He said the Republican party was better equipped at this time than ever before to do their ousting and then as every one expected his abuse was directed to the President personally. After this the battle flag was reopened and Hastings finished by pleading that the flags he placed in the possession of a Republican. Covered with perspiration the chairman sank into a scat.

The next thing in order was the nomination for state tressurer. Senatos Thompson nominated Captain Wm. B. Hart, of Harrisburg.

John B. Robinson arose when Senator Thompson sat down and in a graceful speech withdrew the name of Grimeson and Mr. Bart was nominated acelamation.

Ex-Auditor General Niles then named Judge Williams of Tioga.

Judge Green, of Schuylkill county, named G. J. G. Edwards. Ballot was taken with the following result : Willams 149; Mitchell, 56; Elwards 6. Then the Schuylkill county delega tion transferred its support to Williams and the nomination was made unani-

Charles Himes, of Mt. Union, one of the brakesmen, besting him over the head with a club until he became unconscious, and then robbed him of his watch and $31.50 in money. After he had recovered consciousness they again seized him and threatened to throw him from the train unless he delivered up to them all the money he had upon his person. He begged them to desist, assuring them they had procured every thing he had of value, whereupon they yielded to his importunities and left the train. The case was placed in the hands of Officer Gro, who with his usual vigilance, started to hunt up a clue to the whereabouts of the bold robbers. He finally succeeded in locating them at Selinsgrove, to which place he at once proceeded on Monday morning in quest of the criminals. After making sure his work he called to his assistance Officer Briner, when they took into custody three tramps, and brought them to Lewistown, where they furnished quarters in Fort Garrett. During the day snother tramp had also been arrested as being one of the parties connected with the affair. On Monday evening Detective Abe Roat, of Harrisburg, arrived in town, and, in company with young Himes and a witness went to the jail and interviewed the parties arrested. Himes immediately identified two of the prisoners as the men who assaulted him, and there being no evidence against the other two they were
