—The frequent discovery of chunks of stone containing mineral species upon our mountains put it beyond a doubt that there are valuable beds of metallic ores of some kind in our immediate vicinity. Only a few days ago Squire Reifsnyder brought a piece to town which he had found on his mountain land and which upon closer examination showed substances which very much resembled metal. We are almost positive that a thorough investigation by some one who has the means to pursue the matter will at some future day reveal a vast amount of wealth in these mountains. The only thing wanting is some one to start the business.—Millheim Journal.

MIRACULOUS ESCAPE.—W. W. Reed, druggist, of Winchester, Ind., writes: "One of my customers, Mrs. Louisa Pike, Bartonia, Randolph Co., Ind., was a long sufferer with Consumption, and was given up to die by her physicians. She heard of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, and began buying it of me. In six months' time she walked to this city, a distance of six miles, and is now so much improved she has quit using it. She feels she owes her life to it." Free Trial Bottle at J. Zeller & Son., Drug Store.
