LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

Monday was an unpleasant day for fittings.

The Undine Hose Company expect to have new uniforms in a short time.

Mr. Harry Hicks, now of Philadelphia, paid Bellefonte a visit this week.

The Episcopalian choir is practicing new music for the coming Easter service.

Landlord Bibby, of Millheim, will this week take charge of the hotel at Montandon.

George Johnston should be appointed special police for the P. R. R., station at this place.

A game of ball is being arranged for between the Fleming and State College ball teams.

Blair's new jewelry room is being fitted up in handsome style, preparatory to his occupying it.

A dancing master is in town trying to secure a class. We will take private lessons and pay in ads.

Simon Loeb now occupies his new room with a full line of clothing and gent's furnishing goods.

Dr. J. C. McEntire, of Mill Hall, moved to Williamsport this week where he will open dental rooms.

A large light in front of the Penna. railroad station would be a great convenience to the traveling public.

Rev. A. C. Whitmer, of Lancaster, Pa., Supt. of Missions, will preach in the Reformed church on Sunday morning and evening.

Notice.—Any one having three or four dogs, young or old, and wants to dispose of them can do so by calling on L. C. Greene, the High street tonsorial artist.

J. Linn Murphy took the train on Tuesday morning for Camden, New Jersey, not to get married, but accept a position in a newspaper and job office.

J. P. Findley, of Eagleville, has secured a patent on an "index" and W. R. Moore, of Unionville, a patent for a wagon jack.

The special term of court this week was held for the hearing of a number of cases against the defunct Lycoming Insurance Co., most of which were compromised.

Young Dobert Harrison, a colored boy was put in the cooler on Monday night for throwing stones at people and being a general nuisance to the community.

Prof. Wm. T. Meyer, who moved here recently from Shamokin, purchased Miss Alpha Korman's Novelty store on Spring Street, and has taken charge of the same.

Five boys ranging in years from eight to eleven, were arrested and taken before an alderman at Renovo charged with theft. Renovo police are to be commended for their bravery.

In Lycoming county the amount of money received from the liquor licenses is $19,400, of which $10,500 is divided among the various districts, while $8,900 goes into the county treasury.

The grand castle of the Knights of the Golden Eagle was in session this week at Harrisburg. This county was represented by John A. Grenoble, of Spring Mills and Bion Williams, of Port Matilda.

Editor Kinsloe, of the Lock Haven Republican, is credited with saying that the late murder at Renovo, will result in making 1,000 more votes for the Prohibition Amendment than would probably otherwise have been.

D. F. Portney has moved his office to the Woodring building north of the Court House, and has one of the nicest, cleanest, and best lighted offices in town. He invites all persons having legal business to give him a call.

Ex-Mayor Barker has been appointed Postmaster at Lock Haven and his name was sent to the Senate Saturday. This leaves our esteemed friend J. B. G. Kinsloe out in the cold. However, the energetic editor won't sulk but will be found going right ahead turning out as good a newspaper as ever.

Cider can be made and sold if the Prohibition amendment is adopted, but it cannot be sold after it is fermented. So one will have to buy his cider sweet and let it stand until it gets rily if you wish to get a little "rily" yourself on the 4th of July or other legal holidays.

The entertainment given by the State College Glee and Banjo Club was attended by a large number on last Friday evening. The entertainment was musical throughout, consisting of lively college songs by the Glee Club, and instrumental renditions by the Banjo and Guitars, all of which were highly appreciated by the audience. In their entertainments at Tyronne and Huntingdon they had large houses and exchanges speak in glowing terms of their entertainment.

SHORT PARAGRAPHS.

COMPILED FOR OUR READERS.

The Sugar Valley Railroad.—A Lar. e Tumor.—Feast of the Passover.—Ward will Play with the New York Club.

There is no doubt but that the proposed Bellefonte and Eastern Railroad from Watonsontown to Bellefonte to traverse through Sugar Valley will be built at no far distant day. Messrs. J. I. Higbee, Superintendent of Construction, and H. E. Richter, Chief Engineer, called at the Journal office on Tuesday and assured us of this fact. This will be gratifying news to all interested in the project. The subject is being favorably discussed on all sides, and signs indicate something substantial. A corps of engineers are now in the valley locating the line. Through with that work the company expect to begin to build the road bed, preparatory to lay the ties and track; then look out for the iron horse and smoke wagon.—Sugar Valley Journal.

A Large Undertaking. Two weeks ago the law firm of Orvis, Bower & Orvis had a paper book, in the Supreme Court, of the Tyrone Mining and Manufacturing Co., vs. James Cross, which they wanted printed and estimated the job to be of about a hundred and twenty pages. We accepted the job and guaranteed to have the work done in two weeks. We completed our contract in fine style and in two weeks from the day we accepted it we delivered the book bound and complete ready for service, but instead of one hundred and twenty pages there were three hundred and twenty, and every sheet set up and printed by the DEMOCRAT. We consider this lively work and a large undertaking.

The Feast of the Passover. Passover, the great Jewish festival celebrating the redemption from Egyptian bondage, begins on April 16, and supplies of unleavened bread are now being laid in by all the Jewish household. No leaven of any kind is to be seen during the festival in any Hebrew home. This applies to everything which yeast has caused to rise or any cereals which would raise or sour of their own accord when exposed to the air. Especially prohibited during this period are bread, cakes made from wheat flour, corn and the like, beer, whiskey and the like.

Sixty Pound Tumor. Miss Lizzie Parks, sixteen years of age, daughter of John H. Parks, Tyrone, arrived home from the Pennsylvania University at Philadelphia, where an operation was performed resulting in the successful removal of an ovarian tumor from her person, weighing sixty pounds.

The tumor had been growing upon the young lady for about a year and had become very annoying and painful. She is now able to be about the house, and excepting that she is very weak, feels quite well.

Ward Remains With New York. John Ward, the base ballist, formally notified President Hewitt, of the Washington club, that he cannot play with the "Senators" this season. Mr. Hewitt returned to the capitol this afternoon. Ward prefers New York to Washington as a place of residence, and does not fancy an alliance with a club as weak as the "Senators" may prove to be.

Eggs Away Down. The mild winter and the early spring had a tendency to make the hens get in their work and the result is an overstocking of the egg market. In the New York markets eggs sell wholesale from 8 to 11 cents per dozen and in Philadelphia they are held at the latter figure. The price is lower than any eggs have touched for many years.

Turned Landlord. Abe Harter, the mail carrier between Lock Haven and Loganton in Sugar Valley has rented the National Hotel in Millheim and will take possession on Monday next. Mr. Harter is not without experience as a landlord, as years ago he used to run the Weidensaul hotel at the eastern end of the Pennsylvania Narrows.

Endorsed for the Place. It is reported that John W. Heston, who is professor of pedagogics in the Pennsylvania State College has been recommended to Governor Beaver by the Alumni association of the college for appointment as Dr. Higbee's successor as superintendent of public instruction.

Seven Millions of Tickets. Secretary of the Commonwealth Stone has given orders for the printing of 7,000,000 tickets to be used at the election on the 18th of June. He will shortly issue a letter of instructions to county commissioners regarding the manner of distributing the tickets.

Turnpike Returned. The turnpike from Bellefonte to the Millin county line, has been returned on account of bad condition of the road. The information, we are told, was made by Mr. G. Haag. The matter will be heard at April court.

CLINTON COUNTY LANDS.

A Syndicate of English Capitalists Will Develop the Mineral therein. The Lock Haven Express says: It is a fact not generally known that there are within the borders of Clinton county large tracts of land which are owned by a syndicate of English Capitalists. It is generally known that many thousands of acres of these tracts are underlaid with valuable minerals. A part of the lands owned by this syndicate is familiarly known as the McHenry estate, and the agent for the owners was for many years the late Tatlow Jackson, whose death occurred but recently. Mr. Jackson's successor, as agent, is J. A. Reilly, a gentleman who thoroughly understands the value of the lands and who is about to make important moves towards developing the wealth that lies hidden beneath their surface.

Died at 108 Years of Age. Thomas Keegan, who resided in the "Ridges," six miles west of Newry, died suddenly at 10 o'clock on Monday night, at the remarkable age of 108 years. He was a native of Ireland, and had a very distinct recollection of the "rebellion of '68," having been 17 years old and having carried a pike in that bloody episode in the history of his unhappy country. Mr. Keegan emigrated to the United States seventy-five years ago and was for many years a resident of Blair county, of which he was unquestionably the oldest inhabitant at time of his death. He was quite well preserved for a man of his age and presented himself at the polls last November, where he deposited a Democratic ballot as, had been his habit ever since he became a citizen.—Phillipsburg Journal.

A BRUTE HANGED.

Jed Fritchett Pays the Penalty of His Crime at Chatham, Va.

DANVILLE, Va., March 29.—Jed Fritchett, who outraged a small white girl near this place in June last, was hanged at Chatham to-day. He was a stout, strong negro, about 30 years old, and when the officers attempted to spring the trap he fought like a tiger. Four deputies were called to assist in the execution. The prisoner fell down and lay prostrate on the scaffold, clinging to the frame work. The trap was finally sprung and by main force the deputies pushed him off the scaffold after the rope had been tied about his neck. The struggles of the condemned man lasted fully eleven minutes.

A Fine Room.

The firm of J. A. Harper & Co., now occupy their new rooms, on the first floor of the Crider Exchange and have one of the largest and most commodious rooms in the town. In the front part is to be found their line of dry goods and general merchandise and in the rear the grocery department. Their room is the full depth of the building with an addition of about fifty feet to the right making the largest room in the town.

New Marble Works.

Heisler & Gross have opened new marble works on Water St. near big spring Bellefonte. Monuments, headstones and all kinds of cemetery work. All stock new, no old weather beaten stock. And we are down on the high prices that have been charged for poor work in grave stones. Give us a call and get the best work and lowest prices.

The Normal School.

There are now about 125 boarders at the Central State Normal School, Lock Haven, and 25 or 30 more are expected. About 300 students are expected altogether, 200 in the Normal department and 100 in the Model School. The present arrangements are such and the recitation rooms so convenient that the old building on the hill is scarcely missed any more, except for boarding purposes.

The report that a marriage license is not valid outside of the county where issued, is not correct. There is no such restrictive clause in the law. A license is good wherever presented, and any properly authorized minister may perform the ceremony wherever called on to do so.

Prof. Geo. P. Bible, of the Lock Haven Normal is a "daddy" at last; in other words another new edition of the Bible has been issued, whether revised and improved we don't know. The Lock Haven Democrat remarks that it was an edition of the feminine gender solidly put together and well bound.

Last week's CENTRE DEMOCRAT gets off a very complimentary (?) notice of Miss Puella Dornblaser's lectures on the Prohibition amendment. We think editor Kurtz will find considerable difficulty in introducing the new fashion of skirts, which he proposes in connection with other valuable suggestions.—Millheim Journal.

J. N. Bell, of Rock Spring, Centre county, owns a turkey hen that last spring laid eighteen eggs, hatched out eighteen turkeys, of which seventeen survived. Then after playing mother for six weeks she commenced laying again and produced an egg every day until 83 were laid, making a total of 101. This leads the Huntingdon county turkey hen, twenty-six eggs.

THE PROHIBITIONISTS ADDRESS.

An Appeal from Chairman Palmer to the People of the State.

The Constitutional Prohibitory Amendment State Committee have issued the following address:

HEADQUARTERS CONSTITUTIONAL PROHIBITORY AMENDMENT STATE COMMITTEE.

No. 629 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia.

You stand on the eve of a great battle. It will be as fierce and bitter as any that was ever fought by right against wrong. To you and to your children and your children's children the result will be big with joy or sorrow. Against you stands an enemy strong in numbers, unlimited in resources and inspired with the energy of desperation. You are to strive against those who thrive by the traffic in strong drink. They are the enemies of the State, the nation, the church, the home. They are the foes of virtue, peace, temperance and religion. Their business life is staked upon the issue and you may expect resistance to the last extremity.

You have the opportunity to decide whether the sentence of death shall be passed upon this monstrous evil by writing its condemnation in the enduring lines of your organic law. Shall the People's law, the Constitution, forbid the manufacture and sale for use as a beverage of intoxicating drink? To you belongs the power to perpetuate or destroy and upon you rests the responsibility.

We call upon all, of whatever faith in religion or of belief in politics, of whatever race, color or habit, upon all who love their country, their children or their homes, to rally for the conflict. It is non-sectarian, non-partisan, and for the general welfare.

Are you workmen? The wages of labor are lost to the earner when deposited in the saloon. They are needed for food and clothing for children and comforts for the family. Banish the drink traffic and poverty among wage-workers would be comparatively unknown.

Are you business men? Seventy-five millions of dollars are annually spent in the State for drink. If paid out for the necessities of life every industry would feel a reviving stimulus.

Are you tax-payers? You pay five times as much as you receive from license money to hold criminal courts and support paupers, insane persons and criminals, the product of the saloons.

Are you Christians? The most deadly enemy of your religion, your aspirations and your hopes is the drink traffic. Under which flag do you march, that of the saloon or the church?

Are you moderate drinkers? The drunkard of to-morrow is the moderate drinker of to-day, and if you are strong enough to be safe your influence is needed to help weaker men.

Are you total abstainers? If you believe total abstinence to be the best for you you must also believe it to be the best for your fellow men. Do not refuse to help those who have no power to resist the open door of temptation. Can you take a ballot from the hands of a saloon keeper and vote to perpetuate his business and keep your pledge to discourage the drink traffic?

Are you habitual drunkards? Help to smite the enemy that has robbed you of health, character and all that makes life life worth living.

Are you fathers? If the traffic endures somebody's boys who are now growing up must be its customers. Have you any spare for that purpose? Somebody's girls are blooming into womanhood to be drunkard's wives; a fate to which death is preferable. Have you daughters to give? If you are wise enough and strong enough to keep your own, some other family must give more than its share of children to be sent to dishonor and dishonorable drunkard's graves by the saloon.

Are you men? Then put away cowardly doubts of ability to enforce a law of your own making and strike a blow for purer government, cleaner politics and the everlasting overthrow of the worst business that ever degraded mankind.

Are you women? You need no exhortation to join the grand army of redemption, for on you fall the chief sorrow, the endless misery, the unseparable degradation wrought by the drink traffic.

Come one, come all, bring every persuasive argument, every moral power, every social, business and friendly influence. Give time and personal work to the great cause, and the 18th of June in this year of grace shall, God willing, ring the death-knell in this Commonwealth of the crowning vice of the century, and "as Pennsylvania goes, so goes the Union."

HENRY W. PALMER, Chairman.

SCHOFIELD REMARKS.

A FEW POINTERS FROM THE OVERSEER.

How the Accounts of the Overseer Stand.—How the Tax Rate is Increasing.—Pointers Etc.

Editor of Centre Democrat:

Allow me the privilege of referring, through the columns of your paper to the last issue of the foul, dirty protective sheet called the "Gazette." This common drunkard called for the statement of the Overseer five or six weeks earlier than ever before. Why this pot-house politician should ask for the statement before the Auditors have settled it, may not be understood by the bulk of the tax-payers of the borough. To the thoughtful, however, the motive and desire of this unprincipled, whiskey soaked sucker are very plain. I shall not at this time go into a full statement of my work as Overseer; I may do so in the near future, and at the same time I will meet all the charges of this pot-house politician. For the present I will call the attention of my fellow-citizens to a few of his motives in asking for a statement, which I am not at any time required to give. If the new Overseer and the Gazette were very anxious to know who has been helped and who was kept by me last year, and if they only could have seen my statement, (that is got a hold of my books and vouchers) at the beginning of this month, it would have saved the new Overseer and the Gazette a good deal of trouble, as they could have seen at glance the names I have on the Poor books. The new Overseer and the thing that runs the Gazette, called Fiedler, have been obliged to go from home to home questioning those who have been in charge of the Overseer, and at the same time requesting these persons to come to the new Overseer, and the Gazette office for their orders in the future as they do not want them to go to Schofield for orders. Such a course was never indulged in by any Overseer heretofore in this borough. To show you what a dangerous and ruinous financial policy this course will bring upon the tax payers, I only need call to your attention one case that has already come to my knowledge.

A person in charge of the Overseers, who obtained assistance to the amount of eight dollars per month, was sent to the new Overseer who furnished him with a suit of clothes costing $18.00 and some other things running the bill up to over twenty dollars, instead of $8. How many cases there are like the above I do not know. I hope there are not many. If this course is to be pursued neither five or six mills will run the poor district this year. How many working men make as much as this charge obtained for the month of March, and they have not only themselves but their families to keep also.

I was asked to divide the borough, I answered I had nothing to divide. To get even with me the Gazette and the new Overseer go around and request all they can find whether in need or not to come to them for their orders. I have been overseer for three years, I have not learned the art of drumming up trade at the expense of the tax-payers of the borough. If anyone was in need they soon found the Overseer that has been my experience.

In one instance, my new Overseer went to an old lady and asked her how much help she was getting and whether she was not now aided by the poor authorities. When in truth she had received no aid for ten months, having obtained a pension of $1,000 to $12.00. If the Gazette wants my statement before the Auditors are ready to, and do settle it, in my presence with my books and papers as they are by law required to do, come around and bring your new Overseer and take it, and copy the list of persons whom I have given aid to guide you and your Overseer in squandering public funds. It is quite likely that you will go back without my book but come anyway.

While you are waiting for my statement which might amuse the few readers of your dirty sheet which calls for protection to American labor:

1st. Keep a record of all the manufactures sold by the Sheriff this year. When the year is up compare it with last year and let us see where protection comes in.

2nd. Spread in glaring type the amount of coal used this year compared with last.

3rd. The wages paid per day to the laborers in our mines and manufactories compared with last year.
