RICHMOND, Va., October 21. The special train conveying the presiden. tial party to this city left Washington at 8 o'clock this morning, the president being accompanied by Secretaries Bayard, Endicott, Postmaster General Vilas, Private Secretary Lamont and a committee of Virginians, General W. C. Wickham, Colonel A. S. Buford and Dr. Holt. The train passed through Alexandria without stopping and although a large crowd had assembled at the station, there was no demonstration. When the party reached Fredricksburg the rain had ceased and the sun had broken through the clouds. A brief stop was made in order that the executive and his advisers might shake hands with the citizens, who in large numbers had assembled at the station to pay their respects. A salute was fired and in response to calls of the multitude the president went out on the rear platform of his private car, and being introduced by General Wickham, held fast to the frame of the car with one hand and shook hands with those who passed by with the other.

The special reached Milford at 10:20 a. m., and the seene at Fredericksburg was repeated, the only difference being the absence of cannon. When thence south 80%, west 66 5-10 perches to president stopped on the rear of stones, thence by land of George Brumthe platform a colored man of immense proportions shouted out, "Dah, he: dab he," which was the signal for Milford the distinguished party were and given a hearty welcome. The spokesman of the committee, Mr. Crump, was very brief, and the presifew happy words.

There were no further incidents un-11:30 a. m. The reception was a roaring ovation of voices. The sun Lawrence Stover. shone brightly on the chief executive and his party as they emerged from the car and were met by the local guards came to a "present," lifted ors were seated in the carriage bull ors were seated in the carriages wheelhad concluded the president spoke in reply. He was frequently interrupted by hearty applause and when he concluded the immense concourse of people joined in a perfect ovation of cheers.

Colonel Severly then introduced in Postmaster General Vilas and Commissioner of Agriculture Column, each of whom was greeted with cheers which they simply acknowledged by bowing to the people, it having been would not be in order. After witness- | ance. ing the review of the troops the party were driven to the Confederate Soldiers' home, where they were received with a salute of artillery by the veterans.

A stop of only a few minutes was made during which the president was presented with a souvenir of his visit flowers, and he shook hands with all veterans. The drive was then continued into and around the new reser oir grounds and through the principal streets of the city and finally to the gubernatorial mansion where the party alighted and a general introduction to the ladies took place and some time was spent in social talk. Miss Winnie Davis was the centre of attraction, creating among the distinguished visitors and others a most favorable impression and by the affable and pleasant manner in which she received all. At 6:30 p. m. adieus were spoken and the party were driven back to Elba station where they re-embarked at 6:40 o'clock homeward bound.

Everything passed off pleasantly until late this evening when the presidential party were leaving the Confederate Home. The veterans then resumed cannon firing and one of the guns prematurely exploded, tearing one man's arm off and breaking the arm of another.

Ashington, October 21.—The special train from Richmond bearing the president and his companions or noteworthy incident this evening. The president expressed himself as having enjoyed his visit and was well pleased with the hearty welcome accorded him by the Virginiaus.

MIRACULOUS ESCAPE,-W. W. Reed, druggist, of Winchester, Ind., writes: One of my customers, Mrs. Louisa Pike, Bartonia, Randolph Co., Ind., was a long sufferer with Consumption, and was given up to die by her physicians. She heard of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, and began buying it of me. In six months' time she walked to this city, a distance of six miles, and is now so much improved she has quit using it. She feels she owes her life to Free Trial Bottle at J. Zeller & Son., Drug Store.
