeers. Threats proving ineffectual, the ruffins bound the limbs of the quaking old man, and gave him the choice of delivering up the money or being strung up by the neck. In the meantime, one of the robbers, who had been searching the house, returned to the room with a bag of money, which jingled as though it contained a considerable amount of coin. The men, supposing they had ployment of children under fourteen | secured the coveted prize, departed | and were seen no more. Mrs. Elder came to the assistance of her now prostrated husband, and loosened the cords which bound his limbs. There is no clue to the robbers who committed the cowardly deed. The bag

town is in a state of excitement over news received from Sabine Pass. The wires are all down and the news of a terrible loss of life and destruction of property by high water was obtained from citizens of Sabine Pass, who arrived here on an engine. The waters began to invade the town from the gulf and the lake together about 2 o'clock Tuesday afternoon and rose with unprecedented rapidity. Houses began to yield and waves began to turn them over on their sides and tops.

The Knights and the Foliticians

Things must be getting rather desperate with the managers of the Republican party in the State when they wil. stoop so low as to charge that the opto sition candidate for Governor uttered such remarks as they attributed to him author of the company store bill of about the Knights of Labor vote. organs in giving publicity to this falsehood, and it was hardly necessary for that an unceasing battle has been waged Mr. Black to telegraph a denial of the charge.

It will be admitted, no doubt, even by his political enemies, that the Demo. cratic candidate is gifted with at least an ordinary amount of intelligencesufficient, at all events, to deter him from making any such statement about the labor vote. even if he believed that his party would receive a large proportion of that vote.
