Local Department.

The County debt 0. The Borough $106,215.75. The last issue before the election. Buttons, beads and gimps.—Garman's. In this issue of the DEMOCRAT, we publish a list of the Sheriff sales. The Bartholdi statue in New York will be unveiled on Thursday the 25th inst. Sheriff Miles Walker spent a few days in Phillipsburg the early part of this week. The old skating rink sign still floats in the breeze at the corner of the High street bridge. Remember Democrats the county debt is paid. That is the only Court House ring we have and it is a big "O." Messrs. Collins Brothers are locating the site of their new furnace and extending a tract where the furnace is to be located. At the ruins of the glass works, men are busily at work, making the necessary preparations for the erection of the new works. Frank Grice of Brooklyn, formerly in the grocery business in this place is in town visiting at the residence of Col. Wilkinsons. The delegates to the annual Convention of Brotherhood, of Locomotive Engineers, attended Dr. Talmage's church on Sunday. Don't forget the ladies on election day. Go and get a good dinner at the room formerly occupied by Garman's store on High street. Dale Bros., attorneys at law, will warm their toes by the steam heat this winter. They are having arrangements to that effect made this week. Editor Joe Furey of the Lock Haven Democrat pays a weekly visit to his home in this place. He expects to move to Lock Haven in a short time. P. L. Dibbles, the man who some time ago broke into the Nittany Hall Post-office was sent to the Allegheny county prison in default of $1,000 bail. The Gazette editor says, "Democrats vote for Boal," and in the same breath he stabs them in the back by yelling for the rioters to "gut the Watchman office." There is $2,000 boodle for Feidler of the Gazette if Boal is elected. That is why Democrats he is working so hard to get you to vote the Republican ticket. A special car attached to the Bald Eagle Express from Lock Haven, brought Chairman Meyers and his committee up to meet the Blaine and Beaver party. On Saturday, Mr. Samuel Noll, of Pleasant Gap, fell from a hay mow and dislocated his shoulder. This accident occurred the same day his brother, Mr. Henry Noll dropped dead. The W. C. T. U., of the county, have a column in the DEMOCRAT which is wholly for articles contributed by any of the members. Send in communications, etc., for this column. Don't wait for us to fill it or we may prove a failure. Mr. Henry Noll an aged and highly respected citizen of Lauertown, died very suddenly on Saturday at the age of 81. The funeral occurred at 10 o'clock on Monday and was conducted by Rev. Groh, of the Reformed church, and J. W. Welsh, of the Evangelical church. Harry M. Martin, formerly one of the editors of the Phillipsburg Ledger was married on Wednesday last to Miss Laura Shontz, a very amiable and accomplished young lady of Phillipsburg. We extend our congratulations to Harry and his bride and wish them much success in life. On Friday evening about 6 o'clock a lamp in the rear part of Mr. Camps furniture store exploded and set fire to the store. Mr. Camp who was absent from home arrived and noticed the smoke issuing from the building and rushed in and put out the fire. The Uadine boys were promptly upon the scene, but their services were not needed as the flames were extinguished as above stated. The next attraction in Humes' Hall will be Charles H. Clark's new and complete version of T. S. Authur's thrilling temperance story "Ten Nights in a Bar Room." This piece while retaining the old and familiar title and a few of the most interesting situations, has been re-written and is meeting with flattering success wherever it is produced. Mr. Clark, supported by an excellent company, will produce this thrilling drama in Humes' Hall on Saturday evening, November 6th. They have a full military brass band and will give a street parade.

Feidler charges the Knights of Labor with the rioting of Wednesday. "Go in men, gut the office out!" Fiedler editor(?) of the Gazette. "We want our Republican bills up, but the Democratic bill must come down." Oh consistency. The Pine Grove Cornet Band was in town on Wednesday to furnishing some excellent music for Blain Boom. Those who heard Fiedler making rioters remarks on Wednesday, will confer a favor by calling upon Mr. Meek. Mr. Jacob Jackson, of Benore, a good and faithful Democrat witnessed the actions of the Republican mob on Wednesday. Mr. Robert Jackson, of Lemont, one of the best stone masons in the county, was in town on Wednesday and witnessed the most disgraceful event occurring in town for years. Sheriff Walker departed on the early train on Thursday morning for Lemont, and served a warrant on Dr. Christ, and then went to Williamsport, after W. V. Emery, another rioter. The Snow Shoe Cornet Band although small in number is one of the best in the county. The boys were the first in town on Wednesday morning and gave a little street parade with some excellent music. Who hid under the bed? Emery. Who hammered P. Gray Meek's window in? Emery. Who threw a stone through the window? Hon. Dr. V. Christ. Who urged the rioters to plunder etc? Fiedler editor of the "Coupon Gazette." When the arrests were made, and the howling mob followed to the Justice's office, a Republican from Curtin mounted the steps and made the following speech. "Silence, Silence, Silence, no man goes to jail here to-day. We are supreme." Mr. and Mrs. Peter Saylor, who are boarding at Noah Musser's, of Buffalo Run, were made happy by the arrival of a young daughter on Sunday last. Peter is a foreman on the Buffalo Run Railroad, and in honor of the event gave his men a half holiday. The Lewisburg News says: "Give us some good entertainment in Music Hall." We remember of being in Music Hall when there was a first class entertainment, and there were about a handful there to witness it. May be Lewisburg is not a good show town. Our exchanges will please observe, that during the Republican riot in our town on Wednesday, when Blaine, was here Mr. Fiedler the editr of the Gazette Beaver's organ, ran through the crowd quietly telling the rioters to "gut the Democratic offices of every thing in them." The game Verba charms all who play it. While amusing, it is instructive and fascinating, and time flies when a party is engaged with it. Sent, post paid, to any address, with our handsomely colored cards, on receipt of ten cents in stamps. R. H. McDonald Drug Company, 528 Washington St New York. J. K. P. Hall, the Democratic candidate for Congress, employs thousands of men in his numerous enterprises and pays them in cash. He does not hord up his money and loan it out at 25 per cent. interest just to accommodate a friend. Vote for Hall, and send a Democrat to represent the 20th congressional district in Congress. The row of houses at the car works known as Bush's White Row, was entirely destroyed by fire on Wednesday morning about 3 o'clock. The fire originated in one of the cellars, and soon the entire building was one mass of flames. There were eleven families living in the building all of whom sustain considerable loss, besides being thrown out of a house on the verge of winter. The fire companies were promptly upon the scene, but as there were no fire plugs within reaching distance they were unable to do any thing. The red book as usual makes its appearance just when wanted, and the State edition this year abounds with statistical information of the character now most in demand. The little publication has become the standard political text book, and not only is it of unquestioned value as an authority upon elections results, but is a model of clean and most artistic typography. As of old it is sent without money and without price by inclosing stamp to C. K. Lord Baltimore Md. Mr. Ford of Chicago, has put a new drop curtain in the Opera Houses at Phillipsburg, Tyrone, Huntingdon, Lock Haven and was trying to get advertisers to take space on a new one for the Hall in this place but was not successful. While we wish Mr. Ford success, we think it useless expense to discard the handsome (?) one which Adorns, has adorned, and no doubt always will adorn the Hall in this place. It represents a goat standing upon the top of a chimney, (a very likely occurrence) land and water, a most picturesque landscape a beautiful lake and many objects of interest.

There is a protracted meeting in progress at Lauertown under the auspices of the Evangelical Association conducted by Rev. Welsh. The meeting has been in progress for two weeks and eight conversions have taken place. In order to feed some of the hungry voters on election day, the ladies of the United Brethren church will give an oyster dinner and supper, together with chicken, chicken salad and many other good things to eat. Patronize the ladies, as the proceeds are to go to the benefit of the church. "Blind Tom" the phenomenal genius gave an exhibition in Humes' Hall on Monday evening to a very appreciative audience. "Tom" is too well known to need any additional compliments and those who failed to hear this wonderful performer, missed a grand treat. His imitations are marvelous. He can play any selection he hears no matter how difficult. Two, three, and four years ago Democrats were asked to stand by your ticket and vote straight, and to-day by the party you are asked the same thing, while by those whom you elected by "standing by the ticket" you are asked to vote against the ticket. This is not Democratic principle. Invoting against Schaeffer you have all to loose and nothing to gain. "O" This is the Court House ring. Our present efficient officer, our ex-Treasurers, Commissioners, ex-Prothonotaries, Register and Recorder helped to form the big ring that is an honor to the county, the ring O, which means not a dollar of debt. Can any true Democrat think of voting against his ticket? Can you afford to cast your vote against, an honest, obliging and competent man like Louis Schaeffer. Howorth's Hibernica played to a large audience on Saturday evening last in Humes' Hall. The comedy "Two Dams" is exceptionally laughable, while the scenery of the different places of interest in Ireland was very good and well worth the price of admission. The clog dancing was excellent, and we wish we could say as much for the singing. The company is fair, but not as strong as the one seen here a year or more ago. The audience was well pleased and the "Two Dams" will continue to draw good houses at all times. The "assassin" intellect of the Gazette editor, is evidently a little out of fix. Not being satisfied with the blunder he made in suggesting that the Democrats nominate Pattison for Governor a second time, he comes to the front, with the bold assertion that the Knights of Labor "dissemble" and yet this paper asks the Democrats to for sake their party and join the Republican. If it were to raise money to educate its editor to common decency and a better appreciation of peoples character we would say vote that way. Mr. Charley Jacobs proprietor of the Bishop Street Bakery departed on Monday for Philadelphia, and thence to Burlington N. J. where resides a very handsome, loving and accomplished damsel by the name of Miss Mary Bradley, and who will this week change her name to that of Jacobs and become the life partner of the firm of Charley Jacobs. Mr. Jacobs who although a resident of Bellefonte but a short time, has made many friends, and has built up a substantial trade in his line. We join in congratulating Mr. Jacobs and his estimable bride. Fiedler in speaking of the Knights of Labor Convention at Richmond says, "The Convention closes its deliberations, etc." Now this is a base outrage upon that organization. They do not dissemble, and they did not at their convention. Their actions were open and above board. They conducted their convention in a most becoming manner and have the hearty approval of all intelligent thinking people. Fiedler has acted as a dissembler to the order ever since he has been in town. Oh, this man with the "assassin" intellect, who wants Democrats to vote the Republican ticket, and thought they made a great mistake by not nominating Pattison again for Governor, surely needs a guardian. What might have proven a fatal accident happened to Mr. J. A. Miller the gentleman who delivers goods for Erhard & Shuey on Saturday last. Mr. Miller was returning from a trip to Half Moon Hill, when the wagon plunged into a gutter, throwing driver and seat forward upon the horse. The animal became frightened and started on a run for the store. Mr. Miller still riding partly upon the shaft, and partly upon the horse, vainly tried to check the speed, but his foot becoming entangled in the harness he fell off and was dragged considerable distance with head and shoulders upon the ground. When the animal was stopped and Mr. Miller extricated, it was found he had received several bruises, lost considerable "bark" and his coat rent in twain. Mr. Miller's escape from instant death is a miracle, as he was apparently under the horses heels several times. He was fortunate to escape without serious injury.

Personal. J. M. Coble of Lemont was in town on Wednesday to shake hands with James G. Blain. Miss Martha Johnson, of Harrisburg is visiting her sister Mrs. S. T. Shugert, in this place. Messrs. John Bullock and John Powers, Jr., returned from a pleasant visit to Philidelphoa on Saturday. Rev. Wasson pastor of the U. B. church of this place and circuit, has moved from Millheim to Bellefonte. Squire M. L. Rishel, of Farmers Mills, a leading and highly respected citizen of that place was in town on Thursday. Mr. Emanuel Musser of State College was visiting at the home of his daughter Mrs. D. O. Ethers in this place on Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Ed Chambers arrived on Monday from Kennett Square, Pa., where Mrs. Chambers had been visiting her parents. Messrs. George Sholl, Ira Lyle Palmer, George Wirts, Wm. Coble and a number of others from Houseville were in town on Wednesday. Mr. W. K. DeLong of Blanchard who has been working in the woods near Carmon Post Office during the summer is now located at Rolf Elk county. Miss Emma Dale, a very bright and accomplished young lady from Lemont visited her cousin Miss Lizzie Longwell of this place the early part of the week. Mrs. Mary Heston, wife of Prof. Jno. W. Heston of State College, visited Mr. and Mrs. D. O. Ethers, of this place, on Monday and witnessed the "Blind Tom" concert. We were favored with a call from Rev. J. H. Welsh, pastor of the Evangelical Association. Mr. Welsh resides in Lemont and has a large circuit, preaching at six different places. Prof. D. M. Wolf our faithful and efficient County Superintendent has been visiting schools ever since they have been opened. This week he has been in Phillipsburg and through Bush township. Rev. M. O. T. Sahn, of Boalsburg, pastor of the Lutheran church at that place and Pleasant Gap, was in town on Monday and again on Wednesday at the Blaine and Beaver reception. Mr. Sahn is a very intelligent and accomplished gentleman and highly respected by all who know him. W. V. Emery, of the Bellefonte Iron and Nail Co., Ltd., visited Williamsport, on Wednesday, and Dr. Christ, a staunch Republican of Lemont was in town on Wednesday and looked through a glass in the Watchman office. These gentlemen will return to Bellefonte, in the near future. When you are asked to vote against your ticket, size your man up and see whether he does not belong to the class who have held office or a friend of some one who has, or was disappointed in some way. Don't sacrifice your party by voting against its candidates. Democrats, have you ever inquired into the personal history of the man who is saying all the mean and contemptible things about Mr. L. A. Schaeffer through the columns of his paper? Mr. Schaeffer is a gentleman and would not think of stooping to look up the dark history of the man who is trying to injure his character, but were he to do so, or any one else, they perhaps "could a tale unfold." Don't dissemble, Democrats. Democrats in the name of all that is good and noble resent the terrible outrage of Wednesday. Democrats were branded as traitors, rebels, thieves and the Watchman office glass front smashed in by the Republicans. Now can you even think of voting for any member on their ticket! For heaven's sake don't do it. This should and will unite us. Let us shake hands and stand faithfully by each other and our good old ticket. Barry all little personal feeling and stand by your party, you have had a fair sample of what they would do if in power. It takes a dirty, and contemptible scamp to run a slanderous, vile and filthy sheet, and that is why the Republicans gut Fiedler to come. They could not have succeeded better if they had hunted all through the Western penitentiary. He gets a big "boodle" for fighting Schaeffer, and has the cheek to ask Democrats to help purify (?) the Democratic party. This is an insult to every intelligent Democrat in the county. He is using every means possible, no matter how vile, to defeat a gentleman and a Democrat. Democrats stand by your own party. Democrats during the war were called rebels, traitors, dum dutch, and all the vile epithaps the Republicans could think of, are now asked by that same party to vote for them and their candidates. Are you going to obey? The Republicans say that if they can succeed this time they will get the sheriff, treasurer and two or three county offices at the election a year hence. Democrats in the name of your party don't be so foolish as to aid the Republicans to accomplish their object. You can't afford it. Think of the disastrous result in the future.

Editors of Democrat.—Permit me through your columns to relate to your readers of a dastardly and an unlawful attack upon the Watchman office to-day just before the arrival of Blaine to this town. Some parties with too much Republican love for county coldly took from the outside of the Watchman office window will, a large printed coupon, a facsimile of the one in use at the nail-works and what Powderly, and leading Democrats say, and throw it over the bridge into Spring Creek. Mr. Meek put another into the inside of his office window, and a half an hour later, a said to be drunken nail worker, instigated by the devil and backed by affliating Republicans with a promise of ten dollars, as the reward of a meritorious deed, succeeded in hurling stones through the large window of the Watchman office, taking with it the large store order business. Dr. Christ of Lemont, tried his medical acumen by repeating the dose, with skill. Mr. Meek, knowing his legal rights, as an American, "Set his own house in order again." When one of General Beaver's, leading partners, Emery secretary of Nail Co. said to be under the influence of liquor too, and overflowing with love to God and native land, and the Democratic party. And not satisfied with what it would already cost him to have the holes knocked into the Democratic party; he defiantly and arrogantly ran up to the Watchman window and battered it in with his cane and then darted like a meteor into the Bush House ambulance. His friends gave as a reason for his rash conduct, that he would have to pay for what the other fellow had done. Just so, that's what is the matter with most poor fellows. During this love of county and law and order vindications by General Beaver's store order friends, the most intense excitement prevailed. The street was densely packed, violent threats made and every indication of a general riot. Yet there was not a voice heard from those who might have stilled the storm, it would have been worthy trying at least. Fiedler of the Gazette used his utmost influence in the crowd to incite riot by using such language as "gut the office tear it down" and others were heard to use similar language at the time and during the afternoon and evening, also that Meek was a rebel and his office, a hole and that he should have been killed twenty years ago. This kind of feeling was manifested. The foregoing are some of the facts as they actually occurred, and were seen and heard by the writer. Now is it true the American citizen is to be denied the right of political sentiment or action? Or is it true that the Republican party are the only citizens who enjoy that right? If the latter be true, then Mr. Meek certainly did wrong thinking as he did about the store order and in placing it in his window. But we have reason to believe that the republican party is a law unto its self, and need not obey the law of the land. It is said that Mr. Meek had been warned and threatened that if he did not take it down they would. Plans premeditated were the offspring of the leaders. Why did they not notify their men against violating the law, and to explain to them their rights as citizens, to flaunt their banner to the breeze unmolested, and that Meek and every other Democrat had an equal right to the same privileges and thereby have done their duty more fully and have evicted lawlessness. Amidst all this infamous lawlessness the Democrats never raised a hand, but endured it all as law abiding citizens. Democrats can you lend your influence to a party that would destroy your life and property in this way. If you are true to your manhood, never. TREE BLUE. Port Matilda, Worth, Monday November 1. Centre Hall, Worth township Monday November 1. ROLAND. Mr. William Sharp has moved to McKeesport. Rev. G. Leidy presiding elder preached in the Methodist church at this place on Sunday 17. It being quarterly meeting service. Rev. Shoemaker pastor in charge has preached several evenings since to large congregations, as the meetings is protracted. The beautiful October weather has enabled many of our sportsmen to roam through the forests in search of game. Pity the unlucky squirrel. Mr. Jacob Leathers narrowly escaped being seriously hurt on Friday last. While hauling corn fodder his horses became unmanageable, and in his efforts to keep a firm seat on the load, slipped down and fell off the wagon between the two horses, while they were on a gallop. The wagon ran over both legs above the knees, which were fortunately only bruised. Mr. Leathers is still unable to move around much. Miss Sue Holter of this place accompanied by her cousin Miss Bell Holter of Howard Pa., is visiting relatives in Maryland. Schools opened here on the 18th, with Mr. William Rotbrock teacher of grammar school, and Miss Jennie Jacobs the primary. Mrs. Jacob Long, and Miss Fannie Gardner, of Howard, were the guests at Col. P. W. Barnhart's on Saturday last. For several weeks past our forests have been a picture of beauty. No artist can paint anything lovelier. So many colors of leaves, with here and there a tall green pine, and hemlock, thereby making the woods resemble a beautiful large bouquet. And now political parties are very busy, and are surmising as to who shall prepare the "boat" to go up "salt river" after Tuesday next. D. Moss trimming Passantries, Beads, Fringes, in all colors.—Garman's. CREAMERY. The creamery is ready to churn and will commence operation as soon as the first supply of the lactic fluid comes in. W. A. Brown has resigned his position as leader of the Spring Mills Challenge Band, left for Williamsport where he will carry on the business of music publishing, making band music a specialty. Warren S. Krise and his father have returned from a ten days visit to the northern part of Clearfield county. They report that they learned through personal intercourse that a large number of Republicans in that part of the county have expressed a preference for Chauncey F. Black. The family of Wm. Ripky, of Georges Valley have been seriously afflicted with sickness for several weeks. One child died and two or three others are down with typhoid fever. Major J. B. Fisher of Penn Hall and Charley Long of this place have returned from Philadelphia, where each purchased a large lot of goods. Politics are very quiet in our township but every democrat is solid for Chauncey Black and the ticket. The letter in the Gazette which was signed by a Democrat from Gregg is a forgery. It was either written in Bellefonte, or, if written at Spring Mills it was by some scurrilous Republican. YONEY. FOR RENT.—A. M. Hoover by several desirable houses for rent at attractive rates. Beads, Fringes, Gimps and Buttons.—Garman's. DRUNKENNESS, OR LIQUOR HABIT CAN BE CURED BY ADMINISTERING DR.
