

Subscription: $1.00 per annum in advance. Single copies 5 cents.

Local Department.

Philadelphia is beginning to "call in" the white hats.

Howard Lingle's palatial mansion is nearing completion.

The "kicking machine" ran at its full capacity on Tuesday.

The days of the anarchists are drawing rapidly to a close.

Why don't council order the erection of board walks on the south side of East Curtis street?

First class book binding done here all work guaranteed. Ledger, Blank books and tablets made to order.

McFarlane's new store room is being finished in hard wood, which will beautify their room very much.

No cigars on Sunday was the news that greeted the smokers on Saturday evening last, a man could do worse things.

The services in the Methodist church will continue during the coming week commencing at seven and a half o'clock.

The great bargains ever offered in Bellefonte—at Corman's. The entire stock must be sold, and prices have been made very low.

Another stabbing affray occurred on Saturday night last, we have not learned the full particulars but will give another account of it.

The crying necessity for Bellefonte is the completion of the railroad to Beech Creek. Now would be a good time to push the project.

Republicans did not let up upon their work, even on the Lord's day and yet they howl and lament about democratic desecration of the day of rest.

Election day was as balmy as a June bug, at least that is the way one of our acquaintances put it, and he was perfectly familiar with bugs.

An extra issue of the Gazette made its appearance on Monday afternoon filled as usual with filthy rubbish from the slimy cesspool in which it wallows.

Why don't you advertise your business, it shows enterprise, push, and denotes a measure of success. There is nothing like advertising in your home paper.

Houses are springing up in every direction and as fast as they are completed their owners find tenants for them. Bellefonte is booming, chalk that down.

The new board walk on Linn street is slowly nearing completion, while a little more blocking at some places and not quite so much at others, would be an improvement at least as far as appearance is concerned.

The new boxes in the post office are handsome and quite convenient, while both ladies and gentlemen receive their mail at the same window, this should have a refining influence in all who enter this place.

The appearance of the Daily News has improved during the last few days, and instead of a fourth, it is now a half sheet. Success to you Mr. Daily, a larger sheet is certainly the proper paper.

The new Bush Arcade when completed will be the handsomest business block in Central Pennsylvania, without any exception. It is a grand improvement on the old one, and an ornament to the town.

John Bartruff is over run with orders for his "fairy gig," and can't supply them half fast enough. He will increase his facilities and in the spring and summer will turn out at least a thousand of the beauties.

We have before us now an invitation from President Atherton to attend a musical to begin on Wednesday evening next, at the State College, for which we extend our thanks. The program will be printed in full in another column.

Prof. Wallace P. Dick instructor of Natural Science in the Lock Haven Normal School, will attend our county institute this season, and the teachers of Centre county will find in him an able instructor. The selection is certainly a good one.

James Bryson Esq. one of Phillipsburg's enterprising citizen and a member of the Centre county Bar died suddenly on Saturday night last of cramp. Mr. Bryson has many warm friends in Bellefonte who will feel sad to hear of his sudden and unexpected death.

The improvements in the neighborhood of the fair grounds are remarkable. The new furnace is nearly completed; sixteen new houses will be ready for tenants in about a month and everything about the little village of Coleville shows the magic hand of capitalism.

—Subscribe for the DEMOCRAT.

—A large fire occurred in Sunbury on Tuesday morning destroying a lumber yard and doing considerable damage in to her respects.

—A lime stone quarry has been opened by the Messrs. Collins, on the mountain side opposite their furnace. The lime stone will be sent down the hill on an inclined railroad and loaded into cars, and hauled to the furnace. There are no halts or breaks about the operations in that direction.

—J. C. Weaver and Clevan Dinges have united their fortunes under the name of Weaver & Dinges selecting as their place of business Crider's new building where they will issue policies to those who may desire, and transact all business connected with that profession.

—Read the new advertisement in this week's issue of the Lock Haven Normal School, containing a reduction in the tuition and now placing the advantages of this school within reach of all. For location and healthfulness this school is not surpassed by any other Normal school in the state.

—Our little cotemporary the Daily News has been enlarged and improved, and shows careful editorial and business management. There is one thing about brother Tuten's papers that some others would do well to observe, that is they are always clean and can be put into the hands of children with perfect safety.

—Col. S. T. Shugert the veteran Democrat, and former editor of this paper marched up to the polls on Tuesday and voted at the north window. This was his fifty-third annual ballot, and all of them straight. This is certainly a grand record, and we hope our venerable friend may cast many annual ballots for the grand party for which he has battled so long and faithfully.

—Michael Confer of Howard township was so unfortunate as to lose his barn and its entire contents by fire on Friday night last. The fire is supposed to have been the work of a tramp who was seen loitering in the neighborhood during the day. Mr. Confer lost 1400 bushels of corn 500 bushels of oats 100 bushels of buckwheat 40 bushels of rye 40 tons of hay 16 fattening hogs 4 head of cattle and a team of mules valued at four hundred dollars. The building was insured but to what extent we do not know.

—On Saturday evening last, as Mr. Samuel Parker was returning to his home, several villains whose intentions were to rob him demanded his money making several plunges at him with knives cutting through his two coats, vest and shirt grazing the skin but before their attack led to a crime they became frightened and took to their heels. These bold, bad men can not be identified from what we learn which is a great pity, as they should receive the full extent of the law, and doubtless would, could they be apprehended, at least it is a lonely place near the magazine.

—Rev. Madison C. Peters will deliver his celebrated lecture on "How to make things go" at the State College on Friday the 18th. We will have to hear the gentleman as one of the great troubles of our life has been "How to make things go" and if Mr. Peters can give us the desired information we are ready to exclaim in the language of the immortal Shakespeare "Letter go Gallogher." The following is from the Press and Times of Philadelphia. The whole seating capacity of the house was occupied, and the aisles and lobbies were choked with people. They even sat on the bellows of the organ, and swarmed on the gallery stairs.—Philadelphia Press. Every inch of standing room was occupied to hear the original, talented, eloquent and aggressive young preacher.—Philadelphia Times.

—The following exercises were held at the high school on Friday afternoon Nov. 4th: Song Chiming Bells, by Jennie Lukenbach, Fannie Twitmore, Prof. Johnstonbach, Harry Jenkins, Lee Woodcock, Chas. Noll: Declaration, by Robt. Woodring, Fate of Solymus; Essay by Ralph Mann, The Ostrich; Declaration by Robt. Rowe, Necessity of Government; Essay, by Paul Snyder, Rain; Declaration, by John Bower, Cumberland; Essay by Herbert Loeb, The loom cabinet; Declaration, Joseph Guggenheimer, Future of our Country; Essay, by Wm. Kelley, 20,000 leagues under the sea; Recitation by Carrie Gross, The pilots wife; Essay by Millie Smith, Railroad; A duet, by Jennie Lukenbach and Fannie Twitmore; Recitation by Blanch Johnson, The light keepers daughter; Declaration by Harry Tibbens, What saved the Union; Recitation by Bessie Dorworth, When the ship comes in; Essay by Clyde Blackford, Salt; Recitation by Jennie Strickland, Pat no flowers on papa's grave; Essay Chas. Moore, Death fact; Recitation by Jennie Howley, How to overcome evil; Essay by Lulu Stover, Napoleon; Solo by Fannie Twitmore.

THE ELECTION.

The following table shows the majorities of the various candidates:

Table with columns for candidate names and vote counts. Includes Supreme Judge (Thompson, Williams), State Treasurer (McGrann, Hart), Associate Judge (Rhoads, Groves), Sheriff (Cook, Noll), Treasurer (Goss, Kimport), Register (Rupp, Gramley), Recorder (Harter, Morrison), Commissioners (Henderson, Decker, Fiedler, Griest), Auditors (McKee, Krise, Gray, Gregg).

—In the "wee sma hours" of Wednesday morning our only Daniel Hastings in the exuberance of his spirits and the innocence of his guileless heart was discoursing on the great victory and expressed the fear that too much credit would be given to him for the result. "All I fear" said our big friend is that too much credit will be given to me. "Don't fear said Friday Malin they can't give you too much credit." Now what we want is that the proper credit be given to our only Daniel and no more. Daniel is modest and the maiden blush of political innocence is always lurking on his face. Dan did it with his little batchet.

—The next dramatic entertainment to be given in Bellefonte will be John Hazebritt in the Society Comedy Drama entitled "One Million Dollars." The play is in five acts and the characters are represented by the following popular artists: Misses Fannie Francis, Edith Hall Rose James, May Marshall, Katie Van Orden, Jennie E. Allen, Mr. E. F. Gilpin, Emil La Crox, Ivan Per' onct, A. D. Munson, Walter Altroch, G. W. Harrison General agent, Harry Chapman manager. Will appear next week look out for bills.

—The opera house was filled to overflowing on Tuesday evening last when "Our Jonathan" appeared in his highly entertaining comedy, the play was well put on, and appreciated by all who were so fortunate as to see it, we also wish to call attention to the excellent band and fine music furnished by them in their parade, Jonathan was in demand and succeeded in making friends of all the small boys and was a source of amusement to many of the older ones.

—Joshua Folk, policeman our only Josh forgot that his duty on election day was to look after the peace and quietness of our ancient borough and went into politics on a grand scale. Joshua was admonished that blue coats and brass buttons should be scarce about polling places and he subsided into a conservator of the peace. That's right Josh, let the boys run the politics, and you look after the peace.

—There is a class of voters in both parties in Bellefonte who stand around grubbing at this man or that on the ticket in order to get some fellow to "set em up," of course the number is small but they are well known characters about town, a peculiar racket that's getting nauseous. If young man is so devoid of principle as to demand money, whiskey or anything else for his vote, the best thing to do for him is to let him severly alone.

—Another sad accident occurred on Saturday last on the Lewisburg & Lemont railroad in which the conductor Mr. Michael DuPreyme on the morning freight lost his life, by being crushed between two cars, the conductor was a young man, and leaves a wife and little child to mourn his death.

—The bon fire was not much of a success, the Republicans were too much surprised at their success over democracy and will require some time to get up the required amount of energy.

—A regular statement of the votes cast on Tuesday last will be given in next week's issue.

—Can't you set 'em up will be an old song, and unsung from hence forth.

—Are you a subscriber to this paper my christian reader, and do you pay for it if you are?

Personal.

Prof. G. P. Bible of the Lock Haven Normal, accompanied by his wife spent Sunday in Bellefonte.

Mr. Reeder's little son, who was injured on Hollow eve, is rapidly recovering. The perpetrator of this deed should be severely dealt with.

Mr. James Brown, who for the past three years has been employed in the Glass Works, departed for Lock Haven. His place being filled by Harry Sayre.

Mr. Edward McCaley who represented L. L. Cragie & Co., manufacturers of Dobbins Electric Soap, gave us a call. We found him a very pleasant and entertaining young man and well suited to the work entrusted to him.

D. F. Fortney Esq. departs on the evening train for Pittsburg on legal business of great importance. Perhaps it would be a good idea for Feidler to send his Curtin township circular out there in advance of David.

SPRING MILLS.

Mr P. J. Aumun, who served apprenticeship in the Spring Mills Creamery, and this summer operated a creamery for the Barker Bros. in Ebensburg Cambria Co. leaves this week for Lancaster where he will churn the lactical fluid for the Lemont Creamery.

James H. Runkle, student at Lancaster came home to vote the straight Democratic ticket.

Extensive fires raged in Egg Hill for several days past. Just now the fire is close to the town.

Dr. Allison and Miss Annie Runkle and Duncan Runkle and Maggie Stover paid a visit on last Sunday to the scene of the Culvey murder. They report that the usual fee is still charged for admittance to the house.

By the time this reaches your readers, politics will be old chasnuts, but they will pardon me if I refer to the meeting held at Penn Hall on last Wednesday 2d inst. The old Academy was crowded with a very attentive audience, that listened with interest to the ringing speech of Judge Orvis, which was preceded by a timely and excellent introductory talk by Arron Williams. I have heard many of the best orators of the Republicans, and I feel that I can truthfully say that I do not believe they have his equal in the entire party. However, I never heard Jimmy Feidler speak. Perhaps he might excell him, in slang and vulgarity at least.

—On Saturday last we received an old relic in the shape of a newspaper, called the DEMOCRAT, printed in this town in 1846, containing Gov. Shunk's message to the Legislature, legal notice several marriages and advertisements of the principal business interests on town at that time, also a call for Democratic mass meeting in Harrisburg to nominate a candidate for canal commissioner. This document was found in an old house in Stormstown which was being repaired, several other papers were also found but time had effaced the print to such an extent that it was impossible to read it. Mr Ward of Pine Grove Mills is the owner of this interesting document.

—RENEWED HELP YOUTH.—Mrs. Phoebe Chesley, Peterson, Clay Co., Iowa, tells the following remarkable story, the truth of which is vouched for by the residents of the town. I am 73 years old, have been troubled with kidney complaint and lameness for many years; could not dress myself without help. Now I am free from all pain and soreness, and am able to do all my own housework. I owe my thanks to Electric Bitters for having renewed my youth, and removed completely all disease and pain. Try a bottle, 50c. and $1. at J. Zeller & Son's Drug Store.

—Rev. Steck has about completed arrangements and will begin his lecture tour on the 17 inst, which will be rather an extensive one embracing several of the western states and part of Pennsylvania, we predict for him a great success, as Mr. Steck possesses the qualities of an orator, he will not fail.

—The candles are turned on early in the evening now as it begins to grow dark soon after four o'clock.

—One of our callers to day was Thomas Fink of Julian who came to chat a few minutes. Call again Thomas.

—Mr. Rupp feels rather lonesome in the democratic fold, but John is a good fellow and even republicans will say nice things about him after while.

—It was a self evident fact that some one must get left, well some one did which the taxpayers of Centre county will find and to their sorrow, just paste this in your hat boys.

—This was not a Coon hunt but a republican still hunt and judging by their capers they knew where to find the "Still."

Trial List for Second Week

The trial list for the first week of court has been published. The second week begins on Monday, December 5, the following causes having been assigned for trial:

Alpheus A Hall an' S Miller McCormick, executors of Samuel Hall, deceased, vs John W Cooke, ejectment. Also one for trespass. Blair and Orvis, Bower & Orvis for plaintiff; Love, for defense.

Charles Witmer vs The Bellefonte and Buffalo Run Railroad Company. Linn for plaintiff; Blanchard for defense.

Phillip Keller vs Mary, P Over, David A Over, Jane E Ingham, and others. Orvis, Bower & Orvis for plaintiff; Beaver & Gephart for defense.

Matthew R Adams vs Robert Valentine and others trading as Valentine & Co. Orvis for plaintiff.

John McCloskey and Mathias W McCloskey, vs D B. Kunes and Joseph B Poorman, ejectment. Orvis, Bower & Orvis for plaintiff; Hastings & Reeder and Blair for defense.

The Geiser Manufacturing Company vs Thomas J. Dunkle, trespass. Hastings & Reeder for plaintiff; Fortney for defense.

S Morris Wain and Howard Crow, administrators of T Conrow, dec'd, vs Benjamin Rich, debt. Beaver & Gephart for plaintiff; Hastings and Reeder for defense.

E H Long and D S Kauffman, trading as D S Kauffman & Co vs The Farmer's Mutual Fire Insurance Company of Centre county. Hastings & Reeder for plaintiff; Orvis, Bower & Orvis for defense.

Samuel F Foster, use of Rhoda G Taylor vs John F. Potter, Orvis Bower & Orvis for Plaintiff; Fortney for defense.

Samuel F Foster use of Mary Eby, administratrix vs John F Potter, Orvis, Bower & Orvis for plaintiff; Fortney for defense.

James Pierpoint vs James S Cross et al. Orvis, Bower & Orvis for plaintiff; Beaver, Gephart & Dale and Love for defense.

George W Kelley vs Abraham Hicks, Love for plaintiff; Fortney for defense.

William H. Jones vs Wm. McClure Hammond, executor of John Brett, Clement Dale for plaintiff; Fortney for defense.

The Borough of Milesburg vs J Miles Green, Hastings & Reeder for plaintiff; D S Keller for defense.

H M Confer vs Conrad Long, Orvis, Bower & Orvis for plaintiff; Hastings & Reeder for defense.

Michael Grove vs The Bellefonte Nitany and Lemont Railroad Company. Orvis, Bower & Orvis for plaintiff; E M Blanchard for defense.

Brockerhoff, as trustees, vs Jacob Reamer, Beaver & Gephart for plaintiff; Spangler & Hewes for defense.

James O Waddle vs John W McGarvey, Linn for plaintiff; Orvis, Bower & Orvis for defense.

John Mills Hale, trustee, vs W W Hale Beaver & Gephart for plaintiff; Hastings and Reeder for defense.

The Singer Manufacturing Company vs Wm H Every, D S Keller for plaintiff; Spangler and Hewes for defense.

Jacob Leathers vs Mary Stine and C B Horning, adm's. Orvis, Bower and Orvis for plaintiff; Beaver G Gephart for defense.

Daniel P Rishel vs John S Fisher, Spangler and Hewes for plaintiff; Beaver, Gephart and Dale for defense.

O H Braisington use of Young Brothers vs E J Pruner and D S Keller, administrators. Spangler and Hewes for plaintiff; Keller for defense.

Daniel Gaiman vs W H Williams, Orvis, Bower and Orvis for plaintiff; Hastings and Reeder for defense.

Bunnell and Aikens vs Ellis L Orvis Spangler & Hewes for plaintiff; Orvis, Bower and Orvis for defense.

The Safe Deposit Company of Pittsburg vs Ephraim Lewis and others. Orvis, Bower and Orvis for plaintiff; Beaver Gephart and Dale for defense.

George R Boak vs William Watson, Orvis, Bower and Orvis for plaintiff, Hewes and Spangler for defense.

Rudolph Mulholland use of George R Boak vs William Watson, Orvis, Bower and Orvis for plaintiff; Spangler and Hewes for defense.

William Grauer vs George Davis, Beaver, Gephart and Dale for plaintiff; Fortney for defense.

W E Zierden vs J A McOmber, Hastings and Reeder for plaintiff; Crosby, Spangler and Hewes for defense.

C B Hess vs The Union County Mutual Stock Insurance Company, Spangler and Hewes for plaintiff; G A Gayer and J C Harper for defense.

Susan Emerick vs Mary C Emerick, Orvis, Bower and Orvis for plaintiff; Fortney for defense.

—Rumor hath it that one of our young legal light will soon slip his neck into the hymeneal halter, now boy's don't all protest at the same time that it "ain't me."

—The Dude band and Brother Jonathan created considerable merriment on Tuesday, the band is really a very fine organization.

BOALSBURG ITEMS.

The Northern Conference of the synod of Central Pennsylvania convened at Pine Grove Mills, Centre county, Pa. on the 1st of November. Rev. C. T. Steck of Bellefonte preached the opening sermon from the XLII Psalm, and the 1st verse, to an attentive audience. The devotional exercises of Wednesday morning were conducted by Rev. A. K. Felton after which the conference was opened by prayer and the business of the convention taken up. This part of the programme was followed by the discussion of the 21st article of the Augsburg Confession. Rev. S. E. Furst opened the subject. He was succeeded by several speeches from the brethren. Valuable and practical remarks were made on this article by the speakers. After the conference business in the afternoon the topic, "How can we best interest all our women in mission work?" was taken up for discussion. Rev. I. Brubaker was the first speaker, he was followed by others. The question received due consideration and many excellent plans were suggested. All present were highly gratified with the remarks. Rev. W. E. Fischer delivered the evening sermon, the subject being "Missions to the edification of all." The devotional exercises on Thursday morning were conducted by brother Duck, after which the session of conference was opened with prayer by C. T. Steck. The business part being concluded the topic "The duty of church council to the church," was considered. Rev. W. H. Diven opening the discussion. Several of the brethren participated bringing most useful information to the surface, this subject was followed by the topic "The duty of all the members to the church" Rev. J. A. Ernest being called away his place was filled by Rev. W. E. Fischer who read Rev. Earnests essay on the subject the last topic on the programme the relation existing between church and Sunday school was next in order. Rev. M. L. Deitzler was the first one on the discussion. Other edifying thoughts were dropped by the participants. The conference was closed with a childrens meeting. This conference was one long to be remembered by all who attended its sessions. The discussions were especially interesting, the house of God in which the conference met, is a fine building remodeled in good style, the people of Pine Grove Mills and vicinity are exceedingly hospitable and entertaining. All felt that it was good to be there.

—On Saturday last we received an old relic in the shape of a newspaper, called the DEMOCRAT, printed in this town in 1846, containing Gov. Shunk's message to the Legislature, legal notice several marriages and advertisements of the principal business interests on town at that time, also a call for Democratic mass meeting in Harrisburg to nominate a candidate for canal commissioner. This document was found in an old house in Stormstown which was being repaired, several other papers were also found but time had effaced the print to such an extent that it was impossible to read it. Mr Ward of Pine Grove Mills is the owner of this interesting document.

—RENEWED HELP YOUTH.—Mrs. Phoebe Chesley, Peterson, Clay Co., Iowa, tells the following remarkable story, the truth of which is vouched for by the residents of the town. I am 73 years old, have been troubled with kidney complaint and lameness for many years; could not dress myself without help. Now I am free from all pain and soreness, and am able to do all my own housework. I owe my thanks to Electric Bitters for having renewed my youth, and removed completely all disease and pain. Try a bottle, 50c. and $1. at J. Zeller & Son's Drug Store.

—Rev. Steck has about completed arrangements and will begin his lecture tour on the 17 inst, which will be rather an extensive one embracing several of the western states and part of Pennsylvania, we predict for him a great success, as Mr. Steck possesses the qualities of an orator, he will not fail.

—The candles are turned on early in the evening now as it begins to grow dark soon after four o'clock.

—One of our callers to day was Thomas Fink of Julian who came to chat a few minutes. Call again Thomas.

—Mr. Rupp feels rather lonesome in the democratic fold, but John is a good fellow and even republicans will say nice things about him after while.

—It was a self evident fact that some one must get left, well some one did which the taxpayers of Centre county will find and to their sorrow, just paste this in your hat boys.

—This was not a Coon hunt but a republican still hunt and judging by their capers they knew where to find the "Still."

—The Dude band and Brother Jonathan created considerable merriment on Tuesday, the band is really a very fine organization.

—Rumor hath it that one of our young legal light will soon slip his neck into the hymeneal halter, now boy's don't all protest at the same time that it "ain't me."

—The Dude band and Brother Jonathan created considerable merriment on Tuesday, the band is really a very fine organization.

—Rumor hath it that one of our young legal light will soon slip his neck into the hymeneal halter, now boy's don't all protest at the same time that it "ain't me."

—The Dude band and Brother Jonathan created considerable merriment on Tuesday, the band is really a very fine organization.

—Rumor hath it that one of our young legal light will soon slip his neck into the hymeneal halter, now boy's don't all protest at the same time that it "ain't me."

—The Dude band and Brother Jonathan created considerable merriment on Tuesday, the band is really a very fine organization.

—Rumor hath it that one of our young legal light will soon slip his neck into the hymeneal halter, now boy's don't all protest at the same time that it "ain't me."

—The Dude band and Brother Jonathan created considerable merriment on Tuesday, the band is really a very fine organization.

—Rumor hath it that one of our young legal light will soon slip his neck into the hymeneal halter, now boy's don't all protest at the same time that it "ain't me."

—The Dude band and Brother Jonathan created considerable merriment on Tuesday, the band is really a very fine organization.

—Rumor hath it that one of our young legal light will soon slip his neck into the hymeneal halter, now boy's don't all protest at the same time that it "ain't me."

—The Dude band and Brother Jonathan created considerable merriment on Tuesday, the band is really a very fine organization.

—Rumor hath it that one of our young legal light will soon slip his neck into the hymeneal halter, now boy's don't all protest at the same time that it "ain't me."

—The Dude band and Brother Jonathan created considerable merriment on Tuesday, the band is really a very fine organization.

—Rumor hath it that one of our young legal light will soon slip his neck into the hymeneal halter, now boy's don't all protest at the same time that it "ain't me."

—The Dude band and Brother Jonathan created considerable merriment on Tuesday, the band is really a very fine organization.

—Rumor hath it that one of our young legal light will soon slip his neck into the hymeneal halter, now boy's don't all protest at the same time that it "ain't me."

—The Dude band and Brother Jonathan created considerable merriment on Tuesday, the band is really a very fine organization.

—Rumor hath it that one of our young legal light will soon slip his neck into the hymeneal halter, now boy's don't all protest at the same time that it "ain't me."

—The Dude band and Brother Jonathan created considerable merriment on Tuesday, the band is really a very fine organization.

—Rumor hath it that one of our young legal light will soon slip his neck into the hymeneal halter, now boy's don't all protest at the same time that it "ain't me."

—The Dude band and Brother Jonathan created considerable merriment on Tuesday, the band is really a very fine organization.

—Rumor hath it that one of our young legal light will soon slip his neck into the hymeneal halter, now boy's don't all protest at the same time that it "ain't me."

—The Dude band and Brother Jonathan created considerable merriment on Tuesday, the band is really a very fine organization.

—Rumor hath it that one of our young legal light will soon slip his neck into the hymeneal halter, now boy's don't all protest at the same time that it "ain't me."

—The Dude band and Brother Jonathan created considerable merriment on Tuesday, the band is really a very fine organization.

—Rumor hath it that one of our young legal light will soon slip his neck into the hymeneal halter, now boy's don't all protest at the same time that it "ain't me."

—The Dude band and Brother Jonathan created considerable merriment on Tuesday, the band is really a very fine organization.