Gov. BEAVER'S Administration is on the broad road to success, it now has the active opposition of the Philsdelphia Times, which insures the honest support of the great body of the people of this Commonwealth. Alec wants to run the state and when he can't do it he tries to "bust the administration." Give Philadelphia all the legislation her roosters ask and her people will roon send honest men to represent her and take care of her interests.

PITTSBURGH, February 4.-The most successful attempt that was ever made in this vicinity to rescue a prisoner occurred early this morning on the Cleveland and Pittsburgh express, which left this city at 11:25 o'clock last night for Cleveland. So desparate were the confederates that two of Clevelands detectives were fatally wounded. Captain Hoehen and Detective Hulligan, of Cleveland, having secured a requisition, determined to run to Cleveland last night with their prisoner, Harry Mc-

Munn, who was accused of having been concerned in the recent extentook every precaution to prevent any attempt that might be .nade by the "pals" of McMuun to rescue. Securely handcuffed, the prisoner was placed on board the train at the outer depot in Allegheny. He took his arrest very coolly and seemed anxious to cause the detective as little trouble as possible.

The express sped on, and at 2 o'clock this morning Alliance, Ohio, was reached. At that print five men boarded the train and passed through several of the cars. Finally they saw the officers and their prisoner sitting in the smoking car. No sign of recognition passed between McMunn course. When Ravenna was reached their seats, and without warning drew their revolvers on the officers. There were but a couple of other passengers in the car and the confederates of Me-Munn were complete masters of the of the men demanded their prisoner, Rev. Dr. McGlynn.

NEW YORK, Feb. 3 .- Henry George's paper, the Standard, for Saturday contains the long-looked-for statement of Dr. McGlynn. The article makes six columns, and to all intents and purposes seems to agree with the statement recently published by Arch bisnop Corrigan. Regarding, however, the letter from Cardinal Simeoni of four years ago Dr. McGlynn says : It is absolutely false, although stated by Archbishop Corrigan, on the authority of Cardinal McCloskey, that I "recognized my errors and professed to be sorry for them." On the contrary, in my interview with Cardinal McCloskey I reaffirmed the doctrine and explained it, and defended sive fur robbery in that city. Some very important changes are about to be made in the Treasury Department. Secretary Manning, it will be remembered, tendered his resignation at the time of his illness, and although the resignation is still in the hands of the President and has not been scied upon, Mr. Manning has announced his attention of withdrawing from the Cabinet. Treasurer Jordan has also tendered his resignation and asked that it receive immediate action, though he may possibly continue in office until the adjournment of Congress. Mr. Manning willfill the position of president, and Mr. Jordan that of vice-president of the "New Western National Bank of New York City," which will begin business on the first of May. Applications for more than $4,received, but only $3,000,000 will be accepted.

The second State dinner of the season was given by the President and Mrs. Cleveland, in honor of the Diplomatic Corps, on Thursday evening last. The representatives of twenty-three of the thirty friendly nations usually reprerented attended in full court costume. Mrs. Cleveland had been especially into meet them, and the State spartment were richly decorated with flowers. The East Room where the guests met Mrs. Cleveland, was transformed into a bower.

The recent passage of the Mexican pension bill will necessitate the employment of two hundred and fifty additional clerks in the Pension Office. Commissioner Black is preparing for the trying ordeal, and says that he will endeavor to complete the examination of the 50,000 applications from this source ficeal year. Although the additional clerical force, which is to be appointed, will be be required but a few months, applications for appointment are being The War Department has of late been engaged in collecting information concerning the strength of the militis force of the United States, and the reports which have been received from the adjutant generals of the various Stater, are very encouraging. The reports for the past year show an increase of 10,000 in the organized branch of the mititia force. There are at the present time over 94,000 militiamen in a state of thorough organization, and over 7,000, 000 men available for military service. One of the most distinguished gatherings that have assembled about a banquet table in Washington in many years was the party that gathered at Chamberlain's, on Wednesday evening last, as guests of Mr. William Walter Phelps, in honor of Mr. Hiscock's election to the United States Senate. Among those present were Mr. West, the British Minister: Speaker Carlisle, Senator Sherman, Secretary Lamar, Murat Halstead, of the Cincinnati Commercial Gazette; Senator Evarts, ex-Senator Platt, Representative Morrison, Senator Sewell, Hon. Sheridan, Justice Blatchford, Representatives Reid, Randall, Astor, and McKinley, and Whitelaw Reid, of the New York Tribune. The table decorations were elegant. A hugh boquet of Jacquinot roses rested in the centre of the table. Four candlesticks. each bearing five wax candles, served to light the festive board. Nospeeches were made, and the affair was almost informal in its nature. The Senate devoted much of its time during the past week to the discussion of Senator Beck's bill prohibiting Senators and Members of Congress from receiving fees from railroad companies during their terms of office. During the discussion, which was participated in by nearly all of the Senators, some of the ablest speeches of the session were made, and the bill was passed on Friday An excursion party from Northern and Central New York, numbering upwards of one thousand persons, arrived WASHINGTON, February 8 .- The in the city on Thursday, and spent the
