

Lamar and Sparks.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 13—Commissioner Sparks's friends say that he will not act upon the intimation he has received that the President would like to appoint his successor until his resignation shall have been formally demanded. His feelings may be to much for him, however, and he may make a public statement to the press to-morrow.

In the technical difference between Secretary Lamar and Commissioner Sparks involved in the recent correspondence the latter seems to have the popular side. Secretary Lamar maintains that a liberal construction should be given to the laws entitling land grant railroads to indemnity lands to make up deficiencies in the grant, and Commissioner Sparks insists on a strict construction. This is but one of the long series of differences between them, however, as the criticisms made upon the Secretary by the Commissioner in this case have been preceded by similar comments in other cases. It had come to be just as Secretary Lamar said in his letter to Sparks, that either the Secretary or the Commissioner would have to go. It did not take the President long to choose. Ex-Representative Cobb, of Indiana, Chairman of the Committee on Public Lands in the last Congress, and manager of most of the land grant forfeiture bills, is the latest man mentioned for the Commission of the General Land Office. Whoever shall succeed Sparks will be in harmony with the Secretary of the Interior.

Aiding The Miners.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 14. Friends of the striking miners of the Lehigh coal fields Sunday decided to employ the boycott as a weapon against the leading corporations and firms of the Lehigh region whom they regard as the most dangerous adversaries in the present struggle.

While the output of coal shipped by the Lehigh operators has heretofore been made the object of the boycott, the measure will from now on be directed against the operators themselves and their business interests.

Sunday afternoon a secret meeting of leaders in railroad employes' organizations was held down town, and at this meeting the foregoing plan of action was adopted. There were thirty-five persons present, representatives of Pennsylvania Railroad Employes' District Assembly 212; Reading railroad employes' convention and employes of the Lehigh Valley railroad, with a number of representative miners. The situation of the strike was discussed in detail and numerous schemes were advanced that were calculated to aid the striking miners. The determination to boycott the Lehigh operators, however, was the feature of the meeting, and the discussion that led to it occupied the greater part of their time.

Rather than allow their organization to be crushed, therefore, it was determined by the leaders in the conference to institute a boycott on the Lehigh Coal and Navigation company the Lehigh Valley railroad, A. Pardee & Sons and Eckley B. Cove & Co.

In this step the Knights believe they will be aided by the leading business men of the entire Lehigh region, and as it is proposed that immediate steps be taken to enforce the boycott in Mahony City, Shenandoah, Pottsville, Centralia, Ashland and in other towns along the line of the Lehigh Valley road. The business men and small merchants are already organized in these and other towns for the purpose of contributing moral and financial aid to the support of the miners, and these business men will be asked to refuse to patronize the highways or products of the interdicted roads and corporations. And if merchants, for instance should patronize the Lehigh Valley road in the transportation of their goods the Knights in various towns will refuse to deal with them. As a consequence the merchants and business men will be expected to withdraw their traffic from the Lehigh Valley road. The boycott will be instituted, it is said, within the coming week.

Extensive arrangements have been made for the benefit entertainment which will be given in the Academy of Music on Nov. 26 in aid of the Lehigh miners. Special trains will bring delegations of Knights from all over the Reading railroad, and at the close of the performance, which will be Legardere; or The Huchback of Paris, a procession will be formed of the visiting Knights, who will be escorted to the railroad station by several bands of music.

The Crown Prince.

BERLIN, Nov. 15.—The crown prince's complaint may last many years. Dr. Mackenzie is about to leave San Remo, but will return in a fortnight provided no totally different decisions are made in the meantime. The crown prince's general health is excellent. He has a good appetite and sleeps well.

The Cologne Gazette says that the crown prince proposes to take a long walk. Dr. Krouse, it says, will remain for the present at San Remo, and Dr. Mackenzie will leave and return about the middle of December. The crown prince is greatly encouraged and is confident that he will live for many years.

The Post says that Dr. Schroeter speaks in warm praise of the composure maintained by the prince under such trying condition.

The latest news from San Remo is that the patient's condition has improved and that the swelling in the larynx is subsiding. The prince takes his meals alone in order to avoid talking.

Saturday's Imperial and Royal Gazette publishes the following:

"According to news from San Remo there is, unhappily, no longer any doubt that the malady of his imperial and royal highness the crown prince has in relity the nature of carcinoma. Trustworthy information as to further treatment, will only be possible after Dr. Moritz Schmidt, who was sent to San Remo by the command of the kaiser, shall have made his verbal report here.

Riot in London

LONDON, Nov. 13.—Four thousand policemen took possession of Trafalgar this morning and dispersed each body of Socialists, Radicals, or Irishmen as they appeared. It is estimated that at one time in the vicinity of the square the crowd numbered one hundred thousand. There were several fierce fights. About two hundred citizens and forty policemen were injured. Troops were called out but made no charge, as at dusk the people dispersed of their own accord.

Seventy persons have been treated at the hospitals. It is not thought any of the injuries are serious.

A Coal Breaker Burned up.

HAZLETON, Pa., Nov. 15.—The coal breaker of George H. Myers & Co., at Yorktown, four miles from here, has been totally destroyed by fire. It was one of the largest breakers in the region and was just undergoing extensive repairs. It had been idle since the present strike began, and there had been no fires at all about the building since that time, nine weeks ago, nor in the boiler house adjoining. The fire was the work of an incendiary. The loss is $30,000; partially covered by insurance.

DRUNKENNESS OR THE LIQUOR HABIT POSITIVELY CURED BY ADMINISTERING DR. HAINES' GOLDEN SPECIFIC.—It can be given in a cup of coffee or tea without the knowledge of the person taking it; is absolutely harmless and will effect a permanent and speedy cure, whether the patient is a moderate drinker or an alcoholic wreck. Thousands of drunkards have been made temperate men who have taken Golden Specific in their coffee without their knowledge, and to-day believe they quit drinking of their own free will. IT NEVER FAILS. The system once impregnated with the Specific it becomes an utter impossibility for the liquor appetite to exist. For all particulars, address GOLDEN SPECIFIC CO., 185 Race st., Cincinnati, O.

NEW YORK, Nov. 14.—Detectives took stenographic reports of John Most's speech to the Anarchists last night and it was to-day submitted by Inspector Byrnes to District Attorney Martino with a view to indicting him. Most's friends advise him to flee.

What Carlisle Will Do

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14.—It is understood that Speaker Carlisle will be here in a day or two to confer with the President and Secretary Fairchild in regard to the revenue measures to be brought forward this winter. He is to be elected speaker of the House without opposition on the Democratic side, and it is rumored that he will be willing as soon as he has taken the oath of office to call Honorable W. D. Kelley of Pennsylvania, to the chair and request him to name the committee on elections' before which Thobe's contest for Carlisle's seat will come up.
