cellent tonic endows them with adthe discharging function imposed upon-them by nature. Moreover, as they are the channel for the escape of certain impurities from the blood, increases their usefulness by strengthening and healthfully stimulating them. In cer-tain morbid conditions of these import-ant organs, they fall into a sluggish state, which is the usual percursor of state, which is the usual percursor of disease. What then can be the greater service than a medicine which impels them to greater activity when slothful? No maladies are more perilous than hese which affect the kidneys, and a medicine which averts the peril should be highly esteemed.
