-The teachers and students of the Bellefonte Academy will picnic at Snow Shoe Intersection to-day (Thursday) provided the day is clear.

-An excursion train will be run from this and other sections of the county on the fourth of July to Centre Hall, where a grand celebration will take place.

-July 4th, 5th and 6th, 1888, is the date, and Gettysburg the place selected for the next annual encampment of the Sons of Veterans of Pennsylvania.

-Quite a number of gentlemen from State College were in town Saturday, the object of their visit being to inspect the new iron furnaces in course of erection.

-A young girl named Huntley shot and seriously wounded a man named Banna at Lock Haven on Monday. The affray grew out of a family quarrel. Both parties are under arrest.

-The report about snails infesting the lower end of the county is contradicted by the Millheim Journal. Some of the county papers, and others, were badly taken in by this sell.

-A normal school is proposed for Millheim, and earnest efforts are being made to begin the first term July 8th. We trust the gentlemen having the project in charge will meet with success.

-Phillipsburg is having a building boom, but then the average Phillipsburger blows so much about that little village, that an outsider can't tell whether he is getting the truth or a fish story.

-Our merchants should remember that but one more issue of the DEMOCRAT will appear before the Fourth of July. Those having specialties to bring before the public should hand in their advertisements early.

-W. R. Camp, the furniture dealer has an elegant stock on hand, and sells at prices that are astonishing. His establishment is on Bishop street, where he will be pleased to show his goods, even if you do not wish to purchase.

-Ralph Beaumont, a distinguished speaker traveling in the interest of the Knights of Labor will deliver an address in the Diamond on Friday night. His subject will be "The Declaration of the Principles of the Order of Knights of Labor."

-The game of baseball announced to be played between the T. H. Cigarette makers and Printers last Saturday, did not come off, owing to the former being unable to secure players enough. Probably some time in the future a game can be arranged.

-At the meeting of the Board of Parolees on Tuesday, the case of Detrick Lamade was held over on account of not being sentenced. Another meeting was held on Wednesday, when the case of Rinsard was in all probability disposed of.

-Jacob Eisenhuth of Millheim is a candidate for Treasurer, and will interview the Democrats of the county on that office. The 'squire is a fine old gentleman and will be able to perform the duties of the office and has been an earnest Democrat all his life.

-J. F. Krebs, of Ferguson township, is a candidate for Treasurer and his announcement will be found in this week's DEMOCRAT.

-Jos. L. Neff, of Boggs township, announces himself this week as a candidate for Sheriff. Mr. Neff is well known in the county and is in dead earnest.

-We haven't noticed that any of our exchanges have said anything on the weather. By way of variety permit us to say that the man at the crank understands his business.

-Rev. Charles Stowe, son of Harriet Beecher Stowe, filled the pulpit of the late Henry Ward Beecher last Sunday and will probably be appointed permanent pastor of Plymouth church.

-Persons having books, magazines, papers, etc., to be bound can't do any better than to go to the Bellefonte Book Bindery. Blank books made to order. Workmanship guaranteed.

-Those persons holding trade dollars should remember that after July 1st the government will not redeem them at their face value. After that date they will be worth only their weight as bullion.

-The game of base ball at Lock Haven last Saturday between the State College and Lock Haven nines resulted in a victory for the former. Score 4 to 1. Is there any other nine desirous of playing the College boys?

-At A. Beezer & Son's meat market you can get the best quality of meat to be found in town. A patent cooler keeps their meat in a good and fresh condition all the time, and you cannot go amiss by purchasing of them. Their market is on Allegheny street.

-Our friend Mr. Cal. Johnstonbaugh has been distinguishing himself at College. Cal. graduated from a Medical College at Cincinnati recently, and in a class of sixty-two, carried off first honors. His many friends in the county will be pleased to learn of his success.

-A correspondent of the Millheim Journal says, on last Saturday Rev. Shambach while going to his Mountain charge, thought to relieve his horse, and accordingly got off and walked behind the buggy, when the ungrateful brute ran off, leaving the Rev. in the lurch. The buggy was somewhat damaged.

-The Commencement exercises of Pierce College of Buieses will be held at Philadelphia on July 1st. This is an excellent institution and is meeting deserved success. The invitations, one of which we received, are beautifully engraved and reflect credit upon the artist.

-Rev. Charles Biddle was yesterday anited in marriage to one of Coalport's fair young ladies, but whose name we have not learned. Rev. Biddle is a son of Mr. John Biddle, a resident of Patton township, this county, and at whose residence a reception is being held to-day, a complete report of which we will give next week.

-An eloquent sermon was preached by Rev. Frank Wetzel, of Dakota Ills., in the Reformed church last Sunday, which was listened to by a large congregation. Rev. Wetzel is accompanied here by his family, on a visit to his parents Mr. and Mrs. John Wetzel. He is a successful preacher and has charge of a large congregation at his western home.

-A heavy rain passed over this place Sunday afternoon about 4 o'clock. It was accompanied by high winds, and hail stones rattled a tattoo against the window panes. Portions of Bishop street were flooded, owing to the inlet to the sewers becoming clogged up. The gratings placed at these inlets are poor concerns at any rate, and every heavy rain clogs them up and floods the street.

-The announcement of Jacob Emerick of Penn township, as a candidate for County Commissioner, appears this week. Mr. E. was a member of Co. A. 148th Regiment, P. V. and was wounded in the battle of Chancellorsville. He has been a Justice of the Peace in Penn township, for the past ten years, is a sterling Democrat, and has good business qualifications. He will make a strong fight.

-At a special meeting of the Bellefonte School Board held last Friday evening, bids were received for placing lightning rods on the new school building. Several were received and considered, that by E. B. Green, superintendent of the Electric Light works, being accepted. Mr. Green will furnish a solid copper rod, and place it on the building according to the direction of the latest approved authority. That the material and work will be satisfactory we have no doubt, as Mr. Green is a thorough electrician.

-Miss Grassmire, who for the past fifteen years has been employed as a domestic at the residence of Gen. Beaver, on Monday last visited friends at Snow Shoe Intersection. About the time Snow Shoe train was due she attempted to cross the track, but tripped and fell. The train advanced rapidly, and the lady, paralyzed by fear, would have met with instant death but for the presence of mind of a tramp, who quickly ran to her rescue, being unable to bear her weight, rolled her off the track just as the engine shot past. Who says tramps are of no account?

-BROOKS-BELL-The home of Richard Brooks near Pleasant Gap, was the scene of a happy event on last Thursday evening. Cupids dart had pierced the heart of two young people, and the pleasant duty of applying the healing lotion devolved upon a minister of the Gospel. Promptly at 5 o'clock Miss Belle Rupert, of Zion, seated herself at the organ and struck up a beautiful wedding march. Rev. Sarvis occupied a position in the parlor, and in a few moments the party appeared before the divine. Miss Annie Brooks was the bride. She was attended by Miss Annie Bell of State College, and Miss Annie Wagner, of Bellefonte. The groom, Mr. T. C. Bell, was attended by Mr. James Williams and Mr. Samuel Brooks. The marriage ceremony was performed in Rev. Sarvis' usual happy style, and then congratulations were showered upon the newly made husband and wife. A sumptuous supper had been prepared which was greatly enjoyed by the forty or more guests present. Miss Brooks or rather Mrs. Bell, is an accomplished young lady, of charming and lovable disposition, and has hosts of friends. The groom, Mr. Bell, is well and favorably known throughout the county, and will make a good husband. The happy couple, accompanied by a number of friends, immediately after the supper was over, entered conveyances and proceeded to State College, where a house had previously been elegantly furnished and prepared to receive them. The DEMOCRAT extends its congratulations.

-Wallace and Co.'s show exhibited in Bellefonte on last Friday, and we can say a more gentlemanly set of showmen never visited this town. No boisterous conduct was witnessed, no harsh or profane language used, either outside or inside the tents, the attendants were polite, no swindlers connected with the concern, and everything passed off pleasantly. The parade was very fine, the wagons being clean and brightly painted, and the horses in exceedingly good condition. A large crowd gathered in the tent during the afternoon to witness the performance, which was first class. The flying sailor act, leaping tournament, and horizontal bar performance, are feats rarely witnessed in large shows, but which were successfully performed here. The jockey riding by Charles Ewers, was also a fine feature, as was the dancing barrel and table by Frank Pierrung. The Walton Brothers, acrobats, elicited great applause by their superb acting, and the aerial acts by Dunbar and Vernon, in which the latter made the "leap for life," were difficult and thrilling. The other features were equally good. The fact that a large crowd was in attendance in the evening, in the face of a hard rain, is evidence that everybody was pleased with the performance. Should this show ever return, the tents will not be large enough to hold the crowd that will greet it.

-Mr. Harry Valentine, the retiring Superintendent of the Valentine Ore Land Association is greatly admired by the employes under his charge. Last month the puddlers presented him with a gold-headed cane. On last Thursday the miners were paid off by Mr. Valentine, this being his last official act. About two hundred of their number gathered about the office and surprised the gentleman by presenting him with an elegant gold watch with the inscription, "Presented to H. C. Valentine from the ore miners of V. O. L. A., 1887." The presentation was made by Thos. Dunkle and James Simmonds. The recipient responded in fitting language and thanked the donors in appropriate language. C. A. Harte, secretary of the Association made the closing remarks.

-Hi Walton, one of the members of Wallaces' show, while attempting to turn a double somersault over an elephant, several horses and camels, and two men on top, missed his calculations and fell, hurting himself quite badly. Several physicians were summoned, and he was soon on his feet again. With the pluck characteristic of this class of performers, the young man in a few moments re-appeared in the ring and executed some difficult acts. The feat in which he failed during the afternoon was accomplished during the evening performance.

-A fair young friend of the Democrat editor lost a package on Saturday somewhere between Lindig's store and Grove street. The package contained embroidery, braid, tidy, etc., and the finder will confer a great favor and receive thanks by leaving it at the Democrat office.-Lock Haven Democrat.

Just see if that "fair young friend" of yours didn't let the said package consisting of braid, embroidery etc., in your sanctum, Joe. But how the duce do you manage to keep your wife from seeing the advertisement?

-The marriage of Mr. T. R. Reynolds, of this place, and Mrs. Bilmeyer, of Boalsburg, occurred at Boalsburg yesterday. The affair was largely attended. Mr. Reynolds the groom, is a wealthy and influential gentleman of our town. The bride is a sister of Mrs. Jark, and is a highly respected and talented lady. May joy attend them.

Personal.

Miss Mary Bradley is at Lock Haven, attending the commencement exercises of the State Normal School.

Michael Confer, of Howard was in town on Monday. He gave us a pleasant call during the afternoon.

Master Willie Bible, our young tyro, visited Penns Valley last week, and came back well pleased with his visit. Charles Tripple, who is winning laurels for himself at Tyrone, circulated among his friends here on Saturday and Sunday.

Prof. Atherton, of the State College, delivered one of the principal addresses at the commencement exercises of Amherst College last week.

Miss Nellie Bradley, who has been spending several months at Renovo, returned to Bellefonte last week, to the delight of her many friends here.

Charles Schroeder, Esq., who several years ago made Bellefonte his home, but who is now located at Reading where he holds a lucrative position in a large hardware store, is visiting his sister, Mrs. Col. D. S. Keller.

Rev. Charles Steck delivered his popular lecture, "The Hero Recognized and Unrecognized," before a large and appreciative audience at Spring Mills on Saturday. Wherever Rev. Steck appears he delights his hearers.

Miss Mabel Van Voorhis, of Newark, Ohio, is the guest of her school-mate Miss Annie Meese. Miss V. is a handsome and fascinating young lady, and has numerous accomplishments. We trust her visit here will be fraught with great pleasure.

Marcus Padolsky, a clerk in Lyon & Co.'s drygoods store, departed on Monday for New York city from whence he sailed for Europe yesterday. He will go to Russia, his home, and expects to return to this country about September. We wish him a safe and pleasant voyage.

Will Keller, son of D. S. Keller Esq., was last week examined for admission to Franklin and Marshall College. The young man made a good record, and in some branches making a grade of 100, and in others almost as high. In Latin and Greek he stood one of the best examinations ever passed at that institution. He will enter the college at the beginning of the next term.

Daniel Bible, Esq., of Philadelphia, grandfather of the senior editor of this paper, is visiting in Centre county and spent Saturday and Sunday with his grandson. Mr. Bible is over eighty-three years old and a hale hearty old gentleman, with bright prospects of many more years before him. He spent the winter in North Carolina. His summers he has been spending in Centre and Bedford counties. Mr. Bible is well-known to the older men of Bellefonte.

Willis Cobb, Esq., Press manager of Wallace & Co.'s Great Railroad Show, is one of the most genial gentlemen it has been our good fortune to meet. He is an attraction in himself, and being well educated and thoroughly conversant with the show business in all its details, it is pleasant to fall into his hands. Many members of the newspaper fraternity in town and their friends are under obligations to Mr. Cobb for courtesies extended to them during the time the show was here.

-For proof of the truth of what we stated last week concerning the Republican publications of Bellefonte, one needs only to read their replies. The ring figure-head boils over and gets quite wrothy, even calling us hard names. The Court Jester's duty is to amuse his superiors, and we are indeed amused. It is quite evident the Republican Commissioner cares nothing for the said Jester, and that fact exposed is what made him so unusually amusing last week. The other publication, after taking a day in which to get up something real cute, comes out and says we are too narrow minded to give Republicans credit for any good they may accomplish. The truth is they never accomplished anything, except to burden the Borough of Bellefonte with debt, as the report of the auditors just issued shows an indebtedness of over one hundred and six thousand dollars. For many years this borough has been under republican rule, and its officers are welcome to the credit of the large debt. Centre county is under Democratic rule, and is entirely free from debt. The Democratic Commissioners are entitled to and receive credit for placing the county on its solid footing, despite the fact that they had to contend with a Commissioner whose idea of economy is quite limited. Preserve us from Republican county rule, if that party's financiering is to be judged by the affairs of our borough.

-A rumor has reached the National Guard that Governor Beaver, who is a strict teetotaler, will positively prohibit the sale of liquor of any sort during the summer encampment of the division of the State National Guard at Mt. Gretna in August. It is further believed that he will request that no pocket flasks be taken into the encampment.

-The name of Orin Vail of Rush township appears this week as a candidate for Sheriff. Mr. Vail will hunt up the democratic votes all over the county and advocate his claims to recognition. He is a pleasant gentleman, well qualified and means to make a lively canvass. Look out for him.

-The Lock Haven Democrat says George W. Thomas of Bellefonte, is a guest of the Irvin House to-day, on his way to Ridgway, where he expects to remain until fall. He brought his sister Mrs. Burnside with him, the lady intending to visit friends here for a few days.

-Under the High License Law which goes into effect July 1st constables are required to make written returns monthly, based on personal visits, of all licensed places in their bailiwicks where the law is violated. with the names of witnesses. The licenses already granted are good for the year, and this is the only provision of the law which will be enforced until that time is up.

-H. I. Barnes, one of the Boalsburg merchants is erecting two houses on Bishop street, and as his presence is required here a great deal, he has concluded to reduce his immense stock of goods. To that end he is offering the people of Boalsburg immense bargains in dry goods, hats, caps, boots, shoes, clothing, etc. Great reductions are being made on his entire stock, and the people of that town will do well to give him a call.

-W. F. Reber, Esq., and wife, Wilbur F. Reeder, Esq., and wife, Miss Kate Jackson and L. N. Gordon, embarked on the 2 p. m. train Wednesday for Weicher's Run on a fishing excursion. The party took tents, provender and all necessary accompaniments of fishing tackle, flies and worms. The party will come back laden with the speckled beauties. Reber will catch his trout short hand, Reeder "on the fly," while Gordon will stick to the worm. They took their wives along to clean the fish and do the cooking. Cut the wood, etc.

-The first re-union of the 148 regiment, P. V., was held in Gregg post room on Wednesday. The first meeting was held at 11 o'clock a. m., when these brave soldier boys greeted each other, many for the first time since the war. What recollections, both pleasant and unpleasant, most have been recalled upon this occasion. At 2 o'clock another meeting was held, when the regular business was transacted. A camp fire was held in the evening, when the boys made themselves at home and enjoyment was their only purpose. We trust the old veterans who attended this meeting may live to enjoy many like gatherings.

-The sad intelligence of the death of Mr. Richard Thomas, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Thomar, of this place, which occurred at Philadelphia on Monday morning, was received here with many pangs of regret. "Dick" as he was familiarly called, was born and raised here. Almost every resident knew him, if not personally, by reputation. He had a kind heart, noble aims in life and was everybody's friend, besides having excellent business qualifications. His early loss of mental powers, and subsequent sickness, hastened the death of a young man in the prime of life, and whose prospects had been exceedingly bright. His remains were brought to the home of the sorrowing parents on Tuesday night, from whose residence the funeral will take place this (Thursday) morning at 11 o'clock. Deceased was aged 32 years and 4 months. The bereaved family have the sympathy of the community.

-Tuesday was the longest day in the year.

-Owing to illness, Judge Cammin was unable to reach Bellefonte on Monday. Court was called to order with Judge Furst on the bench, and adjourned after transacting the following business:

In the ejectment of Philip Keller, vs. Ford's heirs and James A. Beaver, a continuance was had.

Owing to the illness of J. W. Gephart one of the attorneys, the case of Chas. Whitmer, vs. the B. & B. Railroad Co., was continued, at cost of defendant.

A settlement was had in the following cases, A. Williams Esq., being Attorney for plaintiff, and D. F. Fortney Esq. for defendants:

Isaac Merryman vs. William McHammond, surviving executor of John Brett, deceased; fine for plaintiff $250. 63.

John Archey, Sr. vs. Same-$720.90.

Andrew Merryman vs. Same-$149.95.

Robert Hammond vs. Same-$1163.40.

James Oliver vs. Same-$1184.32.

J. H. Gates vs. Same-$446.52.

Elizabeth Archey vs. Same-$357.45.

At 10 o'clock Monday morning all jurors were discharged.

-At the meeting of Town Council on Monday evening, the rate of taxation adopted was, for street purposes 2 mills, for borough purposes 3 mills and for interest 10 mills.

-10 cents for a pound of good cotton Garmans.

-The Daily Commonwealth of Fond du Lac, Wis., gives the following account of a double wedding which occurred there recently. The first groom is a son of ex-Postmaster John T. Johnston, of this place:

At the residence of Geo. W. Kellond, corner of Fourth and Harney streets' Fond du Lac on Wednesday, June 15, at 2 p. m., Miss Kate Kellond was married to Finley E. Johnston, and Miss Tillie Justen to James Kellond, Rev. S. T. Kidder officiating. The parties to the double contract are well known in Fond du Lac, and bear the good will of their friends. In marriage it is hard to outline a future, but in these cases it is safe to say the sterling qualities exhibited by the young people united would indicate not only a happy but progressive and successful future. The first named couple have gone to their home on Superior street, and will enter upon their house-keeping work at once. Mr. James Kellond left the city last evening for a week's tour after which they return to their home on the same street only a block away, and enter upon like duties. Present at the marriage were family guests only.

ROLAND.

Mrs. Joseph Candor of Lock Haven is making a short visit among friends at this place.

Howard Walker who recently moved from Phillipsburg to this place, is now clerking in Curtin's store.

Childrens Day was observed here on the 19th, in the M. E. church. The morning being a beautiful one afforded an opportunity for the children to come from all parts, which they did. The decorations consisting of the most beautiful ferns, mosses, and flowers, were tastefully arranged, and much admired. An address by H. H. Harshbarger, of Bellefonte was listened to with marked attention. This gentleman is much interested in Sunday School work, and in his genial winning manner does much for the cause. A choir led by M. McClintic and J. W. Neff made the singing a success. In the evening Bible reading, recitations, singing and an address by Austin Curtin were all appreciated by the large congregation.

A festival, the object being to assist in gathering funds for the M. E. church will be held at this place on Friday and Saturday evening, 24th and 25th inst. All are invited. Ice cream, cake candies etc., will be served by the hands of some of Rolands fairest ladies. D.

[We would be pleased to hear from "D" often-Ed.]

-IMPORTANT TO SPORTSMEN.-Seines, nets and tents all kinds and sizes; fishing tackle of every description. Guns revolvers ammunition. Send for price list to Great Western Gun Works Pittsburgh Pa.

Rev. Charles Steck, delivered his famous lecture "The Hero Recognized and Unrecognized," in the Presbyterian church on last Saturday evening to a small but appreciative audience, the cream of the peace, as the lecturer remarked. Miss E. Gertie Spiglemeyer, presided at the organ.

Miss Philiger of Baltimore is visiting her sister Mrs. Windel who resides here.

Miss Shoemaker, daughter of Frank Shoemaker, formerly an attorney in Ebensburg is rusticiating at this place.

John Hoover who has been working in the car works at Milton, has returned, and is now in the employ of Landlord Bibby. Willis Rishel, son of "Judge" Rishel is still assisting Landlord Ruhl.

Henry Shaffer our former hotelier, now of Millheim, since he failed to get license comes to the Creamery for buttermilk. He takes it away by the barrel full.

The Creamery Company purchased lately, 80 additional feet of land which gives them now 180 feet of front on the railroad and running up to the foot of the mountain. Superintendent Allison also purchased the remainder of land, several acres, of R. H. Duncan lying between the railroad and the foot of egg hill. A small tract of about 7 acres and the lot and store building occupied by Wm. Pealer is all that remains of the Duncan property that has not been disposed of. Rev. James Wilson D. D. is rusticiating at the old homestead. He expects the family in a couple of weeks.

ATTENTION FISHERMAN.-Treats Seines, nets, fishing tackle, guns, revolvers very cheap at Great Western Gun Works Pittsburgh Pa. Write for price list.
