Yes sir, said Rollo, meekly. And he had to punish you for it, continued his father.

Yes, sir, replied Rollo, he whipped me in the presence of the entire school but I was vindicated by the pupils.

How was that ? inquired the father. I should be pleased to hear of any thing to your credit in the disgrace of

Well, sir, said Rollo, proudly, be said, just as he told you, that it was an india-rubber shoe, but all the boys said it smelled a great deal more like burning leather than india-rubber.

Come to my arms, my boy, said Rollo's father, who had just been lef by eight hundred majority himself. You have received a complete vindication at the hands of your peers. -

A Gentle Stim ulus

Is imparted to the kidneys and blad-Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which is most useful in overcoming torpidity of these organs. Besides in-using more activity into them, this excellent tonic endows them with additional vigor, and enables them the better to undergo the wear and tear of the discharging function imposed upon them by nature. Moreover, as they are the channel for the escape of certain impurities from the blood, increases their usefulness by strengthening and healthfully stimulating them. In cer-tain morbid conditions of these important organs, they fall into a sluggish state, which is the usual percursor of disease. What then can be the greater service than a medicine which impels them to greater activity when slothful? No maladies are more perilous than these which affect the kidneys, and a medicine which averts the peril should be highly esteemed.
