The Altoona Tribune issued a double sheet last Saturday. The Penns Valley Banking Company last week bought the Grenoble store, the price paid being $6,725. The Centre Hall Council has at last decided to lay a board walk to the railroad station. Score one for Bro. Kurtz. The bill appropriating $15,000 for the completion of the Normal School at Lock Haven passed the House last week. The Muckmullon and the Town base ball clubs engaged in a friendly contest last Saturday, the former winning by a score of 19 to 12. The officials of the War Department at Washington, poke much fun at Governor Beaver since his expose of the secret (?) concerning the probable war arising from the fisheries question. The Governor knew not what he was talking about. The Tyrone Times says that D. R. White, of that place, has just closed a contract to do the brick work for one hundred and sixty new coke ovens at Snow Shoe—one hundred for the McGovern Brothers, contractors, and sixty for W. A. Latrop. Capt. Dan Stover, formerly of Centre county, but now of Galion, Ill., says a correspondent of the Reporter, has a snake farm, and breeds snakes by the hundreds. He finds a ready market for the reptiles in Philadelphia, where rattlesnake oil is used in the new cure for rheumatism. On last Saturday night the police were notified that a mysterious person was prowling about Hoy and Beaver's addition, scaring the ladies and otherwise annoying the residents of that vicinity. The officers have investigated the matter and identified the prowler, and inform us that if he repeats his visits there, he will surely be arrested. The friendly warning is given in order that the parties may avoid unpleasant notoriety. The Reporter says the report, last week, that Mr. Wolf, merchant at Woodward, had failed, is not correct, and he remains in good standing financially, with scarce any indebtedness as we are told. We are glad to contradict the report, which must have been set afloat by some one who, amid the failures last week, got names mixed, which is the only way we can account for the erroneous story of his having failed. He stands as sound as a dollar. "PUZZLE FOR ELECTRICIANS."—A curious phenomenon resulted in Harrison county, Indiana, a few days ago, from a bolt of lightning striking a tree standing in the yard of Jacob Alcott, near Nevin. Near the stricken tree stood a large pond, which had been used for watering stock. Shortly after the lightning struck the pond began sinking, and has in a few days since that time disappeared entirely. The above is going the rounds of our exchanges. Apparently there is nothing puzzling or curious about it. The bolt probably entered the ground and the shock had the effect of rending the bed of the pond, allowing the water to sink into the earth. On last Tuesday the second story of the public school building was the scene of a lively and joyous entertainment, the occasion being the closing of six of the schools. Upwards of two hundred children were there, and in their bright dresses presented a dazzling picture. The entertainment consisted of recitations of Psalms, chanting of the Lord's Prayer, songs, declamations, etc. Considering the age of some of the participants, the affair was really a credit to both scholars and teachers, and one long to be remembered. D. F. Fortney, Esq., and Revs. Steek and Woodcock addressed the pupils, and the teachers bade farewell to their tender charges, when all separated. The relief from hard study seemed to be a great pleasure, for on their way home cheer after cheer was given by the boys. Vacation is generally hailed with delight. The two other schools closed during the afternoon. Try Jacobs' milk bread. Get meal wafers at Jacob's. TUSSEYVILLE. Mr. William Fry, one of the wood choppers at Shafers camp, cut an ugly gash in his foot on last Friday. Miss Anna Colyer was up from Spring Mills where she is living at present. Loyd Kerlin, one of our bright young men, is attending Prof. Hosterman's school at Spring Mills. Dr. Lee and lady of Madisonburg were up visiting the gentlemen's parents at that place over Sunday. Among the visitors at Tusseyville over Sunday were the Misses Mary A. Love and sister Emma of Lemont. A young cigar man of this place says he has it quite handy, as his best girl comes to see him. That seems hardly fair, as it aint leap year yet. The choir at the Zion church render some very fine music under the leadership of Prof. Alfred Bierly. One of our candidates has forgotten his action last winter when he asks the support of those he so generously wronged. Call and examine Zellers' fishing rods, prices range from ten cents to ten dollars.

Another mysterious shooting affair has occurred in Clearfield county, this time one mile below Phillipsburg, near Troy's, along the Beech Creek railroad, in which Jacob Boyer, a young unmarried man, about 22 years of age, met his death. A few minutes before 8 o'clock last evening he left his boarding place to meet Miss Maggie McCann, with whom he had previously made an engagement. Between the hours of 8 and 9 at the above named place, Jacob Boyer was either shot by Miss McCann or shot himself, it is not now positively known which. The ball entered the back of the head and came out near the eye, indicating murder, for it would be a difficult matter for a man to put a ball into his head in that peculiar way. A jury has been empaneled but has not yet rendered a verdict. Miss McCann stoutly maintains her innocence, declaring that Boyer shot himself, was arrested and lodged in the county jail at Clearfield to-day to await developments. It is very difficult to get at the facts in the case. Rumors are plenty, as they always are in cases of this sort, Miss McCann will not be tried before September. Boyer was a native of New York, and his home is said to have been in Auburn previous to his coming here. At the time of his death he was a conductor on the Beech Creek railroad. Clearfield county has three murder trials on hand for the fall term the Mahaffy case, Hamlin and now Miss McCann.—Tribune. New spring wagons and buggies at S. A. McQuistion & Co's.
