

ARKELL'S IMPRESSION OF HARRISON.

The President-Elect a Fluent Talker and Thoroughly Poised.

CANAJOHARIE, Jan. 17.—Ex-Senator Arkell and party have returned from Indianapolis. Senator Arkell was asked by a reporter to give the object and result of the trip and the impression he received of the president-elect. The senator replied as follows:

"We went to Indianapolis on the invitation of Gen. Harrison, and had no other motive than to present to Gen. Harrison a disinterested statement of the Republican situation in New York and speak in the interest of the solidarity of the party. The usual impression is that Mr. Harrison is a polite but reticent man, courteous but impenetrable. So far as our experience is concerned this would be a misinterpretation of his character. He discussed with great copiousness and clearness the New York situation, and by evident indication, without statement, left the impression that he was not only elected president, but proposed so to be. That this state will receive recognition seems placed beyond doubt, but what portfolio, and to whom tendered, is to be shown in the future. Inferences might be drawn from the conversation. It would not, however, be just to crystallize a conjecture into a statement. That is the prerogative of the gentleman who has so far carefully kept his own counsel, and kept it without assistance."

THE SOUTH PENN. ROAD.

Differences Have Been Settled and It Will Be Promptly Completed.

PTTSBURG, Jan. 22.—The Chronicle-Telegraph publishes a positive statement to the effect that the trouble caused by the Pittsburg stockholders of the South Penn. railway who hitherto refused to sign no longer exists, as they have all signed the Carnegie agreement except H. C. Frick, and he has declared that he will sign when the Vanderbilts do the same, which will be done early next week.

D. Herbert Hostetter, who has just returned from the east, said: "The South Penn. matter is at last settled. Messrs. W. W. Watson, B. F. Jones, Sellers McKee and all the other Pittsburgers except H. C. Frick and E. M. Ferguson have signed the new agreement. Messrs. Frick and Ferguson have agreed to sign early next week, when the Vanderbilts do. This removes all the friction, and means that the road will be completed. There will be a meeting soon of the South Penn. people, when all details will be settled and a programme agreed upon."

Other Pittsburg members of the South Penn. syndicate fully corroborated all that Mr. Hostetter said, and expressed the same hopes he did.

A FORTUNE IN A TRUNK.

Henry J. Van Duyn, of Pine Brook, Finds a Bonanza.

NEW YORK, Jan. 22.—Ex-Judge John L. Johnson is in New Orleans with Mr. Henry J. Van Duyn, of Pine Brook, settling the estate of his brother, Abraham Van Duyn, who died in that city week before last.

Abraham was a prominent citizen of New Orleans of years gone by, but of late had been leading a very retired life. He was a native of Pine Brook, but cast his lot in business in the Crescent city. From 1840 to 1856 he conducted a large coal business, and after wards, up to 1880, was engaged in gauging coal for different concerns in that city. He then retired to private life, dividing his time between New Orleans and New Jersey. He had reached a ripe old age—somewhere in the seventies.

When the succession was opened little was known of the financial condition of the estate, but in taking the inventory it was discovered that the succession was valued at almost $100,000. In one of the trunks in the room of the deceased $5,000 in greenbacks and about $30,000 in stocks were found.

Death of Ex-Minister Bell.

NEW YORK, Jan. 22.—Isaac Bell, Jr., ex-United States minister to the Netherlands, died at St. Luke's hospital. At his bedside were his wife, his mother, his brothers, Lewis and Edward Bell, and his brother-in-law, Mr. Berkley. Mr. Bell was conscious up to a short time before death, knew his friends and frequently conversed with them. He was aware that he was near his end. The funeral has been fixed for to-morrow at 11 a. m. at Trinity, Rev. Dr. Morgan Dix officiating.

An Unexpected Resignation.

WILLIMANTIC, Conn., Jan. 22.—The Rev. A. J. Sullivan, who was engaged last September to preach in the First Congregational church here, astonished his congregation by reading his resignation. Not even the church committee had an inkling of his intention. Mr. Sullivan gave as his reason the fact that he did not know when he came here that the church was independent of the Congregational conference; that the church does not now seem disposed to grant his request to return to the conference and install him as settled pastor, and finally, that his wife's health makes his resignation imperative. It will undoubtedly be accepted.

Killed by a Chair Pulling Idiot.

ERIE, Pa., Jan. 22.—As the inmates of the Pennsylvania Soldiers' home were sitting down to supper last evening, John Quinlan, of Philadelphia, pulled the chair out from under Louis Backer, of Mahone City, who fell heavily upon the floor. Blood gushed from his mouth and nostrils, and he died in a few minutes. Quinlan is wild with grief, and has been placed in jail to prevent him from harming himself.

Desperate Wrestling Match.

SCRANTON, Pa., Jan. 22.—Pierre defeated Sorakichi by two out of three falls in a catch as catch can match last night. The contest was a desperate one, the men striking each other blows in their anger. Pierre choked the Jap in the second bout till blood came from the nostrils, and these tactics weakened Sorakichi so that he lost both sides and the third round.

Are We to Have Another War?

Some political prophets aver that we shall. Be that as it may, the battle waged by medical science against disease will never cease until we arrive at that utopian epoch when the human family shall cease to be afflicted with bodily ailments. One of the most potent weapons which the armory of medicine furnishes, is Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which is of special utility as a family remedy, as it is adapted to the immediate relief and ultimate cure of those disorders of the stomach, liver and bowels which are of commonest occurrence. Indigestion, biliousness and constipation are inseparable companions and these ailments are completely eradicated by the Bitters. But the remedial scope of this superlative wholesome and general medicine takes in also nervous ailments, rheumatism and kidney troubles; its actions in these, as in the other complaints being characterized by unequalled thoroughness.

CATARRH, Catarrhal Deafness and Hay Fever.

A NEW HOME TREATMENT. Sufferers are not generally aware that these diseases are contagious, or that they are due to the presence of living parasites in the lining membrane of the nose and eustachian tubes. Microscopic research, however, has proved this to be a fact and the result is that a simple remedy has been formulated whereby catarrh, catarrhal deafness and hay fever are permanently cured in from one to three simple applications made at home by the patient once in two weeks. N. B.—For catarrhal discharges peculiar to females (whites) this remedy is a specific. A pamphlet explaining this new treatment is sent on receipt of ten cents by A. H. DRXON & SONS, 304 West King St., Toronto, Canada.—Scientific American. Sufferers from catarrhal troubles should read the above carefully.
