The owner of the best outfit on the Erie Canal is said to be a woman, an elderly woman, too, indeed she is a grandmother of seventy years, but she can give the poky male skippers points in business and navigation. She is Mrs. A. M. Hamilton, owner of the steamers Captains DePuy and Charles Hamilton and their four consorts, worth the tidy sum of $26,000, and she looks after their running herself. She is commodore, with her two sons captains of the fleet.
