MILLHEIM CELEBRATES HER CENTENNIAL IN GRAND STYLE

The Old Town Crowded With People. A Monster Parade, Fire Works

and Addresses. As early as Tuesday people began to flock into town and in the early morning hours of Wednesday every imaginable vehicle from the "one hoss shay" to the ellegant carriage brought its load of visitors to see the great show. Rosy corts, venerable old men and women verging on the eighties, babies, dogs and cats tumbled into the old town. Before 9 o'clock Millheim was packed as it never had been before. Every available space being occupied. Shortly after 9 o'clock the parade began to form, Capt. O. W. Van-Valin, marshall, and his assistants S. D. Musser, Geo. Ulrich, D. S. Kauffman, Charles Musser Milton Musser, Charles Wiser, Clymer Musser, Robert Crawford, and Samuel Ulrich soon got the great procession into line. Adolph Miller, a venerable old gentleman, and who first suggested the Celeebration accompanied by Dr. Geo. S Frank and Cashier Walter headed the procession while following them came twelve pioneers armed with axes. The Millheim band in Continental dress followed, a wagon load of captured Indians came next. William Smith and family represented the original settlers. Capt. John Miller representing Gen. Washington was accompanied by his staff on horseback. The second division was marshalled by Charles Musser. The Bellefonte band was with this division and escorted President Cleveland [Pierce Musser.] Thirteen beautiful young la. dies represented the original States. The Goddess of Liberty, [Mrs. Jasper Stover.] followed in a canopied wagon. The Goddess was accompanied by four young ladies. Next came an immense wagon drawn by six horses, in which were thirty-eight young ladies representing

The Millheim Hook and Ladder Company with its beautiful truck followed. The third division was made up of industrial displays and was certainly very creditable. After passing over a long route the parade disbanded and the tired and hungry paraders sought rest and refreshment. In the afternoon Mr. -Don't forget the delegate election, C. K. Sober gave an exhibition of his L. Spangler and R. A. Cassidy. On the speakers' stand sat the venerable Mrs. Kramer, now the oldest living person who was born in Millheim. She is in her 96th year. 1. The Democratic County Convention of Centre county shall be composed of one delegate for every fifty Democratic votes polled at the Presidential or Gubernatorial election next preceeding the convention. The allotment of delegates to the several election districts in the county shall be made by the Standing Committee of the county at its first meeting in every alternate year succeeding the Presidential and Gubernatorial elections and shall be in proportion to the Democratic votes east in each district at such election

viva voce, by the Democratic voters present at that time.

4. Every qualified voter of the district, who at the late general election voted the Democratic ticket, shail be entitled to a vote at the delegate election; and any qualified elector of the district who will pledge his word of honor to support the Democratic ticket at the next general election shall be permitted to vote at the delegate elections shall be permitted to vote at the delegate elections.

5. The voting at all delegate elections shall be by ballot; upon which ballot shall be written or printed the name or names of the delegate or delegates voted for together with any instructions which the voter may desire to give the delegate or delegates. Each ballot shall be received from the person voting the same by a member of the election board, and by him deposited in a box or other receptacle provided for that purpose, to which box or other receptacle no person but members of the board shall have access.

No instructions shall be received of cie no person but members of the board shall have access.

6. No instructions shall be received or recognized unless the same be voted upon the ballot as provided in Rule Pourth, nor shall such instructions if voted upon the ballot, be binding upon the delegates unless one-half or more of the ballots shall contain instructions concerning the same office. Whenever half or more of the ballots shall contain instructions concerning any office, the delegate elected at such elections shall be held to be instructed to support the candidates having the highest number of votes for such office.

7. Each election board shall keep an accurate list of the names of all persons voting at such elections, when the list of voters together with a full and complete return of such election, containing an accurate statement of the persons elected delegates and all instructions voted, shall be certified by said board to the county convention upon printed blanks to be furnished by the county convention.

8. Whenever from any district qualified Democratic voters, in numbers equal to five times the delegates which such district has in the county convention, shall complain in writing of an undue election or false return of delegates or of instruction, in which complaints the alleged facts shall be specifically set forth and verified by the affidavit of one or more persons, such complainants shall have the right to contest the seat of such delegates or the validity of such instructions. Such complaint shall be heard by a committee of five delegates to be appointed by the President of the convention what delegates are contested or whose instructions hall proceed immediately upon the call of the yeas and nays to adopt or reject the report of the convention shall proceed immediately upon the call of the yeas and nays to adopt or reject the report of the convention which said committee shall be ordered to the convention shall be forthwith expelled from the convention, and shall not be eligible to any office or place of trust in the party for candidates until after the third ballot or vote, when the person receiving the least number of votes shall be omitted and struck from the roll, and so on at each successive vote until a nomination be made.

In the convention a majority of all voters shall be necessary to a nomination; and no person's name shall be excluded from the list of

12. If any person who is a candidate for any nomination before a county convention shall be proven to have offered or paid any money, or other valuable thing or made any promise of a consideration or reward to any delegate for his vote, or to any person with a view of inducing or securing the votes of delegates or if the same shall be done by any other person with the knowledge and consent of such candidate, the name of such candidate shall be immediately stricken from the list of candidates; or if such fact be ascertained after his nomination, shall be struck from the ticket and the vacancy supplied by a new nomination, or to an election as a delegate thereafter, And in case it shall be alleged after the adjournment of the convention that any candidate put in nomination has been guilty of such acts or of any other fraudulent practices to obtain such nomination, the charges shall be investigated by the county committee, and such steps takeh as the good of the party may require.

13. If any delegate shall receive any money or other valuable thing, or accept the promise of any consideration or reward to be paid, delivered or secured to him or to any person for such candidate, as an inducement for his vote, upon proof of the fact to the satisfaction of the convention, such delegate shall be forwith expelled, and shall not be received as a delegate to any further convention, and shall be ineligible to any party nomination.

14. Cases arising under the 8th, 12th and 13th rules shall have precedence over all other business in convention until determined.

15. That the term of the chairman of the county committee shall begin on the first day of January of each and every year.

PINE GROVE MILLS.

July 31, 1888. Editor Centre Democrat:-In last week's issue of the Gazette I noticed some person wrote something about the Democrats of Penna, Furnace. He said they were for protection and were unwilling to vote for Cleveland.

I would like this laborer, as he Myles himself, to point out to the voters what kind of protection the laborer got at Penna. Furnace when the Carnegies operated there. I would like to know if he minds when the men at the Brison Bank were wanting an advance in their wages. They were getting $1.00 per day, and asked for $1,25 they were told to wait a few days when they would get what they wanted; but one of the boses, Harry Pulen by name, went to Castle Garden and got about sixty raw Huns. That is the kind of protection they got there. But I could give you many more such instances that when the men would have it easy, the boses wold go to N. Y. and bring a lot of Hungarians. I have handled the hatchet and square for the same firm for two years, and I think there isn't a Demoerat at Penna. Furnace who is as shallow as the Protection crank shows himself to be. He speaks of open doors for cademical institute. About nine stu- foreign markets; to pocket our cash while we stand and look on, and many Miss Lillian Krise has opened a select other things.
