LANCASTER, Pa., June 21 .- Alderman Spurrier will have a novel assault and battery case to dispose of on Thursday, July 7. The prospector is a barber named Schaeffer, and the defendants are H. Wells Bauser, Herman Dasher, John Deckard and Barry Wolhauer, of Hummelstown, Dauphin county. It appears that the defendants visited this city a few days roaring heard since October 22 of last ago for the purpose of instituting a year. The shock caused a sensible vicouncil for the Junior Order of American Mechanics, and the profe cutor was one of the members initiated. He was roughly handled and struck several times with a pade e. In adition to being struck it is alle ed that he was so badly scared that the services of a physician were required. The accused were arrested on Sairr day and gave bail for a hearing at the time mentioned above. The case will attract a great deal of attention.

Eight Were Drowned.

CLEAVELAND, O., June 21 .- The steambarg P. H. Walters, owned by John Homegardner, of Sandusky. was sunk in a storm off Black river. about 7 o'clock last evening and eight lives were lost. The vessel left Mar. blehead vesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock, and when off Black river the captain's wife, who was on board begged the master to put in at Lorain, as the threatning weather alarmed her.

The vessel was headed toward the harbor, but had scarcely turned about when she was strok with a terrible and round, the hold filled with water Works Pittsburgh, Pa. Gould's Generosity.

WASHINGTON, June 21 .- The Mount Vernon estate, where the remains of Washington lie entombed, has been enlarged by the addition of 331 acres on the northern side, near the old Washington mansion. It was secured through the generosity of Jay Gould. While on his way up the Potomac from Fortress Monroe recently in his yacht, Mr. Gould stopped at Mount Vernon and was shown around the grounds: He expressed great interest in the place and the admirable manner in which it is cared for.

In the course of conversation the Superintendent remarked that the tract in question was much needed to protect the 'property from encroachment. Mr. Gould immediately author ized the purchase of the land at his expense, and it has been bought and turned over to the Mount Vernon Re-
