Paper and its manufactures are generally reduced carriages 30 per cent; watches, 25 per cent.

The administrative provisions constitute the most voluminous part of the bill, and embrace the provisions compiled by Mr. Hewitt in the Forty-ninth congress and incorporated in the Morrison tariff bill.

Mr. Hewitt's provisions abolishing the office of merchant appraiser and providing new methods of reappraisal are omitted. The entire system of damage allowance on imported goods injured during transportation is abolished. The period for which imported merchandise can be kept in bonded warehouses is extended from one to three years. The duties on boxes cartons and other inside covering of merchandise which pass into the hands of consumers are revived. The duties on packing charges are revived. What is known as the similitude clause of the tariff is re-enacted with such wording as to make clear when unenumerated articles can be classified as assimilating to enumerated articles. Import declaration are substituted for importers' oaths in all customs matters, and importers are authorized to make declarations before notaries instead of at the custom house.

The recommendations made as to protests, appeals and suits by Secretary Manning in a special report to congress, two years ago, are all adopted. The penalties are made more stringent for bribery or feign inspection of baggage. The government is authorized to bring suit for the value of merchandise fraudulently imported, after such merchandise has passed into the hands of the importer.

The other provisions are all of a minor character.

The bill as submitted contains no provisions as to internal revenue, it being understood that the Democratic members are prepared to submit an internal revenue bill at an early day.

We are informed that one evening last week a lady living down town caught her husband in flagrante delicto with a rather prepossessing servant girl. A "high old time" was the consequence. Tears, indignation, and the dickens to pay, on one side; shame, prayers and protestations, on the other, were the leading incidents for the first half hour. Then the storm abated. The servant was discharged, the husband put on probation, and a reconciliation effected. If a circle of jolly fellows miss one of their number for a time they may know that he is staying at home rocking the cradle.—Tyronc Times.

One man took six bottles, and was cured of rheumatism of ten years' standing. Abraham Hare, Druggist, Bellefonte, Ohio, affirms: The best selling medicine I have ever handled in my 20 years experience, is Electric Bitters. Thousands of others have attested their testimony, so that the verdict is unanimous that Electric Bitters do cure all diseases of the Liver, Kidneys or blood. —A WOMAN'S DISCOVERY.—Another wonderful discovery has been made and that too by a lady in this county. Disease fastened its clutches upon her and for seven she withstood its severest tests, but her vital organs were undermined and death seemed imminent. Four three months she coughed incessantly and could not sleep. She bought of us a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption and it was so much relieved on taking first dose that she slept all night and with one bottle she was miraculously cured. Her name is Mrs. Luther Lutz. Thus write W. C. Hamrick & Co., of Shelby, N. C.—Get a free trial bottle at J. Zeller & Son's drug store.

BRADFORD, Pa., March 6.—At about 11 o'clock this morning a man named Kimball entered the Bradford National bank with a revolver in his hand and partially masked, midway between the paying teller's and discount clerk's desk. He nimbly jumped over the high glass partition and made a grab for the money on the cashier's desk. The suddenness of the affair paralyzed the clerks, but Cashier Tomlinson rushed from his private office and seized the robber, as he did so he received a ball from the 38-calibre in the hands of the villain over his left hip, going clear through him and coming out over the right.

He dropped and the robber escaped at the front door and leisurely proceeded down a side street. A crowd soon followed him, and A. L. Belich, a butcher, who followed too close, received a wound in the abdomen which may prove fatal. The robber then pursued his way and at a short distance put the revolver to his head and shot himself. He died in a short time. Mr. Tomlinson is unconscious and can't live.

The robber's name is George A. Kimball. He is about 27 years old and was an oil pumper and a gambler. He was born and raised in Pleasantville. He has a sister married to a Mr. Foggin, a farmer and very heavy operator in Shamburg district. Kimball was a real estate agent in Garden City, Kansas, where his wife died, leaving two girls.
