P. F. Bottorfi and J. B. Ard, of Pine Grove, interviewed the authorities of the Bellefonte and Buffalo Run Railroad with reference to its extension to Pine Grove Mills. We hope the citizens of Furguson will avail themselves of the chance to develop their resources that is offered.

We are now in good running order and turning out lots of job work. Orders by mail or telephone promptly filled. Get your job work, sale bills, and everything in the printing line done where it can be done the best and cheapest. Call at the DEMOCRAT office for good work at low figures.

The prospects for the completion of the Bellefonte and Buffalo Run railroad to Pine Grove are very flattering if the people of that vicinity avail themselves of the opportunity. The matter depends much on the public spirit of Furguson township people. The advantages to be gained by the extension of the road should not be underestimated. Now is the time to strike, the iron is hot.

Prof. D. M. Wolf present county Superintendent will be a candidate for re-election. The Professor has made an excellent officer. We now have two candidates, Rev. Steck and Rev. Wolf. Whether there are to be any more candidates or not remains to be seen. We will give each one a send off and the directors will name the man. Both Mr. Wolf and Mr. Steck are Democrats.

Rev. Steck of our town, is mentioned as a candidate for county Supt. Mr. Steck is certainly in every way qualified for the position, and would make a most excellent Superintendent. It would be a very nice thing for him as his congregation is small and not overburdened with surplus revenue. There are several other men whose names have been mentioned for the position all of whom are capable.

Brother Meek don't seem to be tearing his shirt collar over the fact that there is still a Republican county Detective. Of course there is no objection to Capt. Mullen as an officer as he has been one of the most efficient we ever had. But as our neighbor went into hysterics over the presence of Harry Keller in the Recorders and Registers offices we naturally suppose he would file objections to Capt. Mullen. Why not?

The Good Templars will hold a District Lodge in Centre Hall, commencing to day and continuing until Friday evening, when a general meeting will be held. Many prominent temperance speakers of the state will be present to address the people at the different sessions. No doubt Bellefonte will be well represented. We are informed that on Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock a heck load will start from the Y. M. C. A. rooms for Centre Hall and returning after the meeting in the evening.

Just think of a little town like Millheim having 27 drummers in two days. That town will in a short time be well stocked with goods of every description.

The Lewistown Democrat & Sentinel looks like a new silk hat so nice and glossy is its new dress. The Democrat & Sentinel deserves the support its appearance indicates it is receiving. We congratulate our contemporary on its prosperity.

The Lock Haven Democrat says Col. Teller has been notified that the Bush House will go next, and that Mrs. Bush has been threatened with the destruction of her private residence. Kind in the fire-bug to notify our people of their intentions.

Miss Van Zandt, the female crank, who married Anarchist Spies by proxy has written a book on that worthy. It was notoriety that Miss Van Zandt was after more than a husband in Spies. The only objection that could be urged to the marriage of those two people was that it might perpetuate a race of fools and criminals.

On last Tuesday evening the Good Templar Lodge met in their hall and one of the principal features of that noble body was the initiation of Mr. John Wagner. John mastered the goat to perfection and came out ahead in the end. This is an illustrious step in his passage through life and should be followed by many more.

The McDowell Comedy Company presented "Our Regiment" to a fair sized audience on Tuesday evening. We cannot say too much in praise of this company. Each member is equal to any actor or actress who has yet appeared before our people, and should they favor us with a return date a crowded house will await them.

We have received no notice from the committeemen in the borough of the different caucus meetings but they will be held at the usual places. North Ward in the arbitration room, South Ward at the office of D. F. Fortney, West Ward at the Watchman office. Benner and Spring townships will hold their caucuses at the usual places on Saturday afternoon.

A grand Musical Convention under the directorship of Philip H. Meyers is to be held at Pine Hall, commencing Monday February 14th, and continuing one week, closing with a concert on Saturday evening. All are invited to attend. Family tickets $1 class tickets 50 cents admission to concert 25 cents. The proceeds are to go to St. Peter's Reformed church. The Buffalo Run railroad runs within a half a mile of the church. Turn out in goodly numbers.

The Lock Haven Democrat says: Rev. John Hewitt, pastor of the Episcopal church at Fremont, Nebraska, but formerly for several years rector at Bellefonte, has returned from Europe, but had a rough time of it coming over. The steamer he was in, the "Arizona," left Queenstown on Jan 23d, and did not reach New York until February 3d. The storm caught it twenty-four hours out from Queenstown. During its prevalence two of the seamen were dashed against the bulwarks and killed, and several others seriously injured.

Ground for the Undine Hose house has been purchased by the borough authorities and arrangements for the building of a house will soon be made. The company should be re-organized on a solid basis and none but good men permitted to join. This company has been very shably treated for a long time but their prospects are much brighter. They have always been a faithful and efficient body of men, and are deserving of good quarters and a hearty support from our citizens.

The Lock Haven Express pertinently asks "Why shouldn't Lock Haven have a boom?" We give it up. She certainly has room for an article of that kind and some time ago was complaining because her boom company was raising the boom fees on logs. If you want to see a genuine, substantial always-growing boom come up to Bellefonte. We have one all the time, and can make time to order for small towns like Lock Haven.

Co. "B," 5th Regiment, will give a grand military ball in their Armory, on Monday evening, February 21st. The Company has gone through the fire and lost everything and takes this plan of raising some money for the furnishing of their Armory. They should receive a generous support from the people of Bellefonte. A feature of the ball will be a silent drill by the company which will take place about 11 o'clock. The company going through the manual of arms and executing the most difficult manoeuvres without a word of command. No disreputable characters will be allowed in the Armory and the best of order will be preserved.

Mr. Barney Hampshire, an enterprising citizen of Chambersburg this State, and who is holding a responsible position in Harrisburg was in town several days last week attending court, and on last Thursday in company with Mr. Wm. T. Speer of this place gave the CENTRE DEMOCRAT a call. Mr. Hampshire has always been a true Democrat, and at one time was editor of a paper advocating its principals, he is a bright and intelligent gentleman capable of filling any position that may be intrusted to him and no doubt will retain the position he now holds.

If Council is going to appoint a Fire Marshal for the borough as recommended by the Insurance experts, we would suggest that the Marshall be selected from the ranks of the Firemen. There are a number of experienced and capable firemen who would make excellent officers and it would be the proper thing to give some one of them proper recognition. The fellows who stand on the street and bellow out orders to the fire boys who are working at the fire, are not the class of men to select a marshal from. Appoint a hard worker who takes an interest in the fire department and who always responds to the call of duty. Give the man with a "big mouth" the go bye in this matter.

One baby, I smoke; two babies, 10 smokes; 5 babies, 100 smokes. This is the extent of the editor's household, the fifth boy arriving last Tuesday morning. According to an old adage, relative to a family of boys, the fifth is sure to become President, we shall immediately commence to read up in foreign languages and international law so that we can pass the civil service examination necessary to occupy the position of minister to Russia under the appointment of that fifth boy as President. All the other fellows about town have no such bright prospects in store and they are green with envy. We are proud.—Circleville Review. Oh, Lord! five boys, and them little cusses will all be Republicans. Its about time the Review man would "take in sail," he can never raise a family on the income of a country paper.

Tuesday's dispatches from Renovo, state that a steady rain for the past three days caused two gorges in the Susquehanna, one ten miles in length, between Hyer and Ferry, along the line of the Philadelphia & Erie Railroad, and another two miles above this place. This morning the jam above here gave away and crashed into the one below, causing it to move out. The ice was so heavy and so thickly packed that it moved but a short distance at a time, and the backwater overflowed the railroad and carried away all the houses along the river, and leaving the railroad track covered for three miles with heavy cakes of ice. The road will probably be cleared to-morrow.

At Lock Haven there is a twelve foot flood. The river is bank full. Fallon House basement flooded, and nearly surrounded. People on Water street moving out in some places. Main street is flooded below the canal bridge; so is Church and Bald Eagle streets, the water is just pouring into cellars. The ice and logs forced up the canal have lodged against the draw-bridge at Brown & Ely's planing mill, and the whole lower end of town is flooded. There is about four feet of water in Jacob Bower's house, on Railroad street between Henderson and canal. In fact all the houses in that neighborhood are flooded. At a quarter past three the water began to fall, and all further danger is believed to be past.

A GALLANT STEED.—THE CENTRE DEMOCRAT at Bellefonte keeps a "Roanoke," fully equal to Don Quixote's and in this week's issue says: The News man made some insulting remarks about the blooded horse of the senior editor of the DEMOCRAT and every time the gallant brute sees Bailey he gets sick. Who gets sick—Bailey or the horse? That's what we want to know.—Lock Haven Democrat. Neither of them, Joe, the pronoun "he" applies to the "senior editor of the DEMOCRAT"—don't you see?—News. Yes the "senior" gets awful sick when he sees Bailey. Its the "Senior" that sees Bailey the horse is blind. Bailey is right.

I will not quote prices on beef hides in order to deceive you, but will at all times pay you the highest price in cash. I. GUGGENHEIMER.

The following communication to the Council of the Borough is of considerable importance and the recommendations will doubtless receive proper attention. A committee consisting of E. Brown, Jr., William Hillibish, H. H. Harshberger and K. Hepburn has been appointed and have matters in charge.

BELLEFONTE, February 4, 1887. To the Honorable, the Burgess and Town Council of the Borough of Bellefonte:

WHEREAS, the frequent fires of late in your borough and consequent serious losses to insurance companies, as well as owners of property in said borough, having been brought to the attention of the Undeawriters' Association of the Middle Department, a committee was appointed to visit Bellefonte for the purpose of conferring with your honorable body, with a view of suggesting such remedies as might be easily and readily applied, to prevent such serious losses.

In pursuance of such appointment, this committee have visited your town and have made a critical examination of its water supply and fire department.

Of the former, we can only speak in terms of the highest praise and we can suggest nothing which would increase its efficiency. Its quantity and distribution seem perfect. Regarding the latter, we beg to offer the following suggestions:

FIRST—PREVENTION OF FIRES.

We recommend the appointment of a Fire Marshal, whose duty it should be to inspect any or all buildings in the borough at stated times (say twice during the year,) and at other times as the occasion may require, as to condition of stove pipes, heaters, flues ash receptacles, rubbish in cellars and attics or other unsafe features; who shall also have authority to require the correction or removal of any such unsafe features, found in any building, within say 48 hours from the date of such inspection, under a penalty to the owner or occupant.

Also the enactment of an ordinance to prevent the construction of any wooden cornice on any brick building within the fire limits; and so far as possible, to require the construction of fire walls between adjoining brick buildings occupied for business purposes) which shall raise at least 12 inches above the roof.

SECOND—SERVICE OF FIRE DEPARTMENT.

For the more prompt and efficient service of the department we would recommend the following additions to its present equipment:

- 1. The erection of a hose tower, 50 feet in height upon the house of the Logan Hose Company, and the purchase of 300 feet additional rubber hose for the use of the company.
2. The speedy erection of the contemplated new building for the Undine Hose Company, with a fifty foot tower.
3. The reorganization of this latter company and the purchase of 600 feet rubber hose for its use.
4. The organization of a hook and ladder company whose equipment shall consist of a truck with at least 3 ladders (one of which shall be at least 50 feet in length) with hooks, axes and fire buckets.

The entire department to be under the control of a chief, who may also act as Fire Marshal, at a proper compensation per annum.

Deeming the foregoing suggestions to be such as may be easily and speedily carried into effect, and fully warranted by the existing condition of affairs, we hope they may be accepted in the spirit in which they are offered.

We have the honor to remain, Yours very respectfully, J. H. MITCHELL, C. E. BEER.

COURT PROCEEDINGS SECOND WEEK.—The case of Tyrone Mining and Manufacturing Company vs. James S. Cross came up for trial on Tuesday, February 1. A jury was sworn who after trial gave a verdict for plaintiff for the land described in the writ.

Judgment in the sum of $41 was given to Adam Baum Jr., in his suit against Moyer Lyon. A trial was had of the suit of Frederick Bartley and wife against Thomas J. Dunkle, sheriff, in which the plaintiff was awarded a verdict of 301-17. A jury was called and sworn in the case of Martin Fiack vs. Henry W. Hoover. Judgment in sum of $102-16 was confessed in favor of the plaintiff.

On Wednesday, the 2nd a verdict was rendered in the case of Jonathan Dressler vs. The Lewistown and Tyrone Railroad Company. The plaintiff was awarded the land described in the writ, which will be released on the payment of $400, with interest, by the railroad company within four months. Alfred Cromlein vs. Robert Mitchell and a host of other persons was an action of ejectment. The jury gave to Cromlein the land described in the writ.

On Thursday a jury gave Pennock Son's & Co. a verdict of 217.98 in their suit against Howard township. Philip S. Dale vs. Peter Breon. Verdict for defendant.

On Friday a jury gave Gephart & Musser a verdict against Samuel Greminger in the sum of $328.18.

In Judge Hugh H. Cummin's court the case of Joseph Benty vs. Wm. J. Jackson was reached. The plaintiff not appearing to prosecute his suit, a non suit was entered in his case.

Other cases were either settled or continued until the April term. TRIBUTE OF No. 263, G. A. R. OF UNIONVILLE PA. TO THE MEMORY OF LOGAN.—A special meeting of Peters Brother's Post was called to take appropriate action on the death of General Logan, and a committee was appointed to prepare a suitable expression of our sorrow at his loss. At the next regular meeting the following testimonial was unanimously adopted and ordered to be placed upon the minutes. Comrades, draw a little nearer, for we feel more lonely now than ever before. Logan; our most dearly beloved, and representative comrade, and friend, has gone to rest. Oh! how sad we feel, how keenly we regret his departure. No more will his presence cheer, and his manly words encourage us in Post or encampment. No more with tongue and pen will he contend for the right, or guard with jealous care, the nation for which he fought and bled. Can it be, that Logan—the soldier's friend, who instituted the tender and sacred service of our Memorial Day, who last 30th of May; stood by the tomb of Grant at Riverside and placed above his sleeping dust the floral tribute of a soldiers love—he, whose grand physique and heartfelt mien, gave promise only yesterday of many years of life, now rests his body in the silent chamber of earth, where also o'er his dust grateful affection soon will strew the brightest flowers of Spring. Alas! alas! We are sad to know that General John A Logan, can never again be numbered with the Grand Army here. He musters now with the Grand Army above. We will find him, if we "watch and wait," on the eternal camping ground, whither so many of our comrades are hastening. His memory will be enshrined in our hearts forever. Even now we can see him from Belmont to Raymond, Champion's Hill and Vicksburg, and to the blood stained fields of Resaca, Kennesaw and Atlanta, as with towering and majestic form on fiery steed, he plunged into the very jaws of death. With hat in hand he dashes hither and thither through the smoke of battle and waving onward his brave battalions, he hurls them with crushing and irresistible power against the enemy's stubborn lines. Honest, brave, and gallant Logan! We can never forget thee. The glittering splendor of thy achievements in war can only be surpassed by the more dazzling grandure of thy pure and unselfish life and a transcendent genius in the councils of the nation. Farewell—farewell, at the bugle call we will meet thee. WALDO C. VANVALIN, A. J. ST. CLAIR, GEO. LUCAS, L. B. BATHURST, Committe.
