Victoria's Jubilee.

LONDON, June 22.—The Queen rose early this morning and took a drive in the garden of Buckingham Palace. Subsequently her Majesty received guests, and then she visited the Duchess of Cambridge. In the afternoon she received the homage of foreign Princes and others and the presents sent in commemoration of her jubilee. Among the presents was one of £75,000, subscribed by 3,000,000 women. Her Majesty accepted this and graciously thanked the donors.

At the children's fête in honor of the Queen's jubilee held today in Hyde Park 30,000 little ones were present. They were arrayed on the great lawn and made a pretty picture. The Prince and Princess of Wales and their sons and daughters, accompanied by a number of their royal guests visited the park during the fête. All etiquette was abolished, and the Prince and Princess mixed among the children with perfect freedom and pleasure. All at once the children began to sing "God bless the Prince of Wales." They sang in every key, but their earnestness and enthusiasm made up for the lack of harmony.

The visitors then made their way to the platform erected for their accommodations, and the Queen soon arrived. When it was announced that she was coming the children massed themselves in an orderly manner along both sides of the road which her Majesty's carriage passed, and moved with it toward the stand, the assembled bands playing the national anthem, which the children all sang with great effect. The Queen reached and ascended the platform while the music was proceeding. At its conclusion she presented a memorial cup to a little girl who had been selected to represent all the children assembled. When the Queen departed the whole assemblage sang "Rule Britannia." Mr.

Gladstone, Lord Darby and Lord Spencer were present.

The Queen left Buckingham Palace this evening and went to Windsor Castle. At the different stations along the route she was cheered by enthusiastic crowds.

At Windsor the Queen unveiled a statue of herself, the gift of the citizens of Windsor, in the presence of an immense gathering.

Will Shut Down.

READING, Pa., June 24.—President Coit, of the Reading Iron works, today informed the company's employes that in consequence of their refusal to accept the proposed ten per cent. reduction, all of the company's works will be closed for an indefinite period. The company, he said, could not afford to operate the works at the present rate of wages and at the price of goods. The suspension will throw two thousand hands out of employment.

The Brook iron company, Birdsboro, today posted a notice in its puddle and sheet mills and nail factory that owing to the depression in the iron market and in order to keep the mills going reductions in wages of its five hundred employes would have to be made, commencing July 1, of about ten per cent. in wages. Puddlers and heaters fifteen per cent., nailers wages and all others in proportion.

SHERMANSBURG, Pa., June 24.—Residents of that section of the city near the junction of Gilbert and Lloyd streets were thrown into a state of excitement between 1 and 2 o'clock this morning by the subsidence of the ground on which their houses stood. A number of houses were damaged and the roadway wrecked. Further cracking of the surface is expected.

LATER.—No further damage has been occasioned by the cave-in here this forenoon. A number of families fearing that the worst was not over, have removed to other parts of town. The excitement has about subsided.

Smugglers Show Fight.

GALVESTON, June 20.—A dispatch from Eagle Pass to the News says intelligence was received here at a late hour Saturday night that a sanguinary conflict was in progress between river guards and smugglers at a point fifteen miles below Piedras Negras, in Mexico. The conflict is still in progress. A scouting party of river guards and police numbering twenty-five men surprised a band of about twenty smugglers, well armed and with a cavalcade of pack-mules. The smugglers at once showed fight, and at the first volley two of the guards fell dead and four others had their horses killed under them. The guards then fell back and dispatched a courier to Piedras Negras for reinforcements. In the meantime the smugglers fell back toward the Rio Grande, with the evident purpose of crossing the river to the American side from which they were distant eight miles. The smugglers in their retreat kept up a desultory skirmish with the reinforced guards, who are pressing them in the rear. When it became apparent that the design of the contrabandists was to seek refuge on American soil, the Mexican authorities notified Collectors Throkold, who immediately dispatched a posse of mounted inspectors from this city to intercept them. A brisk fight is anticipated. A Mexican guard arrived at Piedras Negras late this evening from the scene of action and reports the fight still in progress and one or more guards killed. The loss of the smugglers is not known.

The postal convention which has been concluded between this country and Mexico practically extends the postal facilities of each country into the other on the same terms and with the same advantages that are enjoyed by its own citizens. The principal value of its provisions will lie in the opportunity for freer and more expeditious commercial intercourse. This will appear especially in the facilities for sending parcels of merchandise, not exceeding four pounds and six ounces in weight, subject to no charge or detention except such as is involved in the simple payment of duties on such articles as are subject to duty. Ordinary correspondence is made as easy and as cheap and ought to be as expeditious and certain as between the different parts of either country. Of course, much will depend on the perfection of the Mexican system, and that is likely to be improved as one result of the interchange of facilities.

The Pope Looks with Disfavor Upon the Knights of Labor.

PHILADELPHIA, June 25.—It has recently been made known by a prelate in authority in the Catholic church that the holy see has not finally decided to tolerate the Knights of Labor organization. When Cardinal Gibbons went to Rome he found that the case of the Knights had been much prejudiced there by the McGlynn-George movement, which was taken to be a dangerous symptom of the effects of the Knights' teaching. By the utmost exertion, and with the strenuous support of Cardinal Manning, Cardinal Gibbons secured what may be called a stay of proceedings until Rome should have obtained the full sense of the American episcopate on the momentous question. As it now stands it is not absolutely certain that there may not be friction between the Knights and the church, but all the indications are that the unanimity of the American bishops in advising prudence and a policy of non-interference will not fail of its effect.

Powder Mill Explosion.

WAYNE, N. J., June 28.—Lafin and Rand's powder mill exploded at 9 o'clock this morning. The drying mill, in which the men were putting powder to dry, blew up from some unknown cause, and three men were killed. Their names follow:

CHARLES TIER, aged 45 years. He leaves a widow and several children.

JOHN COVES, single; instantly killed.

AUGUST KAROUSE, married about nine months ago, was near the mill and has not been seen since. He is undoubtedly killed.

James H. Gardner, foreman, was struck on the head with a missile. He will recover. Several men were slightly injured. The explosion shook the ground for a great distance, breaking windows in the vicinity.

The damage to property is $10,000. Another report says the three men killed were Charles Steer, August Kanause and John Cave. A reporter called at the office of the company, in this city, but no additional particulars had been received there. The company will care for the families of those who lost their lives. The largest fragment of a body found was a foot or shoulder.

What Chairman Grier says.

CHICAGO, June 22.—General D. P. Grier, of St. Louis, chairman of the general executive committee of the Grand Army of the Republic encampment at St. Louis next September, who is at present in this city, said to a reporter that he was here to ascertain the sentiment of the Grand Army of the Republic men on the statement that the encampment is to be run for political purposes. He believes he has succeeded in convincing all that there was no such notion as that when President Cleveland was asked to visit St. Louis. He said that President Cleveland was asked to visit the encampment, not as a reviewing officer, but merely as an honored spectator and guest. James G. Blaine was asked to attend at the same time.

WASHINGTON, June 28.—A long, lank West Virginian named Brown presented himself at the pension bureau yesterday morning to furnish evidence in a claim pending before the office. It was learned upon inquiry that his mother had born thirty three children in all. Twenty of this number were boys, sixteen of whom served in the Union army. Two were killed. The other fourteen survive. Each of them draws a pension from the government for disabilities received while in the service. The death of the two boys entitles the mother to a pension also. General black says the files of the office fail to show another record where the sixteen sons of one father and mother served as soldiers in the late war.
