

—William Rote, the railroad engineer who was killed at Tyrone last Thursday, was a native of this county, and a highly respected gen man. His mother and other relatives reside at Coleville and the remains were brought here for burial on Friday last. The funeral occurred on Sunday afternoon and was largely attended. At a little after three o'clock a special train consisting of seven cars arrived here from Tyrone. The coaches were well filled with sorrowing friends of the deceased who accompanied the funeral cortege to the cemetery. The particulars of the accident, which we glean from the Altoona Tribune, are as follows:

“William Rote, an engineer on the Tyrone and Clearfield railroad, met his death on Thursday morning in a very peculiar manner. On his first return trip and when taking on coal in the Tyrone yard from the coal centre, some of the coal covers the tool box and in attempting to remove the same, he made a misstep and fell from the tender, striking his head on the rail of the opposite track, injuring his brain, from the effects of which he died in about an hour's time after the accident. Dr. J. M. Gemmill was immediately called, but could do nothing. He was born at Buffalo Run, Centre county, and was about 45 years of age. He was married to Amanda Corman about 16 years ago and leaves a wife and six children, one child having died. For a number of years he had been living on Grace street, and had all his goods arranged for moving to a house selected by him on Main street, which was to have taken place on Friday. He was a member of the Pennsylvania railroad relief fund. He was a sober and industrious man, quiet and unobtrusive in his disposition. In his death the railroad company lost a faithful employe and the town a good citizen.”

WALKER.
Irwin Neff and Franklin Guiser of this place, went to the distant west on Tuesday of this week. The writer and community in general wish them a safe and pleasant journey to their future home.

Fred Youcum has recently purchased a lot from Miss Anna Carner and expects to erect a dwelling house there on this coming season.

Mrs. Minerva Detrick, wife of John Detrick, who has been seriously ill with throat and heart disease, we are glad to say, is convalescing.

The public schools of Walker district have closed and have all met with abundant success.

Mrs. Rebecca Rockey and family who for many years lived in the country and enjoyed rural life, have moved to the village of Hublersburg to partake of the modes and customs of town life.

James Gramley, one of Walker township's prominent citizens moved to Brush Valley on Tuesday of last week. The day was pleasant and the occasion also, but are sad to say we have lost a sound, influential and hard working Democrat. On his arrival at his new home he was welcomed by a number of guests. As a neighbor his superiors are few, he advocated the cause of education very strongly, served three times as school director and ever strove to secure teachers who worked for the interest and success of the schools.

We wish him and family joy and happiness in their future home and may their labors be crowned with success.

TESSEVILLE.
Mr. John Biner and wife returned home from Orléans, Lycoming county, Pa., where they had been spending the winter with their son-in-law, Rev. T. J. Frederick.

Farmers are preparing to put out their spring grain. Wheat is looking very poor some farmers are talking of plowing their wheat fields and putting them in oats or barley.

C. W. Slack, one of Tusseyville's young and efficient school teachers, departed for Freeport, Ill., where he expects to make his future home. Mr. Slack will be greatly missed by his many friends in this place.

Mr. Henry Stoner met with a very painful accident one day last week. While leading a horse the animal made a sudden jump and lighted on Mr. Stoner's foot, severing two of his toes.

There will be two Sunday Schools re-organized on Easter Sunday.

John Stoner, of Millheim, visited his son Henry over Sunday.

Edward Royer and Miss Nanny McCormick, of Pottery Mills were with us over Sunday.

—Muck Keo, a Chinese laundryman at Lewistown, the other day mixed lye soap with his soup, and in a short time Muck was a very sick man. A Mexican doctor relieved him of his sufferings and now Muck says damee lye.

—According to Lock Haven exchanges, the prospects for starting the new National Bank there, are quite favorable. The Express wants the institution located in a new building to be erected next its office. Well, a bank and a print shop so close together would appear rather odd—from one extreme to another.

—Charles Lannon, of Mill Hill, a boy 14 years old, was badly injured by the explosion of two dynamite cartridges in his hands, about five o'clock last evening. Wm. Lannon, the unfortunate boy's father, had just moved with his family into Mill Hill, and among rubbish on shelves in the house the children found the cartridges and not knowing they were dynamite cartridges unfortunately took them to play with. The boy had one in each hand and was pouncing them on the window sill when both exploded with terrific force, tearing the palm of the right hand in a frightful manner, while the fingers of the right hand were torn almost into shreds. Dr. McEntire was speedily summoned and gave the unfortunate boy the necessary attention. The Doctor found it necessary to amputate the thumb and second finger of the left hand. The wound on the right hand the Doctor thought would not necessitate amputation, but considerable sloughing would take place.—Lock Haven Democrat.

Among the popular authors who will contribute to GODEY, are: J. V. Phelan, Miss Emily Reed, John Churchill, William Miller Butler, Emily Lennox and others.
Engravings appear in every number, of subjects by well-known artists, and produced by the newest processes. In its Colored Illustrations GODEY's leads in colors and styles. Both modistes and home dressmakers accord them the foremost position.
Paper Patterns are one of the important features of this magazine; each subscriber being allowed to select their own pattern every month, an item alone more than subscription price.
Practical Hints upon Dressmaking show how garments can be renovated and made over by the patterns given.
Practical hints for the household show young housekeepers how to manage the culinary department with economy and skill.
Fashion Notes, at Home and Abroad delight every lady's heart.
The Colored and Black Work Designs give all the newest ideas for fancy work.
The Cooking Recipes are under the control of an experienced housekeeper.
The Architectural Department is of practical utility, careful estimates being given with each plan.
