Milroy, Carroll; lieutenant Gov. S. F. White, Marion; secretary of state, A. C. Geyer, St. Joseph; auditor, John P. Hanegan, Tippecanoe; treasurer, B. F. Doll, Bartholmew; clerk of supreme court, J. C. Smith, White; and superintendent of public instruction, A. J. Johnson, Vermillion. There were about two hundred and fifty delegates in attendance, representing about one-third of the counties in the state.

A Wreck on the Reading.

READING, March 11.—A wreck took place on the Reading railroad near Royersford last night. A freight train ran into a truck which had become detached from a coal car of a train which had previously passed up the road. The engine was thrown off its rails, and a large number of cars were derailed and overturned. The train was about 100 yards long, and the wreck was a terrible one. The engine was killed, and the train was completely wrecked. The cause of the accident was the engine striking the truck, which had become detached from the coal car.

ITTSBURG, Pa., March 9.

While en route on the morning train from Dan-ville, Pa., to this city, Kelly was struck by a body which will probably recover.

SALE REGISTER.

PUBLIC SALE—On Friday, March 16th 1888, on Boalsburg pike, (Valentine farm) residence of Thomas Frazier, Horses, Cattle, Hogs and all Farming Implements.

About Prominent People.

Robert Bonner is an Irishman, Joseph Pulitzer is a Hungarian, and Whiteaw Reid is a native of the Buckeye state.

Dr. John Hall, the "most fashionable minister in New York, is a Scotch-Irishman, but has no trace of the Scotch accent.

Mrs. Cleveland is said to have such a good memory for faces that she invariably detects people who try to get presented to her twice on the same evening.

Justice Miller, of the Supreme court of the United States, has a fine house on Massachusetts avenue, in Washington, where he holds most enjoyable evening receptions.

Charles H. Litchman, general secretary of the Knights of Labor, is a man of 39 years of age, has an intellectual cast of countenance, a high forehead, a dark piercing eye, set off with eye glasses, and dresses modestly in black Prince Albert and suit to match.

SAN REMO, March 8.—Bulletins concerning the condition of the crown prince will henceforth be issued only on alternate days. The crown prince passed a good day. He is much distressed over the news from Berlin.

The Sullivan-Mitchell Fight.

CRANTILLY, March 11.—The fight between Sullivan and Mitchell ended in a draw. They fought thirty-nine rounds lasting three hours and eleven minutes. Mitchell improved at the finish, but the referee declared a draw.

The result was a complete surprise to every one, especially to Mitchell. Pony Moore, Mitchell's father-in-law, was wild with delight when the draw was declared. He threw his arms around Mitchell's neck and kissed him. Mitchell was all over smiles despite bungled eyes and swollen temples. He is a great man forever, and deserves the greatest credit. His triumph is undeniable, and he showed abundant pluck. It is impossible to understand how Sullivan can recover from the injury to his reputation. His defeat is due above all to his folly in altering his style of fighting, replacing with caution and diplomacy the daring slugging which made him always victor in a few rounds.

He began by being cautious, playing thus into Mitchell's hands, and kept it up until a driving rain and exposure had set him trembling and robbed him of the vitality necessary to send his sledge-hammer like blows. Twice during the fight he could certainly have won on his old tactics by pressing his man, but he did not do so, fearing apparently to lay himself open and unwilling to take any risks. No greater change could be imagined. It was a bull imitating a fox. Toward the end of the fight Sullivan's friends saw the mistake and urged him to go in and finish; but it was then too late, for Sullivan no longer had energy in him.

MIFFLINTOWN, Pa., March 13.

On Sunday morning at 2 o'clock George Mitchell, of Milford township, this county, was killed by the cars at the station crossing in Paterson. The facts are that he and his brother had been to see two young ladies and met at the station to go home, about a mile and a half from Paterson, and to do this in as short time as possible they sought to get on the cabin of a passing east bound freight train. As they stood waiting for it to reach them the western express came thundering along and struck George, knocking him under the freight train by which he was cut in twain. The brother was so close to the express that the engine struck his coat and for the moment dazed him. When he straightened up he missed his brother but soon saw his feet sticking from under the passing train. Thinking to save his life or keep him from mutilation he caught the feet and drew only the lower half from beneath the train. He was horribly cut up. Another added to the long list of warnings, but it will not be heeded.

LANCASTER, March 13.

The express on the Pennsylvania railroad due here at 6:30 yesterday morning arrived here after noon-to-day, having been over thirty hours on the road. Last night was spent at Leamon Place. Four engines were unable to penetrate the snow drifts which in many places were fifteen to twenty feet deep and 100 yards long. The country roads in this county are all impassable, fields being used exclusively for what little travel there is. Travel has been suspended on Quarryville railroad.

Manganese Ore.

THE DISCOVERY OF VALUABLE DEPOSITS IN HUNTINGTON COUNTY.

HUNTINGTON, Pa., March 9.—Considerable interest is being manifested by the resident farmers and others in the recent discovery of valuable deposits of manganese iron ore, found on what is known as the Carother's tract of land in Hill valley, in the lower end of this county. The discovery was made about six months ago by Jacob Zillius, a German mineralogist of this place, who has acquired considerable distinction in his avocation. At the time of his discovery Mr. Zillius set about obtaining leases from the owners of the property with the view of developing the resources of the land himself, but, finding later that the enterprise would require more capital than he could conveniently subscribe, he finally determined to solicit assistance, and secured the aid of Harry A. Coyle, of Logan, and F. B. McCabe, of Lewis town. The deposit is certainly a very valuable one inasmuch as $10,000 cash was offered for the lease, but the Huntington and Mifflin county parties preferred rather to uncover the hidden wealth of their find themselves.

To the Tribune correspondent today Mr. Zillius said that three very valuable veins of the ore have already been found on the tract. The principal one lies about thirty feet from the surface, is remarkably uniform in all particulars and measures twelve feet in diameter. The next largest is eleven feet in diameter, also of surprising uniformity and situated at a less depth from the surface. The third vein is located within a distance of seven miles from the others, but this at present is controlled solely by Mr. Zillius. This is probably the most valuable deposit, though in fact the smallest in extent, as the diameter of this vein of ore is but five feet. This is said by Mr. Zillius to consist wholly of pure manganese and to bear a remarkably striking resemblance to the famous manganese ore found in the Lake Superior region, and which enters largely in the composition and manufacture of Bessemer steel.

Heretofore the producers of this important article have been dependent on the supply of imported manganese from England and the island of Cuba, but if the anticipations of the promoters of this local enterprise shall be realized so far as the supply of their product is concerned, there will be no difficulty hereafter in procuring in this country a suitable substitute for the imported ores required in the manufacture of Bessemer steel. It is expected that when the new and improved machinery is added the total output of the mines will exceed two hundred tons of ore per day. It is stated by Mr. Zillius that the finer tools required for the work as well as some of the machinery, is now being manufactured from the refined ore taken from the mines of the company. Several of the leading iron and steel works, including those of Johnstown Pittsburgh and other manufacturing points, have tested the ore and have found it to be of a very superior character, and capably adapted to the manufacture of the highest quality of iron and steel.

WASHINGTON, March 9.—The postmaster general has appointed the following named fourth-class postmasters: D. M. Clemson, Benore, Pa.; F. M. Stevenson, Clarion, Pa.; John M. Vanhorn, Mench, Pa.; C. S. Hendershot, Meyersburg, Pa.

CHICAGO, March 9.—Miss Josie McCullen committed suicide this morning in Mrs. Cobb's manicure establishment. The developments at the inquest were of a sensational character. The suicide was in pursuance with an agreement made with William L. Harnett, who shot himself in a bath tub yesterday. The suicides were to take place simultaneously at 7 o'clock last evening. While Miss McCullen was engaged on a lady's hand about that hour she received a note from Harnett, beginning: "My own, own darling," and telling her of his suicide. She told a neighbor in the same business, Mrs. Ruperts, the whole situation, but was prevailed upon to promise her that she would do nothing wrong, and that she "would be in that room in the morning." Harnett was a married man and the woman was once a domestic in his family.

LONDON, March 8.

Charlie Mitchell, accompanied by Oney Moore, Barnett, Holok, and fourteen others, left London at 11 o'clock this morning for France, where it is supposed the fight between Mitchell and Sullivan and will take place. Mitchell said before leaving that he did not know whether he would win, but he was quite sure he would be able to show that Sullivan was not the fistic wonder that Americans thought. Jem Smith missed the train and will follow the party on a later one. It is a significant fact that two detectives who had been following Sullivan left Boulogne yesterday evening for the place where the two fighters and their friends are expected to meet.
