> -DEATH OF AN OLD CITIZEN .- Michael Meyers died suddenly at his home, on The manner of death is not definitely known. It is said he went to the field to give his men instructions, but was unable to distinctly articulate. The men advised him to go home and lie down awhile, and he started for the house. In the course of a couple of returned and found her husband lying dead just within the door. It is supposed he was overcome by the heat, which coupled with his old sge caused death. Mr. Meyers was between 81 ceived the contract for laying the pave- and 82 years old. He was known all over the county, and was a kind and accommodating neighbor. Although gruff and blunt in speech, he had a kind heart, and was indulgent in family affairs. In politics he was a Democrat, always supporting the principles of the party as well as its candidates. He was a resident of the county for about sixty years and leaves a wife and several married children and hosts of frieads to mourn their Democratic County Convention.

A large number of Democrats assembled in the Court House on Tuesday afternoon to nominate candidates for county officers. There was a full representation of delegates present, the Court room was packed, and the meeting a most enthusiastic one. The convertion was called to order by D. F. Fortney, Esq., when H. Y. Stitzer, Esq. was selected as President, John T. McCormick, reading clerk, and such progress that it was impossible to F. C. Hosterman and R. E. Munson secretaries of the convention. Mr. Stitzer, upon taking the chair made a neat address, outlining the duty of the party and pointing the pathway to success.

RESOLUTIONS.

The democracy of Centre county in convention assembled, believing that the best interests of the people of the United States and of the Great Commo ple of the United States and of the Great Common-wealth of Pennsylvania are safest in the control of that party which springs fresh from the hearts of the great masses and knowing the Democratic party and its principles have always stood as a great bui-wark between the rights of the people and the ag-greations of corporate and monopolistic forces, hereby re-affirm our emilie confidence in its great principles, its meh, and its measures. Therefore be it Resolved. 1. That in the administration of Grover Cleveland we have a fitting exemplar of the princi-ples and aims that have made our party a living, vital force in the affairs of the nation, and have preserved to the people that measure of official honor and in-terity which has made to em great among the nations of the earth.

The second saw him in his shirt sleeves. When he tackled the third man he was dressed as in the first case except that he was vestless. The fourth man handed out his cash to a man dressed as a laborer, but all agree that the face was the same as each of the gentlemen were sent on their journey minus the valuables, they were told that three other robbers occupied positions farther down the road. and that should they meet any one they were to wave their right hand across their face which way a signal that they had given up their money. Of course this was a ruse and no one was met. It is hoped this daring individval will be captured and placed where he will not need money.

-A horrible murder was committed near Lock Haven on Saturday night or Sunday morning, the account of which we take from the Express of Tuesday Meagre details reached this city last evening of a most horrible murder having been committed near the mouth of Cherry Run, this county. The intelligence was brought here by a man named Rhule. The victims of the tragedy are a man named Isaiah Colby and his wife, who live in a small log house near 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon.
