A Twelve Year Old Girl Sentenced to be Hanged.

CHARLESTON, S. C. July 17 .- At Barnwell Court yesterday Judge Hudson sentenced Axey Cherry, a colored girl, 12 years old, to be hanged on the third Friday in September for the murder of Allendale, in Branwell County.

The young murderess was hired by her mother much against her will, as a nurse to Mr. Williams' baby. She pouted around the house and attended to her duties in so neglectfull a manner that she had to be constantly scolded. After a scolding one day she was overheard muttering to herself that she would not bother with tost baby much more. A few days after this concentrated lye was used in scouring the floor. and Mrs. Willims left the room and told Axey that the lye was poison, and that she musn't touch it. On her return Mrs, Williams was horrified to find her baby's mouth full of concentrated lye. Axey ran out of the house saying to nurse the baby much longer now." The young murderess all through her trial seemed to have no idea of the awful nature of her deed. When she sentenced to be hanged she gazed stupidly at the Judge and grinned as she played with the buttons on her dress. As she was being carried back to the jail she saw her father and made an effort to go to him. She cried for the first time when she was told that she could not go home, but must go back to await the day of execution.

NEW YORK, July 18 .- A lad of 16 years, named Richard Bartley, commit- and future America, for which there is visitor and considerably cooled off the atted suicide this afternoon.

M'Glynn's Reply.

New York, July 15. - Dr. McGlynn's first reply to the notice of his excommunication, aside from the impassioned address be delivered Sunday night, appears in this week's Standard. It occupies over four columns of that paper. Dr. McGlynn has not changed in the least the defiant attitude he assumed on Sunday evening toward his former ecclesissical superiors. There is a manifest effort throughout what he says to justify his course from the beginning.

He gives to the public for the first time his final summons to Rome, which was sent him in May, denounces the way in which he was addressed in it by the Cardinal Prefect of the Propaganda, but attributes that prelate's feeling toward him to the "one-sided and numerous letters" sent to Rome against him by Archbishop Corrigan. He also attemp s to prove what he and his friends have again and again asserted, that this case was prejudiced at Rome, and that he was called there to be disciplined rather than for trial.

Frightful Disaster.

St. THOMAS, ONT., July 15 .- A terrible accident occurred at the crossing of the Grand Trunk Railway and Michigan Central Railway, this city, this afternoon. An Excursion train on the Grand Trunk from Port Santley ran into a passenger freight train on the Michigan Central road, with a number running backward. His left arm was of cars loaded with oil attached. The engine crashed into one of these cars, when the oil instantly took fire and burned with great fierceness, communiesting to the cars on both trains, and extending to Griffin's warehouse, the coal and lime sheds adjoining the track on the West and to John Campbell's dwelling on the East, all of which were burned to the ground with their contents.

Engineer Donnelly, of the excursion train was buried in the wreck. The fireman jumped and escaped with slight injuries. The forward car of the excursion train was filled with passengers, who made desperate efforts to escape from the burning car, but not withstanding hundreds of brave men and willing; hands were immediately at work to assist in their rescue, it is feared that a number of lives were lost, and the bodies will be burned beyond recognition before they can be got out of the | where he was engaged for a number of

At 8 o'clock when thousands of people were crowding around the scene one of the tanks on the cars suddenly exploded throwing hundreds to the nany. Nine bodies have already been recovered, burned to a crisp.

A Great Movement.

According to the statistical report of the Sunday schools in the United States rendered at the last International Convention held in Chicago, there has been an increase in the scholar membership of all the Sunday schools in the U.S. since 1884 of 365,645. It is interesting to know by what agencies this increase has been secured for it shows that a great missionary work has been done to bring an army of 365,000 into active membership With our Sunday schools. No more important work can be conceived of, for it has to do with the destiny of our entire country. The three last Annual reports of the American Sunday School Union, the old undenominational Society "that cares for the children" who are provided for by no one else, show that since 1884, it has brought 185,034 children into 4,947 new Sunday schools, a number equal to 5000 more than one half of all the increase rethe infant of Mr. Amos Williams, of ported as having been secured by this and all other agencies during these years. But this American Sunday School Union did more than this-It aided 3,825 other schools, which have 36,774 teachers and 515,714 scholars-so that in these three years it reached 9,872 communities and Sunday schools, and 700,748 children, and youth, and then reaided and revisited these schools 9,245 times besides making 92,584 visits to families, supplying 45,019 destitute persons with the scriptures and holding 27,247 religious meetings. That there is great need for more of just such work in our country, is evident from the fact that according to the International Secretary's report there are but 8,034,478 where through industry and pluck has scholars in all the Sunday schools in the United States, that report to this convention which the chairman of the Executive as she left : "I don't reckon I will have Committee said was five per cent, too small. If five per cent were added, we have 8,436,201 scholars in all our Sunday schools. But the statement was made that 20 per cent should be deducted for those over 21 and under six years of age and those who attend more than one school and are counted twice; which deducted would leave 6,748,961 children and youth of school age in all our Sunday schools, while there are at least 9,000,000 more children of that age in our country, and very likely most of them attend no

Sunday scoool. Truly the American Sunday School Union is doing a great work, for present most urgent need. Any who would like mosphere.

slowly recovering. -Commissioner John wolf lost a valuable cow by death on last Saturday. The animal was of choice breed, weighed 1500 ounds, and a few days before she died had been sold for $60.

-Stephen Dunlap, aged 76 years, was in the act of stepping across the railroad at the Pennsylvania depot at he was struck by an engine, knocked down and his foot run over by the wheels of the locomotive. A portion of that member was amputated and the old gentleman is getting along nicely.

-Rev Arthur Devlin, pastor of the Catholic congregation at Dunbar, Feyette county. Pa., died Saturday morning at that place, after an illness of six months. The deceased came to this country from Irland in 1874, and was the first priest ordained by Bishop Tuigg. He was stationed at Huntingdon several years ago.

-On Friday, July 1, while Thomas Vaughn was crossing the railroad at the Decatur wagon road, near Point Lookout, he was struck by a train of cars broken near the elbow, and he received other serious internal injuries from which he died the following (Saturday) morning at 6 o'clock .- Philipsburg

-Monday was the time appointed by Huntingdon hotel keepers to close their places of business, and they had made all the arrangements for doing so by dischanging their clerks and servants but a number of the leading business men prevailed upon them to keep open. This decision was hailed with delight. The closing of the hotels would have proven a severe blow to transient men and the public generally.

-George Dory, one of the early settlers of Philipsburg, died at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. Mathias Plank, 11th street, Wednesday at 3:30 p. m. Deceased was born in Nittany Valley, June 10. 1790, and was consequently 97 years, 1 month and 3 days old. He came to Philipsburg in 1851, years at the coopering trade, at Cold Stream. He was a soldier in the War of 1812. He leaves two sons and five daughters. - Philipsburg Journal.

A large number of persons were present, including person from the College, Bellefonte, Lemonte and other places. The Scotia band and Buffalo Run drum corps were present and enlivened the occasion with excel- LOSSES Paid lent music. Pretty girls neatly attired waited upon the tables and made it pleasant for all visitors, and attributed largely to the success of the affair. The New York Life Ins. Co., S. of V. netted a nice sum which will be used for camp purposes.

-Last week the Messrs Crawford removed their knitting machines from Luse's plaining mill, where they nad been running temporarily, to the third story of the new factory building, west of Penn street, the interior of which was finished last week. The engine and boiler being shipped from Erie, Pa., is expected at Coburn station every day, and when here will at once be set up and encised in the engine house, the shafting will be put in place and in about two weeks the fifty odd machines will set forth their agreeable hum of industry. The factory hands are all in waiting and ready for business at a mo ment's notice. If indications do not prove false idle hands will be scarce in Millheim the coming winter .- Journal.

-We are in receipt of a magazine called The Northwest, from the hands of Mr. D. Z. Kline, of this place, it having been sent to him by Allen C. Mason, now of Tacoma, Wash. Ter. He having been born in the East, and being connected with many of our institutions of learning for many years, it will be of interest to some to hear from him. In the year 1883 Mr. Mason started West and permantly located in Tacoma sequired considerable property and influence, and to-day is working hard to make that town of 8000 inhabitants one of the great cities of the Pacific coast, by introducing all the modern conveniences and improvements of the East. The magazine is illustrated, giving cuts of the coming mea of that section of sur continent, and their residences which are equal to our style of artitechture and design. Also giving a historical sketch of the surrounding country: It is full of information. Mr. Mason is a man of ripe experience, of keen discernment, tact and learning associated with it, and will, no doubt, meet with great
