When we see a young man struggling to hold up a telephone pole and looking down on the ground at the fragments of a square meal while his companion stands by expostulating at the recklessness of the fellow holding up the pole, our heart goes out in sympathy and we regret that the young man has more load than he can carry.

Thirty Five Delegates.

Chicago, October, 23.—Dissenters from the action taken at the Minneapolis convention have declared war with executive board of the Knights of Labor and having issued their declaration of independence on returning from the convention about thirty delegates representing fifteen states stopped in Chicago and determined to bring about the reorganization of the order.

It is addressed to the rank and file of the order of Knights of Labor and says: "Indignant at the usurpation of power, the gross violation of law of our order by those high in authority, disgusted with those whose loyalty to the present has been gained by the pickings they receive, as a reward for their services, incensed at fawning sycophants who crawl on their knees in slavish submission to the most corrupt, the most tyrannical man that has ever controlled a labor organization, we therefore affirm the motto of our order that when bad men combine the good must associate, else they will fall one by one, an unpitied sacrifice in a contemptible struggle. We assert the hour has come when as honest men and women we declare ourselves independent of those who have abused the confidence reposed in them by our order. Our duty to the workmen and women demands that we at once reorganize the order of the Knights of Labor on a basis which will secure the autonomy of the trade and the sovereignty of the districts in all pertaining to their trade and local affairs, and to prevent it from being used in the future as a machine to fill the coffers of designing and unscrupulous men as it is by those now in power.

A Costly Revenue.

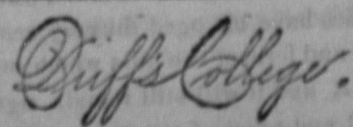

In speaking of the benefits of High License, a contemporary remarks that, "Beside reducing the number of drinking places in a marked degree, the increase in revenue is very great," exclaiming, furthermore, that in the large cities of Nebraska the public schools are supported by the revenues derived from licenses. While this latter statement bears the imprint of trust, the question arises, have we the right to degrade and pauperize one portion of a community for the privilege of elevating the other. And again, would not the money expended for drink more than pay the schooling expenses? We fail to see any display of statesmanship in the act of licensing crime in order to create sufficient revenue for governmental purposes. It is this very license that makes the administration of the government expensive.—West Grove (Penn.) Independent.

President Cleveland Returns.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 22.—Promptly at 6.40 this morning the President's special train reached the depot here. The President was heartily glad to get home, though as heartily glad that he went away. During the three weeks of his journey he traveled 4500 miles, passed through seventeen States, crossing three of them twice, and had seen and been seen by (variously estimated by different members of the party) from 1,000,000 to 5,000,000 American citizens. The President and Mrs. Cleveland and Colonel Lamont entered their carriage and went to the White House. The Postmaster General and Mrs. Vilas were driven to their home. Mr. Bryant and Mr. Bisell went to breakfast with the President, after which they took trains respectively for New York city and Buffalo. After breakfast the President and Mrs. Cleveland drove out to their country home at Oak View, where they spent the day.

Don't forget the farmer John Groove who is pitted against the Republican ring candidate for judge Groove's nomination came to him unsolicited, and his eminent fitness for the position is acknowledged by all. Even Fielder says he would like to see him elected.

Jack Newson the popular landlord of Howard was to be seen on our streets on Monday.

SPRING MILLS.

On last Sabbath there was committed to its last earthly resting place all that was mortal of Willis Bibbe Durst, only son of Hiram Durst of near Farmer's Mills. Little Bibbe Durst, I call him little, for although he was about eighteen or nineteen years old, he was only a boy in stature, had been a sufferer from heart disease for many years, and by his patient and gentle disposition had won the love of all with whom he came in contact. His parents tried every known remedy for his recovery and invoked the skills of many physicians in his behalf during the years of his sufferings but it remained for the Great Physician, alone to relieve him, by taking him unto Himself.

Sadie Shultz an old resident of Farmer's Mills, looked over for A. Krape on last Thursday and remarked in the evening that she felt remarkably well and would return to work Friday morning "rain or shine". She did not return and nothing being seen of her for two days, on last Sabbath, her nearest neighbor, Mrs. Eberick called in the assistance of Mr. L. R. Kibel, Justice of the Peace to examine her house. On entering it they found the woman lying on a bed, a corpse, with evidence of her having been dead for two days. She had one daughter married to a man by the name of Spiker, living in Bellefonte.

John Noll spent Monday night in Spring Mills looking after the interests of his candidacy. During the evening he met quite a number of the G. A. R. boys who were right glad to see him. Republicans seemed to vie with Democrats in their endeavors to make his visit pleasant and enjoyable. He will receive a number of Republican votes in this township. So will candidate Grove. Our reading Republicans are disgusted with Jimmy Fielder's abusive remarks about Comrade Noll. The fact of his being an old soldier and a laboring man, makes friends for him wherever he goes.

The great necessity of Bellefonte is additional railroad facilities, and a competing line of railroad giving us connections with the outside world. Are our business men and manufacturers going to close their eyes to this fact? The Pennsylvania's facilities for handling the immense freight traffic that has grown up in the last year in this town are very limited and our increasing business demands competition in freights. It is the fear of being at the mercy of a single corporation that keeps manufacturers and capitalists from locating in our midst all the arguments that can be advanced in favor of Bellefonte as a manufacturing center can be knocked little end upwards by the fact that we have no competition in railroads.

PHILADELPHIA, OCTOBER 18, To the people of Pennsylvania:

A circular published in to-day's Philadelphia Times from Mr. Cooper, Chairman of the Republican State Committee, states that the saloon keepers and anarchists of Pennsylvania have raised a corruption fund of $200,000, "which is being used through and by the Democratic organization."

The Democratic organization has not been offered, has not received and will not receive one dollar from any association, organization or otherwise in aid of any of its candidates, except from individual members of its own party.

Mr. Cooper has been informed, imposed upon or deliberately falsified when he makes such a statement.

Mr. Cooper's visible fears for the State and City tickets are not an excuse for such an unfounded charge.
