ARREST OF AN AUSTRIAN OFFICER.—An Austrian officer, bearing the Russian title of Count, was arrested in Russian Poland recently on the suspicion of being one of the twelve Austrian officers who, after spending six months in various disguises along the frontier, completed an excellent map, giving the present position of every corps and battalion along the whole line of the Russian frontier where it meets Germany and Austra, which map, when it appeared in Russia, caused great consternation. The officer protested against his arrest, and it has been asserted that he was released.
