THE FINEST LINE OF CUTLERY.

WOLFS HOME MADE TINWARE.

THERE are two styles of argument of which Mr. Blaine is master—the "You'er another" styles, and the equally conclusive "It's none of your business." In dealing with the matter of Trusts Mr. Blaine employed both. First, he said: "England, under the free trade system, is literally plastered all over with Trusts." This was intended to shut the mouths of Tariff Reformers, who Mr. Blaine identifies with English free-traders and who are opposed to Trusts. But this was not enough. Following the method of the late Mr. Tweed Mr. Blaine wants to know what we are going to do about the Trusts, as "neither the President nor private citizens have any particular right to interfere."

Unluckily for Mr. Blaine, the New York Times has been at the pains to ascertain that the Trusts as it is organized in the United State is not only an unknown but an impossible thing in England. This disposes of the first part of Mr. Blaine's argument by putting him in the unfortunate position of a falsifier. The State of New York, which gave Mr. Tweed a conclusive answer to his celebrated inquiry, will probably also find an answer for Mr. Blaine in the result of the legal proceedings that have been instituted by its Attorney General to smash the Sugar Trust. Phil. Record.

Helping the Right Side To help the right side is not only commendable in a general point of view, but is judicious and prudent when that help is enlisted in behalf of the right side of the body, just over the lower ribs in the region of the liver. The most efficient help is afforded by Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, an anti-bilious medicine of incomparable efficacy. Inaction of the liver is accompanied by constipation, sick-headache, furred tongue, nausea, occasional vertigo, an unpleasant breath, yellowness of the skin and ball of the eye. The author of these symptoms, liver complaint, routed by the Bitters is accompanied by them in its flight. Fever and ague, which always involves the liver, dyspepsia, rheumatism, debility and kidney troubles are all maladies to the early relief and final cure of which this standard medicine is adapted. Don't use it by fits and starts, but systematically, that its full effects may result in a perfect restoration of health.

LAST OF THE SEASON. Pennsylvania Railroad Excursions to the Jersey Coast.

The Pennsylvania Railroad Company's ten-day excursions to the Jersey coast have been enjoyed by hundreds of people this summer. The liberal limit of the tickets, the wide range of popular resorts from which a choice could be made, and the exceptional facilities for reaching the shore have left nothing to be desired. The last of the series will be run on Thursday, August 23d. This date covers the high-water mark of the seashore season. All the resorts will be in their best feather, and the cool, fresh breezes which may be enjoyed there during the torrid heat of the dog days would be sufficient justification for going, even if the bathing were not at its best, the fishing fine, and the other attractions numberless.

The tickets as heretofore embrace Cape May, Atlantic City, Sea Isle City. They will be good for ten days, and will be sold from Pittsburg at $16.00 and at the rates quoted below from other points. The special train on the main line connecting by regular trains from the branches will run on following schedule:

Table with columns for Station, Rate, and Train Leaves. Includes stations like Pittsburgh, East Liberty, Irwin, etc.

The party will rest in Philadelphia the night of the 22d, and proceed to the seashore by a regular train of the succeeding day. The tickets will be good to return by any regular within ten days, except New York and Chicago Limited.

The Grangers' Picnic at Williams Grove Reduced Rates via Pennsylvania Railroad.

The great interstate picnic of the Patrons of Husbandry at Williams Grove, Cumberland county, will be conducted this year on a larger scale than ever. Over two hundred thousand practical farmers, representing thirty States, are expected to be present, and many of the most noted agriculturists of the Union will address the meetings. The display of farming and domestic machinery and implements, agricultural and horticultural products, fine stock and poultry, will be superior to any similar exhibition ever held in this section of the country. The grounds are newly fitted up and provided with all necessary accommodations for the hosts of visitors. Tuesday, Wednesday, and Friday are distinguished as big days, and on Tuesday the grounds are to be favored with the presence of the President of the United States. The picnic will open Monday, Aug. 27th, and continue for six days. For the benefit of visitors the Pennsylvania Railroad Company will, on August 27th, 28th, 29th, 30th, and 31st, sell excursion tickets at a single fare for the round trip, good to return until September 3d, from the principal stations in the following territory: On the Pennsylvania Railroad Division from stations between Bryn Mawr and Braddock, both inclusive; on the Northern Central Railway from stations between Lutherville and Troy, both inclusive; on the Philadelphia and Erie Division from stations between Sumbury and Lock Haven, both inclusive, and from all principal stations on Frederick Division. Special trains, of which later announcement will be given, will be run on occasion regies.
