AMUSING MATRIMONIAL MIXTURE.

Sued and Shot by His Wife and Quarreled Over by Two Paramours.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 17.—Mrs. Harifa Faling shot her husband, C. D. Faling, and his paramour, Mrs. Ida Carroll. Faling has a dangerous wound in the thigh, while Mrs. Carroll received a scalp wound. The Falings formerly lived happily together at Portland, Ore., until the husband became infatuated with Mrs. Cowley, a telegraph operator. His wife remonstrated with him. He gave her $6,500, and she signed an agreement to demand nothing more from him and not to bring a divorce suit against him. Faling then came here with Mrs. Cowley and speculated in mining stocks, making $19,000. A few months ago Mrs. Cowley went east, and her death was shortly after reported. Then Faling began to live with Mrs. Carroll, a grass widow. His wife came here and sued him for maintenance of their child. He retorted by bringing suit for divorce and both suits are now pending. While Mrs. Carroll was nursing Faling at the hospital Mrs. Cowley, supposed to be dead, suddenly appeared and insisted on sharing the nursing.

SABBATH OBSERVANCE DISCUSSED.

Chicago Ministers Attend a Meeting of the Evangelical Alliance.

CHICAGO, April 17.—All the ministerial meetings which are usually held on Monday morning were adjourned in order that the divines might attend the conference at Farwell hall under the auspices of the Evangelical alliance for the purpose of considering the Sabbath question. When Dr. Goodwin called the conference to order at 11 o'clock the hall was crowded, a large number of prominent business men being among the auditors. Addresses were delivered by Rev. Drs. Lorimer, Ridgway, Tracy and others, deprecating the lack of Sunday observance as manifested in the opening of saloons, shops and theatres, museums and other places, and it was decided to begin a vigorous agitation looking to the enactment of municipal or state laws compelling a strict observance of the day.

Twice Knocked Out.

BROOKLYN, April 17.—A skin tight glove fight took place on a schooner anchored in New York bay, between Paddy Smith, the well known light weight of this city, and Frank Burke, of Buffalo, for a purse of $200. Burke had the advantage in height and weight, weighing 148 pounds to Smith's 138. The fighting was vicious. In the fourth round Smith knocked Burke out for twenty-one seconds, but did not claim the fight. He knocked him out again in the seventh round, and claimed the money, which was given to him. Burke received terrible punishment.

Coincidence in Suicide.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., April 17.—Delia Keenan, aged 16, and Amer Hurley, both living on James street within two blocks of each other, took carbolic acid and died a few hours later. The cause of Hurley's act was matrimonial troubles, while the motive of the girl has not yet been brought to light.

The Pitcher Was "Broke."

INDIANAPOLIS, April 17.—Larry McKeon, the baseball pitcher, who played with the Kansas City club last year, was arrested here on the charge of having taken $40 from Horace Williams Saturday night, while the two were out on a spree. McKeon is now in jail.

Unprovoked Double Murder.

DENVER, April 17.—As John C. Morrison and E. B. McConnell, young men from Iowa, were driving past old man Baker's shanty to locate a claim, Baker, prompted by his wife, poured a load of buckshot into the men. Both will die.

Stanford Loses a $10,000 Horse.

WASHINGTON, April 17.—Senator Stanford has lost one of his $20,000 pair of carriage horses. They were said to be the finest pair of coachers in this country, and perhaps in the world, being the very pick of the senator's stable.

Arrest of an Embezzler.

CHICAGO, April 17.—Otto Austenatt, late cashier of the passenger and freight department of the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe railway at Nickerson, Kan., who embezzled funds and fled March 2, has been arrested at Bremen, Ills.
