Dunovan Jumps Again.

NIAGARA FALLS, November 6 .-Lawrence Donovan, who some time ago jumped from the Brooklyn bridge, jumped from the new suspension bridge this morning. His jump was witnessed by four or five persons. He was 112 o'clock P. M., the following property accompanied by Prof. Haley and to wit: Drew, a reporter of Buffalo. He made the jump successfully. The distance is 190 feet and he went storight down feet first. He came up somewhat dazed, struck out for the boat in which were Drew and Haley, was taken in and stimulants were given him. He is not seriously injured. One rib is probably broken and his hip is bruised. He said before he got out of the water that he would not jump again for a million. Afterwards he said he would jump next summer for a thousand dollars. That he wanted to jump at Rochester and then quit business.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Nov. 6.-A dastardly attempt was made to assassinate William Carr and family, of Union county on Wednesday. Carr and his son were unloading corn at the barn, a daughter of about 9 years being on top of the wagon, when they were surprised by a volly of shots from a thicket near by. Each of the three received aportion of two loads of buck shot and it is thought that all are fatally injured. Carr cannot possibly recover. Tom Berry, a distant relative of the Carrs, has been arrested and made a confession. He was lodged in jail, and it is feared now that he will be lynched in spite of all that the officers can do to prevent it.

Eloped With a Colored Coachman.

NEW YORK, November, 8 .- Sarah Comstock, the handsome 20-year old daughter of John Comstock, a New York broker, residing at South Orange N. J. has eloped with her father's coachman, a mulatto about her own age.

She left a note for her father saying that "Archie," the coachman, was her sweetheart and that she was going to marry him. Miss Comstock had had very little company, her father being somewhat strict, and her mother having died while the girl was yet a baby.

morning a short distance from Fort Leef on the Jersey side of the Hudson river. Both men were about even weight, Smith tipping the scales at 162 and Dunn 160. The fighting, while it lasted, was most desperate, each receiving and giving punishment without stint. Smith had a little the best of it until the third round, when Dunn swung his right and landed it directly under his opponents left ear, knocking him senseless.

THE Philadelphia Record says the stupidity of high tariff is nicely illustrated by the blockade of the English parcels post system for Canadian deliveries. The custom rates in Canada, are sometimes higher than the postage. An incidental benefit may arise from this inconvenience in the better education of the Canadians as to the amount of indirect taxation they are required to pay.
