SYMPATHY FOR IRELAND.

We sympathize most earnestly with the people of Ireland in their struggle for local self-government, and we unite with the friends of liberal progress in all parts of the world in denouncing the coercion measures now pending in the British parliament, as a monstrous crime against a brave, generous and long suffering people, an obstruction to human freedom, and abhorent to the spirit of liberty on our land. We view with alarm the growing tendencies among certain classes of citizens to seek the aid and bounty of the general government, and as an incident of this tendency to enlarge the power granted, and to multiply powers never contemplated by the constitution, and we reassert the time honored Democratic doctrine, that all powers not delegated to the United States are reserved to the states respectively or to the people-We denounce the present war tariff, laid to confuse, as well as to harass the people, as a masterpiece of injustice, nequality and false pretense.

A SHOT AT PROTECTION.

It has been maintained by the selfish and false theory of protection, which robs the many to enrich a few. It has piled up in our treasury a surplus which menaces the prosperity of all classes and every industry. We demand the immediate reduction of this war tariff not merely as an act of redress to the people promised by all parties, but as the only safe and just method of reducing the surplus; and in making such reduction we demand further that the taxes shall first be abolished, or lowered upon the necessities of life, and finally we reassert the constitutional and Democratic doctrine that taxes should be levied exclusivaly for public purposes, and limited to the requirements of the government, economically administered.

CHICAGO, May 6 .- Mr. Alexander Sullivan was to-day asked what truth there might be in the reported rumor of the serious condition of Mr. Parnell's health and what he thought of the intimation that Sir John Pope Hennessy was to be Mr. Parnell's successor as leader of the Irish nationalist party in Parliament. Mr.Sullivan said that he had good reasons for believing that the report concerning Mr. Parnell's health exaggerated. Several sensational statements were made from time to time about other conspicuous public men. So long as Mr. Parnell lived, the chance of successor for him as a leader of the ANNISTON, Ala., May 6 .- News has reached here of his home, in St. Clair county, of Joseph Compton, present member of the state legislature, under circumstances which read like a chapter from the life of Kissane, Coming rom Kentucky, so he stated he took up his abode in the little town of Eden, ter. His life was exemplary, and in a the Grant Army of the Republic, in Genyear or so he was elected town marshal, Last year, after a seasonable probation Compton was licensed as a Methodist preacher, and his sermons and exhortations were of the most fervid and orthodox character. He joined the independent party in the last state campaign, ate words of General Orders No. 11, 1868, and was selected by them as their stand. ard-bearer for legislative honors. After a hot fight he was elected over the regular democratic nominee by 500 majority, and last November took his seat in the lower house of the legislature. Now comes the strange history of this man's life. Thirteen years ago he was engaged in making "moonshine" whisky in one of the mountain counties of North Carolina, While thus engaged he became involved in a difference of opinion with a party of revenue of- in almost every city, village and hamlet ficers and in the melee that followed churchyard in the land. THE PLATFORM.

The platform was written and drawn up by John G. Carlisle and Henry Watterson. That part which is of national interest, and which was adopted, is as follows : We declare our confidence in the integrity and conscientious devotion to duty of President Grover Cleveland, and congratulate the country and party upon the accession of the Democratic administration, national, economical and clean ; and we particularly applaud the President for the fidelity and coursge with which he has protect. ed the treasury from pillage by his ex. mean the enforcement of faithful performance by persons appointed to office of all public duties entrusted to them, and to this end, as well as to the main. tenance of the spirit of our representative form of government, we demand the strictest messare of personal and the substitution of the life tenure, a people. HARRISBURG, May 8 .- The bazaar and exposition of the City Greys. (Company D.) Eight regiment, General Gobin's brigade, was opened at the army last evening, under the most encouraging auspices. Governor portant work accomplished. Hon. Jno. Beaver was present and delivered a pleasing address, in which he likened himself to Pooh-Bah. Because the other speakers had failed to apper for various reasons, he said it devolved upon him to represent the different divisions of the National Guard intended to be represented by those unable to be present. In his remarks upon the necessity of such an organization as the National Guard the Governor let drop a state secret which cannot do any hurt now that all danger is over.

He referred to the thousands of disciplined men in Pensaylvanis, and said that so secently as six weeks ago the war department at Washington ercise of the veto power. Excited Frenchmen.

PARIS, May 6 .- This city has been very much excited by the events on the frontier. The Schnaebles ineident about which so much has been said, is only a small feature in the history of irritating troubles along the border Some of the most conservative of the English newspapers are beginning to think that the tension of feeling between France and Germany has become so great that actual hostilities may ensue during the summer. Although the French officials and their newspapers have been very moderate in tone, yet the people have been very much excited and are not showing the same self-control. It is now proposed in certain French circles to proceed against the German residents in Paris as an offset for the Schnaebeles affair. If the German courts should continue the trial against Schnaebeles and render judgment against him in continuacy, it is probable that the case against d'Eyrolias the clerk who was recently dismissed from the French war office for furnishing information to the German government, would be reopened and that he would be prosecuted for treason.

The irritability of the French people has been especially showd on the ocmasion of the production of Wagner's opers "Lohengrin," when the audiences were hooted and pelted by the lower classes; and the anti-German demon strations the past few days have caused a feeling of alarm in official circles The government had at first forbidden the production of this opera pending and only gave a reluctant consent after the latter had been released.
