THE METHODISTS JUBILATE - Sunday was a memorial day for the Methodists of Bellefonte. On the 10th day of July, 1787 the first Methodist sermon was preached at Roland, Centre county, at the residence of Philip Antes.

Last Sunday being the 100th anniversary of that event, it was appropriately celebrated in the Methodist church here. The decorations were tasty and handsome, the interior presenting in appearance a perfect bower of flowers and evergreens.

Not being able to be present at the meeting we, by consent of Mr. Baily, of the News, take extracts of his excellent report. Want of space prevents us from making a more extended notice.

At 10 o'clock the commodious auditorium was thronged beyond its seating capacity and, doubtless, many hesitated to enter because the church was already full to the doors. A vision of loveliness in green and floral decorations, arranged about the pulpit, delighted the aesthetic taste of all who were present, teaching lessons of life and immortality.

A choir, composed of perhaps twenty persons, led by Mr. S. A. Stover, rendered the music, the voluntary, the church rallying song, "Away, away," etc., opening the service. Then was sung by the entire congregation the "Centenary Hymn" of five stanzas, which was printed in full on the fourth page of the programme, beginning with, "Thou God of Providence and grace." Mr. House, of Milesburg, and Rev. M. P. Crosthwaite, of Salladaysburg, read two Scripture lessons - the first from the 60th chapter of Isaiah and the second from the 12th chapter of Paul's Epistle to the Hebrews, beginning at the 13th verse. This was followed by the offering, and the singing of hymn No. 945, "Come, let us use the grace divine."

The sermon was delivered by the Rev. Bishop E. G. Andrews, D. D., of Washington City, D. C., and may be entitled Christian progress during the century. His text was from the Gospel according to Matthew, 13th chapter and 31st and 32 verses.

It was a magnificent production, delivered without notes, and contained many interesting features. He spoke of the growth of the church, stating that the beginning of Methodism was humble, but that now there were over 4,000,000 communicants in the church, and 25,000 ministers.

The morning service ended with the doxology and the benediction.

In the afternoon the church was again filled. The voluntary was "In God's temple now we meet." After singing "All hail the power of Jesus' name," Rev. W. F. D. Noble, of Stormstown, offered an invocation. "Far and near the fields are teeming" was not only the theme of the next selection of music, Rev. George Leidy, the presiding elder, also adopted it for the text of his address, considering it an appropriate theme to elaborate upon at this time of year.

Very heartily the fresh young voices of the children sang praises in that beautiful hymn, "Bringing in the Sheaves."

Among the five-minute speakers the venerable Rev. Daniel Hartman, of Mill Hall, suggested numerous beautiful sentiments in relation to flowers that bloomed around them, fit emblems of the Paradise of God. He gave them the text, "Love Jesus Now." The speaker was referred to as one of the corner stone layers, he having joined a Sunday school 62 years ago, out of which have gone fifteen ministers of the Gospel.

J. B. G. Kinsloe, of Lock Haven, spoke, somewhat humorously, of his experience in a Sunday-school in Lewistown, as early as 1827.

The singing of hymn No. 233, "Strike, O Strike for Victory," was followed by an address by W. F. Reeder, Esq. He explained the meaning of the word centenary and also compared the Sunday-schools of the past with those of the present. The offering was followed by a five-minute speech by Bishop Andrews. Dr. Monroe closed the afternoon speaking.

Sunday evening brought an audience more tightly packed than either of the preceding ones. The presiding officer, Governor Beaver, arrived late, but at once opened the services by announcing a voluntary. The congregation joined in singing hymn No. 936, "See how great a flame aspires." Rev. Mr. Noble again led the vast congregation in petitioning the throne of grace and the Presiding Elder read from Prophecy of Isaiah. The offering was followed with the singing of hymn No. 442. The presiding officer, Governor Beaver, announced himself as occupying that broad and splendid platform of faith, a believer in the Holy Catholic church, and also in the communion of saints, which he believes begins here, of which the present service was an example. He made use of this introductory to present Hon. Jas. Blair Linn, who, he said, as all citizens know, cares for nothing that is not one hundred years old and with whom the preparation of a historical narrative of Centre county Methodism was a work of love.

Mr. Linn stepped forward and read an address rich in local history, beautiful in language and at times eloquent. "Arise, my soul, arise" was sung in a soul-stirring manner, and Hon. John Patton, of Curwensville, was introduced as a worthy grandson of that illustrious ancestor, Philip Antes.

"Come, thou fount of every blessing" was sung with power after which John G. Love, Esq., delivered the concluding address. This successful centennial ended with the benediction by the Bishop.

William Fairless who lives in Beaver Row, near the Hine Mills, will offer at public sale on next Saturday, the 16th inst., at 1 o'clock p. m. a lot of household furniture, consisting of bar sets, beds, mattresses, stoves, sofas, settee chairs &c. The goods are in good condition, and those who attend the sale will secure bargains. J. C. Derr is the auctioneer.

Personal.

The Lock Haven Democrat says: Miss Kittle Bowers, of Bellefonte, is visiting Miss Agar, daughter of Mr. Jack Agar, who is a relative. Miss B. is one of Bellefonte's most charming young ladies.

Deputy Recorder Will Perlstein witnessed the fourth in many places this year. Departing on Saturday evening he brought up at Sunbury. Monday morning found him at Milton, and in the afternoon the Williamsport girls were endeavoring to capture him, but they were compelled to give way for the fair damsels of Lock Haven, whither he went in the evening. Billy wanted to stop off at Watsonstown, Jersey Shore, Wayne and Howard before returning, but as time was precious, he contented himself in the cities we have mentioned. He returned to Bellefonte Tuesday and reported as having a "glorious" time.

Samuel Decker, Esq., one of the substantial citizens of Walker township, was notified on our streets Saturday. He was accompanied by his pretty niece, Miss Ida Shaffer. By the way, the suite would very acceptably fill an associate Judge's chair.

Mr. H. D. Vanpelt of Centre Hall, has gone to Slaterville, N. Y., where he will remain five or six weeks. He is accompanied by his family. Slaterville is the birth place of Mr. Vanpelt, and his parents still reside there. It is in a beautiful country, and we are sure the visit will be pleasant.

Prof. Geo. P. Bible attended the State Teacher's meeting at Clearfield last week.

Messrs W. Fred Reynolds and Scott Haeris of this place attended a party in Lock Haven Thursday evening, given by Miss Gertrude Kautler in honor of Miss Van Gaasbeek, of Albany, N. Y. Upwards of seventy-five couples were present.

Mr. Morris Swartz, who has been attending Dickinson College, at Williamsport, will spend his vacation in Bellefonte.

Miss L. E. Lanning who was elected a teacher in the public school here, was last week elected assistant principal of the schools at Tyrone, which position she has accepted. The Bellefonte School Board will fill her place in due time.

William Tanner accompanied by his wife and sister, all of Renovo, and Miss Johnson of Mt. Eagle, were in Bellefonte on the Fourth. Mrs. Tanner is a daughter of Geo. D. Johnson of the latter place.

Mack Muthersbaugh of Renovo, was in Bellefonte on the Fourth and took in the picnic.

Mrs. Emanuel Klepper, of Clearfield, accompanied by her three interesting little children, spent the fourth in Bellefonte, the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Simeon Haupt. The lady returned to her home on Tuesday, minus one of the children, little Russia preferring to spend the summer with grandma.

Mr. Byard Hicks, of the firm of Hicks and Bros., will in about two weeks remove with his family to Los Angeles, California, where he will engage in business. We regret very much to lose Mr. Hicks and his estimable family, but since he has decided to go, we trust he may meet with undoubted success in his new home. The people of that country will find him very much of a gentleman, and an excellent business man.

Mr. Oscar Wetzel has sold his interest in the book store to his partner Mr. Sidney Bairfoot. Mr. Wetzel will seek a home in the west, and will probably locate in Dakota county, Illinois. Oscar already has three brothers in that section of country who are meeting with success, and we trust the same lot may befall him.

Mr. E. J. Swavely spent Fourth of July week at Milton, the guest of his sister.

We received a pleasant call from J. H. Beck, Esq. of Nittany, on Saturday. Mr. Beck is always a welcome caller at our office.

Mr. John Bair accompanied by his wife and child, arrived in Bellefonte Wednesday of last week. Mr. Bair left Bellefonte some time ago to accept a position in the Nail Works at Danville, but being loth to relinquish his hold on this lovely town, has resigned there. We are glad to state he will accept a situation in the Bellefonte Nail Works, and again make this his place of residence.

Mr. D. S. Erb, one of Pine Grove's prominent merchants, was in town on Wednesday.

Mr. Philip Beezer, of the firm of A. Beezer and Son, proprietors of the Central Meat Market, was in Pittsburg last week, purchasing cattle. Phil, shipped to Bellefonte a car load of nice beavers as were ever brought here.

Mrs. Rachel Larimer in company with Miss Lyde Furry, of this place, after an extended trip of two weeks among their many friends in Sunbury and Northumberland, returned home on last Saturday evening. While in Sunbury they were the guest of Dr. Furry - a prominent physician of that city. Miss Lyde received the attention of numerous young friends of that vicinity among whom was an attractive young man from Bellefonte. You can only by imagination conceive the smiles that decked the fair cheeks of the young lady as she welcomed the visitor.

Mr. Robert Voris, one of Danville's most clever and enterprising young men contemplates sometime in the future to move to Bellefonte with his family composed of his wife and sister Miss Annie Voris, a charming and intelligent young lady of that place. We hope nothing may occur that will prevent his coming as will make a useful citizen.

At 2:30 o'clock on Wednesday, June 29th, the delegates and alumni of the State College met in the chapel to elect trustees. Mr. John M. Stehman, of Rogerstown, Lancaster county, was elected chairman, and Cyrus Gordon, Esq., of Clearfield, and Clement Dale, Esq., of Bellefonte, were chosen secretaries.

The list of delegates was read, the following being present:

Centre county - Capt. John A. Hunter, Stormstown; William Foster, State College; Clement Dale, Esq., Bellefonte; Clearfield county - Cyrus Gordon, of Clearfield.

Clinton county - Joel A. Herr, of Cedar Springs; H. W. Brown, Cedar Springs; Dr. J. M. Dunn, Mackeyville; Dauphin - Francis Jordan, Harrisburg.

Indiana county - M. B. Kline, Indiana; J. McFarland, Indiana; William Fair, Penn Run.

Lancaster county - John M. Stehman, Rogerstown.

Berks county - Jacob G. Zerr, Daggers Mills; Henry G. Fessler, Reading. Northumberland - William Waldron and William Follmer.

Union county - Andrew Rule, Buffalo X Roads.

The trustees chosen to serve three years are Judge John H. Orvis and Hon. John A. Woodward, of Centre county; S. R. Downing, of Chester county, and Hon. Amos N. Mylin, of Lancaster county. Mr. Charles Roberts was elected a trustee for one year, to substitute Governor Beaver, who resigned, he being a trustee, ex-officio.

The Centre Hall Reporter has this interesting bit of news. We quite agree with Bro Kurtz regarding the purchase of the engine: "J. G. Kurtz, of Milton, who is spending a week with friends in this county, had the first steam engine that was put in use in Bellefonte. The engine was used to run the presses of the Central Press, of which Mr. Kurtz was the publisher; it was a four-horse engine and made by Mr. Landis, machinist and citizen of Bellefonte. This was about 25 years ago, and is the first engine put up by Mr. Landis, who afterwards built four other engines. This engine is now at Aaronsburg, in Mr. Lenker's furniture establishment, still doing good work. We think the boro' of Bellefonte should buy this engine and preserve it as a relic the first one made and used in that town, as such it would be an interesting piece to preserve and show to visitors."

Saturday the proprietors of the leading hotels in Huntingdon, including the Leister House Hotel Brunswick Franklin House, Washington Hotel and Morbus House, whose applications for license to sell liquor were refused last April, and whose appeal to the Supreme court has been held over until September, decided to close their hotels against all transient and regular boarders indefinitely, to take effect on the 18th instant. Each landlord qualified himself under oath to live up to the agreement, which shall not be changed unless by the unanimous consent of the parties interested. The regular boarders at all the hotels, who have been notified to leave at once, are greatly distressed by reason of their inability to find suitable lodging places elsewhere. Many of them are being taken care of by personal friends. The landlords justify their action by declaring that without license they cannot afford to keep their houses open. It is feared that the success of the proposed celebration of the county's centennial anniversary, to be held in September will be seriously interfered with in consequence of the hotels being closed to the public. - Ex.

Following is the act passed by the legislature relative to school terms in Pennsylvania, fixing the minimum at six months.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the minimum school term shall be six months, and after the close of the school year ending on the first Monday in June, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven, school directors and controllers shall keep the schools and their respective districts in operation at least six months each year; Provided, That the length of the annual term may remain as at present in districts where the maximum amount of tax allowed by law to be levied for school purposes shall be found insufficient to keep the schools open a greater length of time. APPROVED - May 19th, 1887.

A Council of the Royal Arcanum, a secret beneficiary order organized in Boston in 1877, was instituted in this place on Tuesday evening of last week. The council was instituted mainly through the efforts of R. A. Cassidy, of Canton, Ohio. The officers elected are as follows: Past Regent - Dr. J. L. Seibert. Regent - Dr. J. W. Rhone. Vice Regent - L. T. Munson. Secretary - J. A. Feidler. Collector - Walter W. Bayard. Treasurer - John P. Harris. Outside Officer - Kyle McFarlane. Inside Officer - J. M. Bell. Guide - George Johnston. Chaplain - Harrison Kline. Orator - Wilbur F. Reeder, Esq. Trustees - Wm. Lyon.

Forth of July Casualties.

The handsome residence owned and one of which was occupied by Dr. Mader, and the other end by Register and Recorder Jas. Smith, of Lock Haven, was totally destroyed by fire on the 4th.

Williamsport had two fires, a steamer upset, and a little girl lost an eye, on the glorious Fourth.

A boy named Kelly had one of his fingers torn off on the 4th, by having it caught in an iron ring on a post used to tie horses to. It appears that in front of Patterson's store is a post, the ring on which fits tight over the top, and the boy got his finger fast in it. In trying to get a firecracker in the street before somebody else gave a jump, forgetting all about his finger being fast in the ring, and the weight of his body pulled the finger off. He is said not to have been aware at first of the fact that his finger was off. He went to Dr. Armstrong for surgical assistance. - L. H. Democrat.

Nine fires occurred at Altoona on the 4th, only two of which were serious.

The Fourth in 1800

One broiling day in hot July, John Adams said, long years gone by. "This day, that makes a people free, Will be the people's jubilee." "With games, guns, sports and shows displayed, With bells, pomp, bonfires and parade." "O'er all this land, from shore to shore, From this time forth forevermore." The years passed on, and by and by, Mrs. A. heart's grew cold in hot July: And one New England mayor said, "Of rockets I am sore afraid; "And those who send me up abuzz, I'll send him up for twenty days." Then said the Mayor O' Day McQuade, "Thy're no no no for no parade." And Mayor Hans Von Schwartzemeyer Proclaimed, "I'll haf me no bonfire." Said Mayor Baptiste Raphael, "No make-ring-a-dat-a-bell," "By gar," said Mayor Jean Crapaud, "Zis July games will haf to go." And Mayor Knos Christoffersons Cried, "Death to him who gives a glass!" At last said Mayor Wan Lung See, "Too much hoop-la bobberse!" And so the Tanke holiday In 1800 passed away. - Burdette.
