All are well to do and respected gentlemen, and although well up in years, the youngest being 63, it is hoped there may be many more such pleasant reunions.

The Gazette calls the Riddle-Brien affair an "affray." Now just how the editor of that paper makes it an affray is not known, as there was no fuss or quarrelling before or after the stabbing, it was simply one man deliberately cutting another, and then disappearing. "Affray" as legally applied, "is the fighting of two or more persons, in a public place, to the terror of others. A tumultuous assault; a brawl; a fray." We are afraid the Gazette man had too many bed-bugs buzzing in his ears when he wrote "affray."

On Thursday evening Miss Grace McBride, niece of Miss Mary McBride, who resides on the corner of Allegheny and Bishop streets, gave a garden party the occasion being the anniversary of the birth of the young Miss. About twenty of her young friends were present, and a very enjoyable time was had. The large granite stone which rests over the door leading into the banking room in Reynolds' new building, was placed there on Tuesday morning. It weighs 3500 pounds. Another stone weighing five tons, is to be placed on the third story, and will be a support for the front part of the roof. It has not yet arrived but the trimmings are here, and when placed in position will surpass anything in this part of the state. The banking room will be handsomely fitted up and the distance from the floor to the ceiling will be twenty-seven feet.

A three year old child of David Hendershot's, who lives in the Brown Row near the car shops, met with a painful and perhaps fatal accident on Monday. Mr. Hendershot had captured a large turtle, and he and another gentleman were cleaning it. They had taken the reptile out of a bucket of boiling hot water and proceeded to the house when the little one approached the bucket and in some unaccountable manner fell into it. The child was rescued as quickly as possible, but before it had been terribly scalded, and its recovery is extremely doubtful.

Officer Foulk showed us a knife the other day that is certainly a curiosity. Recently, some persons were searching an old house situated below Spring Mills, when they unearthed it. In length, including handle, it is about 19 inches, and the length of the blade, which is quite narrow, is 9 1/2 inches. It closes like a pocket knife, and to open it required but the touch of a spring which rusted fast and does not operate now. This was probably made necessary on account of the sudden appearance of Indians, as it is supposed it was used during Revolutionary times when the settler had ever to be on the alert. It is a deadly looking weapon, and woe unto the man who felt the thrust of the keen blade, when wielded by one of the old pioneers, determined to protect his family from the depredations of his Red foe.

It is said H. A. McKee will make a decided change in his beautiful property on Willowbank street, and which extends back to Valentine street on Methodist Hill. The property will be divided and an alley is to pass east and west between the lots and connect with that at the Dale property. On the front portion, facing Willowbank street will be built two substantial dwelling houses, which will be comfortable and contain all the modern improvements. There is ample room for these houses and they will make a decided improvement to that end of town.

There happened into our office the other evening six young men, who by reason of their height attracted attention. They did not come by appointment, but casually dropped in. Their combined height is 36 feet 8 1/2 inches, all being above six feet except one who just leveled the two yard stick. Their weight is 1002 pounds, and their combined age 142 years. The tallest is 6 feet 3 1/2 inches and the heaviest drew the scales at 192 pounds. The oldest is 27 years and the youngest 19. If six young men happen together at any time, and can give us the same, or a better result we would be glad to hear from them.

Three Italian musicians manipulating violins and harp, are in town, and their music is delightful. The violinists are especially expert players, and wherever they play attract great crowds. Yesterday morning at 11 o'clock the marriage of Dr. R. G. H. Hayes to Miss Sallie Hoffer, occurred at the residence of the bride's mother. It was a quiet affair no invitations having been issued. The groom is one of Bellefonte's rising physicians, highly respected and has bright prospects before him, while the bride comes from one of our best families and is a beautiful and accomplished lady. May all the joys of life attend them.

There was not as large an attendance at the Union Temperance meeting in the Presbyterian church on Sunday evening as there should have been. Rev. Snyder, Reformed minister, delivered the sermon, which contained many sound points. He presented the temperance question in its proper light, and made a strong appeal to the young to join in the ranks. Rev. Monroe delivered an appropriate address and Rev. Steek assisted in the services.

Bayard of this place, attended the funeral, which occurred on Saturday afternoon at 1 o'clock.

Vol. 1, No. 1, of The Southern Hub, a monthly publication devoted to the interests of Chattanooga, Tenn., has been received. The subscription price is $1 per year, and those who are interested in the South will do well to subscribe.

Over a year ago a drill was started above Renovo for the purpose of ascertaining whether oil or gas existed there. Last week the work was abandoned after reaching a depth of 3,500 feet. This is the third unsuccessful attempt and pretty thoroughly settles the oil question in that vicinity.

D. M. WOLF, Co. Sup't.

We were in error last week when we stated that Mrs. Jones, the lady who is visiting at the residence of Mr. Harry Hicks, was mourning the death of a son. The lady has but one son, a bright little lad, and he is living we are glad to say. The information which led to the first notice we believed to be reliable, but which, unfortunately for us, was not.

E. H. Magill, president of Swartmore College, delivered a free lecture to the people of Unionville on Tuesday evening, the subject being "The Relation between Normal Schools and Colleges."

A MAN WITH MORE NOSE THAN BRAINS.—Editors DEMOCRAT: Please give me a small space in your paper to refer to charges made against my management of the Poor House by a man named Feldler editor of a sheet called the Gazette. It seems the charges against me are made on the report of two gentlemen from the State Board of Charities, they having examined the poor house found everything upside down and piles of dirt lying all around, and also four inmates absolutely neglected and forsaken. Now I will meet these two charges of the state board. First, they say in their report they made an examination of the poor house. I say it is untrue, for the reason that all of the rooms that are used by the boarders were locked, early that morning, as Mrs. Edward Dummel left about 8 o'clock a. m. to attend her church picnic, and had some of the inmates with her. They did get in two or three rooms in the garret which are used to keep stoves and pipe in, as we have no other place to put them. Warren going with them they made their way into his room, where they found everything in No. 1 order. They also got into an outside kitchen that is never used except in the summer, and is never locked. The second indictment is, they found the four inmates neglected. This is also a mistake for the two had arrangements made to have their meals at the usual time. Now this sheet called the Gazette, fires a red-hot ball at my management of the poor house. If he could have hit me directly I would have been ashamed to ask you to publish a reply, coming from a man without a character, as he is known to everybody here as the political liar of the age. As nearly everyone knows who I have in charge, I have only to mention their names to set at rest such a silly charge, as they are well known in this community. They are Mr. Edward Dummel and his christian wife. I know the lady feels very sore over the charges of the two cranks from the state board, and also the thing that runs the Gazette. I have made this statement in vindication of the woman in charge of the poor house and not of myself, as I disregard anything this sheet may say about me. JAMES SCHOFIELD.

GRANGES' PICNIC.—The committee on the Patrons' Picnic and Exhibition of Centre county, to be held on top of Nittany Mountain, near Centre Hall, September 14 and 15, is pushing its work vigorously, and now promises to be a grand affair, surpassing anything of the kind ever held in the county. Arrangements for tents have already been fully completed, and the committee is now ready to furnish any number of them wanted, and to all persons applying. Nearly all the Granges have already engaged tents besides many private individuals, and all other applications should be made as soon as possible.

Arrangements have also been completed with the Gettysburg railroad company to give stereopticon exhibitions of the views of the Gettysburg battle field on large canvases. These exhibitions will be given two nights free of charge, along with many other novel and interesting scenes under the management of Messrs. Bartrond & Long. It is a marvel how the Patrons of our county are able to give such an interesting exhibition free of charge, as they are usually accompanied with heavy expense.

The majority of our home manufacturers and dealers in agricultural implements have engaged space for the exhibition of their wares and implements, and no doubt there will be many more applications before the Exhibition opens.

An effort is being made to secure an exhibition of thorough-bred horses and cattle. Those who desire to take advantage of the feature should make application early in order to enable the committee to provide accommodation. Hay, straw, etc., will be furnished exhibitors of stock at a nominal price. The camp arrangements, under the supervision of proper officers, will be the most complete. Stoves will be provided for cooking purposes for those wishing to board on the ground. A coffee house, restaurant and refreshment stands will serve the public so there will be nothing wanting for the comforts of those attending the Picnic and Exhibition.

Those who desire to tent on the ground should provide themselves with blankets and wraps for protection at night. Application will be made to the court for the appointment of a police force. None but licensed houses will be allowed on or within one mile of the ground.

Applications for restaurants, refreshment stands, boarding houses, etc., should be made to Messrs. Boozer & Brisben, Centre Hall, who have special supervision of the department and will oblige and accommodate all.

For exhibition privileges, tents, etc., application should be made to the chairman, Hon. Leonard Rhone.

Henry Woomer whose home is at Rock Forge, this county, met with a narrow escape on Monday. Mr. Woomer is assisting in making the repairs on Gerbrick, Hale & Co's flouring mill, at this place. On the day mentioned he was working on a scaffold, when the timber gave way and he was precipitated to the ground a distance of eight feet. A large stone lying on the platform also fell striking him on the side and back. At first it was thought his back was broken, but fortunately such was not the case, although the injuries received were of a serious nature. He is able to walk about again, but he feels quite sore yet.

George Danley captured a nice swarm of bees on Saturday last, good luck to him. We hope they are Democrats. But keep away from the little end of the bee, George.

Some of our young men indulged in a very bad practice recently. They got it into their heads that it would be good fun to frighten an old woman, who is patially demented, and went up the road where they accomplished their purpose. The victim was badly scared, and ran into town that being the only way she could rid herself of her tormentors. Should this be repeated the names of the culprit will be made public. PHILANTHROPIST.

The Centre Hall Reporter furnishes us with the following items:

Bushman, Harry Dinges, Cal Wieland, Dave Boozer, Gottlieb Strohmer, Sam Kresner, Orris McCormick, Rob Miller, and others. We are glad to see the band reorganized as it is a desirable thing to have in the community. We are told that the members resolved to ask for no aid from the citizens and will defray themselves all necessary expenses. Our citizens should go them one better and give them a boost even if not asked, as it is needed anyhow. Again we say, let the band play.

Jack Limbert, of near Madisonburg, one day last week, had a serious runoff as he was on his way, with a two horse team, to Lock Haven, having a load of butter and eggs. As he got near Peattit's mill, one of the front axles broke and the team began to kick and run. The whole dash board of the wagon was kicked off, the wagon upset and he and his son were thrown out. The son had a leg broken and his father was badly bruised. The wagon was wrecked and a long stretch of the road was daubed with smashed eggs and smeared with butter. Besides the injuries sustained by Mr. Limbert and his son, he has a serious loss on wagon, butter and eggs.
