State Convention.

PHILADELPHIA, July 23, 1887.

The Democratic State Convention to nominate a candidate for Judge of the Supreme Court, a candidate for State Treasurer, and for the transaction of such other business as may be brought before it, will meet at Allentown on Wednesday, August 31, at 12 o'clock, noon.

The representation in the Convention will consist of representative delegates, one for each 1,000 Democratic votes cast for Governor at the last gubernatorial election, or for a fraction of 1,000 such votes amounting to 500 or more in the respective representative districts provided that each representative district shall have at least one delegate.

DALLAS SANDERS, Chairman.
Wm. F. DANNEBERGER, Secretary.

RECOMMENDATION OF STATE COMMITTEE FOR THE ALTERATION OF RULE III.—The State Central Committee shall consist of one member from each County, and in addition, that is entitled to more than one State Senator shall have an additional member for each additional Senator. The Chairman of the local county organization shall be ex-officio a member of the State Committee. Additional members (in counties entitled to them) shall be appointed in such manner as the local regulations of the respective county organizations may determine.

FOR THE ALTERATION OF RULE III.—that the apportionment of Delegates to the State Convention be based on the vote of the last preceding gubernatorial or Presidential election, whichever shall have last occurred.

The Report of the Committee of Seven of the State Committee, recommending a uniform plan for making Senatorial and Congressional nominations throughout the State will be presented to the State Convention for such action as they may deem proper.

Chase and Irish.

HARRISBURG, Pa., August 25.—The second day's session of the Prohibition State Convention was opened with the singing of the hymn "A Better Day is Coming," and a prayer by Rev. Mr. Smith, a colored delegate from Franklin county. The Committee on Credentials reported 525 delegates in attendance, representing fifty-four counties. The Convention then proceeded with the nomination of a State ticket.

For Judge of the Supreme Court James Black, of York, presented the name of Simeon B. Chase, of Easton. Mr. Black spoke of his candidate as a man of christian character, mature age and thought, and a life-long total abstainer, who stands high in his profession. There were no other candidates, and Mr. Chase was nominated by acclamation.

A. A. Stevens, of Tyrone, named Captain Dallas C. Irish, of New Castle, for State Treasurer. He alluded to the Captain's record as a soldier, his high standing as a citizen and his total abstinence proclivities. No other names were offered, and Captain Irish was nominated by acclamation.

Candidates Chase and Irish were introduced, and each in a few words thanked the delegates for the honors conferred. They said they had no idea of being elected, but realized the fact that some persons must lead the fight for the grand principles of the Prohibition party.

A. A. Stevens, of Tyrone, and Joshua L. Baily, of Philadelphia, were elected members of the Prohibition National Executive Committee.

A number of Philadelphia delegates voted against Joshua L. Baily for member of the National Committee. John Greer desired to explain his vote on this motion, but in view of the long discussion which was likely to follow he was persuaded not to speak on the subject.

The Convention adjourned sine die at 10:45 o'clock.

Before the adjournment Chairmen Wolfe renewed his onslaught on the Pennsylvania Railroad, the Associated Press and the press in general, the last of which he said was muzzled by the power of monopoly and the whisky ring.

The Prohibition State Committee organized this morning by electing Hon. Charles S. Wolfe, of Union county, Chairman. Mr. Wolfe, who was nominated by James Black received 67 votes to 27 cast for A. A. Barker, of Cambria county. Mr. Wolfe hesitated about accepting the office, and finally said he would take it if allowed to establish headquarters in his law office at Lewisburg. The committee assented to this.

The Ute War.

DENVER, Col., August 28.—A dispatch from Glenwood Springs says a courier just in from Meeker and the White River reports an engagement between Sheriff Kendall's posse of fifty-five men, supported by 100 cavalry, on one side and a band of 100 Utes, under Colorado, on the other. Nine Indians are estimated to have been carried from the field dead. Deputy Sheriff Ward, of the Sheriff's posse, was killed and several other of his men and of the troops seriously wounded. The fight commenced Thursday morning early upon the arrival of Sheriff Kendall's force to the support of the troops. The scene of the battle is at Wolf Creek thirty-five miles down the White River from Meeker.

The engagement was conducted in Indian fashion, from behind all the protection that rocks, gullies and trees would give, and lasted until after dark Thursday. Another engagement was expected Friday Morning.

A Rocky Mountain News special from Rangely, Col., 10 a. m., by courier from Glenwood Springs via Meeker says: The fight occurred at a place six miles west of Rangely in a little canyon between the mountains. The Indians had planned an ambush, but the scouts discovered it and retreated in time. The Indians then opened fire, and Major Leslie, who commanded the scouts, which were augmented by Major Hooper's Aspen Volunteers, returned the fire from behind the rocks. The Indians showed themselves and fought desperately. Upon first concentrated fire of the troops two Indians fell and one white man, Dr. Diamond, of Meeker, with Kendall's band was wounded.

For two hours the battle raged incessantly, then the Utes retreated to timber, and only skirmish shots were fired during the day. This continued until 11 o'clock last night, but no one was injured. Jack Ward, one of Kendall's men, was shot down during the first part of the fight. The whites saw eight Indians dragged behind the line. The Indians were dead. There were five whites wounded. Their names are not yet known. Three of them were members of Hooper's command. One was a scout, and two are believed although not known to be soldiers.

After the fight the Indians retreated, and a report comes that they were going to pillage the ranches. They were not heading for the reservation. The men of the national Guard, and in fact all whites are almost on foot, their horses being exhausted. A courier passed here this morning bound for Meeker after supplies and hospital supplies. There is immediate demand for them. The men have barely had enough to eat.

A telegram received at 6 p. m. from Rangely via Glenwood says the only man known to have been killed in the fight on Thursday was Jack Ward, who was buried to-day. The wounded on our side are Lieutenant Folsom, Aspen; Ed. Folts, Aspen; L. Stewart, Leadville; Dick Coffrey, Leadville, the latter mortally.

A courier who left this morning reports 700 Indians in the field.

The Ute war situation, as far as can be learned is unchanged since yesterday. Word has been received that six hundred Utes are camped near Thursday's battlefield, and are held back by two companies of Colorado regulars. It is known that the Indians that took part in the fight were true Utes, White River, Uintah Utes and Uncompahgre, and that if necessary over 1,600 reinforcements can be raised from this tribe. The Uncompahgre Indians are a very hot-headed race and if any of their people were killed Thursday it is feared the entire tribe will take the matter up and precipitate the state into a long and bloody war. If the Indians do not attack the whites at Rangely before the arrival of Governor Adams and General Crook to-morrow there are hopes that the trouble will be settled. Lieutenant Folsom, of Aspen, who was wounded seriously during the engagement, died during Friday morning.

South Carolina Quaking.

COLUMBIA, August 28.—A little after 12 o'clock yesterday morning an earthquake shock occurred here, accompanied by the usual roar and lasting some seconds. At four minutes of 5 o'clock a second and heavier shock was felt. The motion was undulating.

CHARLESTON, August 28.—This city was again visited by a very perceptible shock of earthquake at an early hour yesterday morning. There appears to have been damage done.

SUMMERVILLE, S. C. August 28.—Quite a severe shock of earthquake was felt here early this morning. No damage reported; but people who had retired for the night were awakened.

AUGUSTA, Ga., Aug. 28.—At daybreak yesterday morning a severe shock of earthquake was experienced in this city and locality. No damage was done, but there is much uneasiness among the inhabitants.

A Burglar's Fate.

NEW YORK, August 29.—"Jimmy" McDevitt, a well known burglar and a nephew of "Jimmy" Elliot the prize fighter who was killed by "Jerry" Dunn in Chicago a few years ago, met a horrible death this morning while trying to escape from a store where he had been discovered. The store that McDevitt broke into is situated at 9 and 11 white street. Messrs. Weise Bros., importers and manufacturers of cloak and garments, occupied the upper loft. McDevitt was discovered in their store, on the second story, where he had gone to commit a robbery.

Max Recht, a porter in the employ of Messrs. Weise Bros., opened the store about 7:30 o'clock this morning and a half an hour later he heard a commotion and went to see what caused it. He found the burglars there and locked the door, making McDevitt a prisoner, and then sent for a policeman. When the officer appeared on the scene McDevitt started for the front of the building, and without hesitation sprang head foremost through the plate glass window. A large sign outside the window impeded his descent and he fell upon the shattered glass, which dismembered him and almost cut his body in two. He was rescued from his position but died in ten minutes afterwards without uttering a word. On the officer's searching the premises a confederate of McDevitt's was found and captured. He is known to the police as "Rats."

GALVESTON, August 28.—A special from Beaumont says: An ice cream festival was held last night at the residence of George Carroll for the benefit of the Baptist church. After partaking of the cream about 60 persons were seized with symptoms of poisoning. No one has as yet died from the effects of the poison, though two persons are reported to be still unconscious and several others seriously ill. The only way the poisoning can be accounted for is the use of a new ice cream freezer.

An unknown tramp, while riding between the cars of a freight train, near South Fork, Monday, had his right hand and wrist so badly mashed as to require amputation. He was in the act of lighting a match, and had reached down to scratch it upon the end of the iron bullhead, when the cars came suddenly together. He was taken to the Altoona Hospital.

A Terrible Experience.
HARRISBURG, August 24.—Lewis Lowry a stonemason employed at the new Duquesne tub works, opposite McKeesport, while at work yesterday was suddenly prostrated, and for three hours pronounced dead by attending physicians. At the end of that time, however, he revived, and was able to go to McKeesport, where he was seen by a reporter. He said that during all of those terrible hours he could hear and understand all that was said, and heard physicians pronounced him dead. He heard sympathizing bystanders ask concerning his name and circumstances, but was powerless to speak or move a muscle. He shivers when he thinks of the horrible experience. He was at one time employed at the new court house in this city, and while a work on the tower one day was prostrated much in the same manner. At that time he narrowly escaped falling to the ground below. He is subject to such attacks.

Presidential Preferences.

KANSAS CITY, August 28.—The Times of to-day publishes the answers received to inquiries sent out through Kansas and Missouri as to the Presidential preferences. In Missouri 270 answers were received. Of these 251 for Cleveland, 3 for Truman, 1 for Wade Hampton and the rest scattering. Republicans sent 261 answers, of which 125 were for Blaine, 77 for Sherman, 41 for Lincoln and the rest scattering. In Kansas 326 Democrats answered as follows: Cleveland 306, Thurman 7, Hill 6, the remainder scattering. The Republicans sent 302 answers, of which 181 were for Blaine, 86 for Sherman, 44 for Lincoln and the rest scattering.

Charged With Stealing Pension Papers.

WASHINGTON, August 25.—Allen Rutherford, a lawyer of high standing and extensive practice in this city, formerly an auditor in the treasury department under president Grant, was arrested to-day upon the charge of having received certain records stolen from the pension office. Richard Brumer, clerk in the surviving soldier's department of the pension office, was also arrested, charged with stealing the records in question.

The missing papers were the records of the service of surviving soldiers which had been copied into books of the pension office. Their loss is therefore, of little moment to the pension office, but their possession is claimed to be of consequence to claim agents with an extensive practice. Rutherford gave bail in $3000 and was at once released. Brumer in default of bail was locked up. Rutherford attributes the charge and his arrest to the malevolence of a discharged clerk.

WILKESBARRE, August 27.—Three fatal cases of fever have occurred in Plymouth this week, and another epidemic such as prostrated nearly every resident of the place in 1875 is feared. Owen Jones died Monday, T. T. Clark on Wednesday and May E. Thomas last evening. The physicians claim they died of regular typhoid fever and believe that it was contracted by the exposure of the contents of cess pools hauled through the town.

LANCASTER, Pa., August 28.—The northern part of this county has been over run by members of the Salvation Army for a year or more past and they became a nuisance to the people. In the early part of the year Lizzie Engel, a young girl of Manheim was induced to leave her home and join the army against the wishes of her parents. She was first sent to Harrisburg and thence to Kansas, where she now is. William Duffin, captain of the salvation workers, was arrested with several other members of the band on the charge of conspiracy to entice the girl from home. Duffin was the only one convicted and to-day he was sentenced to a year in prison.
