

A New State Capital.

HARRISBURG, Feb. 23.—In the House to-day Mr. Barnes, of Harrisburg, introduced a bill for the erection of new state buildings. The bill specifies that the commissioners of public buildings and grounds are hereby authorized to advertise in not more than twenty-five newspapers of this and other states for plans and specifications for a suitable building at Harrisburg within the present public grounds, to be occupied as a State Capital and so constructed as to afford accommodation for all the state departments, legislative, executive and judicial, said building to cover not less than 160,000 square feet of surface; also, for plans and specifications for a state library building to cover not less than 80,000 square feet of surface; and as soon as said commissioners have adopted suitable plans and specifications they shall fix a site for said building and immediately commence its erection.

TO DEFRAY THE EXPENSE.

To defray any expense incurred before the meeting of the next legislature the sum of $300,000 is hereby appropriated out of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated, to be drawn upon the warrant of the said commissioners, approved by the auditor general. Said commissioners shall also advertise for proposals for the construction of said library building and allot the same to the best bidder, who shall give security approved by the court of Dauphin county, in the sum of $50,000, for the proposed construction of the work, which shall be of indestructible material.

Also plans and specifications for an executive mansion within the city of Harrisburg, to cover a surface of not less than 20,000 square feet.

PAY TO ARCHITECTS.

And there shall be paid for approved plans for all the buildings the work of one architect, $3,000.

For an approved plan for capitol only, $1,500.

For an approved plan for a library only, $1,000.

For an approved plan for an executive mansion, $1,000.

If the commissioners decide that any of the plans submitted, but not accepted shall become public property, they may purchase the same at a cost not exceeding $500 each.

Mrs Druse Hanged.

HERKIMER, N. Y., Feb. 28.—Mrs. Roxalana Druse, was hanged at 11.48 this a.m. At 11.40 the executioner stepped forward and pinioned her arms and legs together. The nose was adjusted and the black cap drawn down over her face. At this point the prisoner showed signs of collapse and began to scream and shriek at the top of her voice in a hysterical manner, but the weight dropped at 11.48 and choked her cries. There was one convulsion or muscular contraction of the body and the body hung quiet. At 12.03 she was pronounced dead but her body was left hanging until 12.14. Death was caused by strangulation.

DON'T EXPERIMENT.—You cannot afford to waste time in experimenting when your lungs are in danger. Consumption always seems at first only a cold. Do not permit any dealer to impose upon you with some cheap imitation of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, but be sure you get the genuine. Because he can make more profit he may tell you he has something just as good, or just the same. Don't be deceived, but insist upon getting Dr. King's New Discovery which is guaranteed to give relief to all Throat, Lung and Chest affections. Trial bottles free at J. Zeller & Son's Drug Store.

Moses Thompson & Sons, it is said, contemplate the erection of a large steam excavator for the purpose of raising ore. The new banks are to be called "Alto" and are very rich in ore. This new establishment will give employment to many men, and will produce vast quantities of ore each day. The wheels of progress are beginning to move.

The marriage of Mr. Will Houser, a clerk in Thompson's store, Lemont, and Miss Maggie Lenker, of Aaronsburg, occurred at the latter place on last Thursday morning at 5 o'clock.

ADDITIONAL LOCAL. Personal.

Esquire Orndorf of Pine Grove Mills circulated among his friends in town last Tuesday.

Mr. J. K. Leathers of Mt. Eagle, was one of our callers on Monday. Mr. L. is a prosperous farmer and a solid Democrat.

Wm. C. Burch the Elk county murderer who made his escape from the county jail last week, was re-captured a few days later.

S. Miller McCormick Esq., one of Lock Haven's legal lights, was in Bellefonte Friday. Mr. M. is an able lawyer and withal a pleasant gentleman.

Harry Williams, the rosy cheeked editor of the Phillipsburg Ledger, was a caller at our sanctum. Harry reports business in his locality as very good but considerable unrest among the miners.

Daniel Brumgard of Rebersburg was in town last week and dropped in to see us in our new quarters. Mr. Brumgard is always a welcome visitor and is a very pleasant and entertaining gentleman.

Michael Schenck, one of Howard township's successful farmers and solid Democrats was a visitor at our Camcun on Thursday. Mr. Schenck is one of those men who always keeps ahead of the printers and in their good graces by paying his subscription in advance.

On Saturday evening, David Ertel, residing about 2 miles west of Coburn, died after having lingered for over four years with sickness during which time he was deprived of the use of his limbs by paralysis. He reached the age of 57 years and 2 months. Deceased had a wide circle of friends who will always remember him as a mild and peace-loving neighbor and fellow citizen, of industrious and sober habits. For years he managed his mill, known at present as Ertel's mill. His wife preceded him to the grave a few years ago. The funeral took place on Tuesday forenoon, and was very largely attended. His remains were buried at Heckman's chapel, where service was held by Rev. M. L. Deltzer, who preached on the text, selected by the subject of this notice himself, found in the 38th chapter of Isaiah, first verse.—Millheim Journal.

Also plans and specifications for an executive mansion within the city of Harrisburg, to cover a surface of not less than 20,000 square feet.

Fresh bread and rolls in time for breakfast every morning at Jacob's.

H. Y. Stitzer has secured temporary quarters in Brown's building on Bishop street and will reopen his book store in a few days. I. Frank has been unable to secure a room and will probably wait until the new Reynolds building is erected.

A house owned by Wm. Whitmer, and occupied by John Felding, on Buffalo Run, caught fire from a defective flue on Monday and burned rapidly. The house was completely drenched with water before the flames could be extinguished.

ANNOUNCEMENT OF BEN. PERLEY POORE, a book Sixty years of a busy journalist life at Washington are epitomized in Major Benjamin Perley Poore's two superb volumes. One of the admirers of the Major recently said that "at a judiciously period of life the major stopped growing old, and since then, like some of the choicest Maderia of which he writes with so much feeling, he has only been accumulating bouquet and flavor." Maj. Poore has been one of the best known men in Washington society for a half century. His is the sunny temperament delighting in bright, social intercourse. Yet his connection with daily journalism and his position in the U. S. Senate placed him always in the thick political affairs and social gossip. He was ever in Washington "Swim" breasting the waves with jovial vigor, and never failing to hear or see what was said or done.

The Major could never be very solemn, and in his ripe sketches of Washington life every phase reminds him of a half dozen amusing anecdotes. He has a rare gift in telling a story, and his anecdotes are inexhaustible.

His book will not only add lustre to his fame as a writer, but is of so unique a character and so intensely interesting in matter that it will prove a valuable contribution to the literature of the country. It has mirth for the mirthful, wit for the witty information for all, and we doubt if it has been equal since the war.

TUSSEYVILLE CONVENTION.

The musical convention at Tusseyville is now a thing of the past and an event long to be remembered by the people of Tusseyville and vicinity, and saying the least it was a success, musically, socially and financially. Almost every home was thrown open to receive all strangers who came to take part in the convention. All the strangers present speak very highly of hospitality shown to them by citizens of this vicinity and signified their intention to come again should another such occasion occur. It was a social success because everybody tried to make the strangers acquainted with their friends, and they with their friends. Financially it was a success, as nearly one hundred dollars was taken in and had the weather been favorable a great deal more would have been taken. Musically it was a success as the class rendered some of the finest music to be found in the "Crescent" and the "Sentinel", two of C. E. Leslie's latest works. Some of the finest singers in the county and other places were present. The class consisted of eighty-five singers.

Prof. Lowell M. Meyer, was present during the whole week and sang some of the leading songs of the day. Prof. Meyer came up to his former record, especially so on Saturday evening when he received round and round of applause.

Prof. Bierly has not only proven himself to be a first-class instructor, but is also an excellent singer, which was shown in the way he rendered the love song on Saturday evening.

Miss Annie J. Moyer the organist is not only a good organist but a very accomplished soprano singer, which was shown in the manner in which she rendered the song entitled "Nothing else to do."

German song entitled the "rail-road song" was well received by the German people of this vicinity.

The song entitled Mr. and Mrs. Smith was performed by Miss Bradley and Prof. Meyer and was well received.

Miss Reber and Mr. Feidler of Madisonburg sang a song entitled "Dogs and Cats."

J. E. Reber is a splendid tenor singer.

Over at Aaronsburg the people never do things by halves. This rule holds good in everything undertaken, and to prove the truth of our assertion we quote the following from the Reporter: "One night last week the confectionery of Abs Confer, on 2nd st., Aaronsburg, was broken into by forcing the door, and the entire stock of sweet things, along with tobacco and cigars and with $6 in money were carried off. When Abs got to his store next morning he found nothing left but the room, the counter and the stove—the latter, no doubt, was red hot else it would have been carried off too. Thieves down there make a clean sweep. Gell, Abs, des beet der dviel?"

The highest cash price paid for hides at the reliable meat market of A. Becker & Son, Allegheny street, Bellefonte. 48-8i.

A most daring robbery took place at a point about two miles distant from Woodlawn, Clearfield county, on Friday of last week. Three robbers entered the house of George Turner, Sr., an old gentleman aged about 85 years and after binding Mr. Turner and wife and also a son, ransacked the house and secured between seven hundred and one thousand dollars, in gold and greenbacks. The robbers raised a hearthstone in the kitchen and dug up the ground, but finding no further treasure they departed. No clue as to their identity has been discovered.

I will not quote prices on beef hides in order to deceive you, but will at all times pay you the highest price in cash. I. GEGENHEIMER.
