

SOUTH SIDE.

In the line of saw mill accidents little Sugar Valley takes the lead, with no less than three within the past two weeks. Harry Zeigler of Nittany Valley, operates a steam saw mill in that little valley on a timber tract belonging to him. A couple of weeks ago while the hands were piling up lumber a large piece of oak timber slipped from its place and falling down struck Mr. Jno. S. Hoy of Brush Valley on the foot, smashing it badly. The same day a son of Mr. Zeigler got his hand injured, and a few days afterward Mr. William Teets a son-in-law of Mr. Zeigler while out making logs was hurt by a tree striking him and breaking his thigh.

Rev. Basom's meeting in the Yearick Evangelical church is still progressing. Several seekers have been forward at the altar of prayer.

J. Frank Yearick, Cal Meyer, and John Weiland, the two latter of Penn Hall; Chas. Palmer and W. A. Brown of Williamsport, all members of the Spring Mills Cornet Band have been engaged as an orchestra by a Williamsport "Uncle Tom Cabin" Troop for a six weeks tour.

T. B. Jamison came home to butcher. Tom is a successful fruit tree agent and the company keep him out on the road all the time.

On Saturday 20th, Executor M. L. Rishel sold the Luce property at Spring Mills to Michael Runkle of Bellefonte, for $900. It is supposed he bought it for his brother-in-law William Stover.

The Gilbert family, colored, exhibited in this place to a small audience.

Prof. O. Teel a noted ventriloquist who four years ago exhibited the "Bebes in the Woods" through the south side and two years ago made another tour through Penna Valley has made his appearance again, but this time in the role of a Methodist preacher but without a charge. He preached for Rev. Shambaugh.

Stephen Soars the gentlemanly agent of the P. R. R. Co. at this place, who has been sick for several weeks at his home in Muncy has returned to his post.

Dr. Allison spent Sunday under the paternal roof in Nittany. J. O. Charley Long spent Sunday in Nittany Valley.

DETROIT, Nov. 22.—This morning a little after 10 o'clock, in the new cyclorama building on Larned street, about twenty feet of the scaffolding gave way, precipitating four carpenters to the ground, fifty feet below. Two others saved themselves by catching the broken scaffolding. Michael Gaezler was killed instantly. J. Austin's head struck a piece of the scaffolding, crushing in his face so that he died while on the way to the hospital. William Reeder had a leg broken and was injured internally; his recovery is doubtful. George Phillips sustained internal injuries, besides having a leg broken. It is thought he will recover. The accident was caused by the men crowding in one spot.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Nov. 22.—Advice from the coke regions to-day are to the effect that no meeting of the coke workers has been held to consider the ultimatum of the operators, and that all the men are at work as usual. The operators say there will be no strike, as the Knights of Labor are opposed to it, and the Miner's Association cannot afford to order a strike unless the men are united.

W. C. T. U. COLUMN.

They Never Strike. There is one class of laborers who never strike and seldom complain. They get up at five o'clock in the morning and never go back to bed until ten or eleven o'clock at night. They work without ceasing the whole of that time and receive no other emolument than food and the plainest clothing. They understand something of every branch of economy and labor, from finance to cooking. Though harassed by a hundred responsibilities though driven and worried, though reproached and looked down upon they never revolt; and they cannot organize for their own protection. Nor even sickness releases them from their posts. No sacrifice is deemed too great for them to make, and no incompetency in any branch of their work is excused. No essays or books or poems are written in tribute to their steadfastness. They die in the harness, and are supplanted as quickly as may be. These are the house keeping wives of the laboring men.—Presbyterian.

Judge Harry White has created another sensation in Indiana county, Pa. by ruling that persons convicted of selling liquor to miners must undergo a term of imprisonment; that the imprisonment is a necessary part of the sentence and that the infliction of this part of the penalty is not a discretionary power in the hands of the court, but a duty.

The Prohibition vote in 79 of the 75 counties in Arkansas is 65,000; a large gain.

Fatal Storm.

GIRARD, Kan., November 22.—A cyclone or an electrical storm struck Girard at 8.40 this morning and passed through the residences of a portion of the town from southwest to northwest. The path of the storm was from fifty to twenty-five feet wide. All of the lighter buildings were demolished but the larger and more substantial buildings stood the shock without much damage. The Presbyterian church is wrecked and a number of persons were injured. John W. Herron was blown out of his house, but about the head internally injured and may die. His wife had her arms cut and a child was bruised. John Kennedy had an arm broken and Mrs. Kennedy was injured internally, part of a roof falling on her. She is in a critical condition. William Smith, an aged man, was in his house when it was turned bottom side up. A vinegar barrel fell on him. His injuries are serious. Outside of Girard the damage was slight.

HUNTINGDON, Pa., November 22.—

On Saturday night last, during the progress of a festival in the Methodist church at Spruce Creek, this county the festivities were broken up by the interference of three young men of the village, named William Keith, Warren Keith and Louis Hall, all miners who were in a state of intoxication. Every effort was made by persons in charge of the festival to preserve order but the young hoodlums, it seems went there with the express purpose of breaking up the festival, and by acts of intimidation, succeeded in their design. Information was made against the young men to-day before Justice Stewart of this place and warrants were issued for their arrest.

This afternoon Chief of Police Graham and Constable Lomberton went to Spruce Creek, where after a resistance, they captured William Keith and Hall, who surrendered only at the point of a revolver. Warren Keith, who was at work at Barree, got wind of the affair and made good his escape. His two companions in crime are now in jail.

Thomas Grove, of Duncansville, Blair county, who was arrested by Detective Roat last week for complicity in the recent robberies committed on the property of the Pennsylvania Railroad company near this place, was liberated from prison here this afternoon, his father, John Grove, becoming his bondsman in the sum of $200.

Contesting Carlisle's Seat.

CINCINNATI, O., Nov. 30.—The ground for the contest of Speaker Carlisle's seat in the Fiftyth Congress of the United States have been prepared and were signed last night by George H. Thobe, the contestant. The allegations are numerous, and it requires forty-five pages of legal cap paper to recite them all. The petition starts out by alleging that there were cast for Mr. Thobe 1,000 legal votes in the Sixth Congressional district of Kentucky, which by omissions, mistakes, or fraud and collusions of election officers of various precincts and voting places and county canvassing boards, were not counted and returned for Mr. Thobe. It is charged that the poll-books and the returns of Trimble county were all in violation of the law and were opened within less than three days after said election; that the vote as returned was 376 for Carlisle and three for Thobe, and he objected; to the county being counted; that the ballot-boxes of Trimble county were in the custody of the County Clerk of said county, and exposed and liable to be tampered with by said clerk or by any evil disposed person. Objection is made to Grant and Gallatin counties, in which all sorts of frauds are alleged. In the county of Carroll, which was returned as being 425 to 275 in favor of Mr. Carlisle many irregularities are alleged. It is claimed that in many of the precincts throughout the district all the election officers were Democrats, which is in direct violation of the law. In the county of Kenton, Mr. Carlisle's old home, a number of irregularities are set forth. A copy of the petition was given to Mr. Carlisle last night, also a copy of the notice of contest.

BALTIMORE, November 29.—The statement telegraphed from Washington to papers throughout the country to the effect that Washington is about to be made a Catholic Bishopric See was positively denied by Cardinal Gibbon to-day, who characterizes the rumor as a newspaper fiction.

—EXCITEMENT IN TEXAS.—Great excitement has been caused in the vicinity of Paris, Tex., by the remarkable recovery of Mr. J. E. Corley, who was so helpless he could not turn in bed, or raise his head; everybody said he was dying of Consumption. A trial bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery was sent him. Finding relief, he bought a large bottle and a box of Dr. King's New Life Pills; by the time he had taken two boxes of Pills and two bottles of the Discovery, he was well and had gained in flesh thirty-six pounds.

Where Poker is Played.

State Line (Pa.) Special in New York Times. This little oil town on the line of the Olean, Bradford and Warren Railroad, and partly in Pennsylvania and partly in New York, is the greatest poker-playing place in the entire Northern oil field. There is only one man in the place who does not play the game, and he is a veteran oil man known as Bibie Joe, whose only recreation is reading the Bible, which he does constantly when not at work. No one knows what this man's name is or where he came from, although he has been in the oil regions since the days of the Pitohole excitement. He holds prayer meetings every Sunday night and always has a good audience of oil well drillers and the like, who go to meeting, as they say, to encourage Bibie Joe, but as soon as the service is over they hasten to their favorite retreats and play poker. Hardly an evening passes that there are not some notable games played at State Line between rival New York and Pennsylvania players. They come from as far as Bradford, Olean, Warren, Salamanca and even Jamestown.

Since active drilling ceased in the State Line district a large portion of the men moved away, their places being filled by young men who pump the wells and take care of the leases. With the use of natural gas and automatic inspirators with one boiler running the engines for all the leases or lots on which producing wells are situated, the men find but little to do. The man on the lease visits the wells in the morning, turns on the gas, touches a match to it, sets the inspirator, oils his engine, takes a gauge of the oil and has nothing more to do all day, unless something breaks down. To make the most of their spare time the boys rig up what they call a tell-tale wire, running from one lease to the others. This wire is attached to the walking-beam of the well at one lease and to a wooden tigger at the other, and by this means the pumper at No. 1 is enabled to spend his time with his friend at No. 2, or vice versa and know all the time just how far his engine is going a half mile or so away. As long as the tigger responds regularly the two pumpers and other acquaintances sit and handle the pasteboards and risk their month's wages on their skill or luck. If the players belong to the same State the rules of the game are not drawn too fine, and a winner will be willing to take "wind" on a bet. But if one player is a "York Stater" and the other a Pennsylvanian the money must accompany each bet and everything be settled as the game proceeds. Within a radius of two miles of this poker-playing settlement there are ten games in constant progress. Orders on employers for wages are accepted as cash in these games, and it is no uncommon thing for a player to have his entire salary "ordered out" before the month has fairly begun.
