

CATARRH, Catarrhal Deafness and Hay Fever.

A NEW HOME TREATMENT.
Sufferers are not generally aware that these diseases are contagious, or that they are due to the presence of living parasites in the lining membrane of the nose and eustachian tubes. Microscopic research, however, has proved this to be a fact and the result is that a simple remedy has been formulated whereby catarrh, catarrhal deafness and hay fever are permanently cured in from one to three simple applications made at home by the patient once in two weeks. N. B.—For catarrhal discharges peculiar to females (whites) this remedy is a specific. A pamphlet explaining this new treatment is sent on receipt of ten cents by A. H. DIXON & SONS, 304 West King St., Toronto, Canada.—Scientific American.

Sufferers from catarrhal troubles should read the above carefully.

Universally Laughed At.
The unthinking are prone to make game of nervousness. Yet this is a very real and serious affliction, the harassing symptoms of which are rendered all the more poignant by ridicule. The stomach is usually responsible for these symptoms—its weakness and disorder find a reflex in the brain, which is the headquarters of the nervous system. As a nerve tonic and tranquilizer we believe that no one can be pointed out so effectively as Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. In renewing vigorous digestion, it strikes the key note of recovery of strength and quietude by the nerves. Headaches, tremors in quiet sleep,—all these modify and ultimately disappear as the system gains strength from the great tonic. Dyspepsia, biliousness, rheumatism, constipation and kidney complaints are subdued by the Bitters.

The Shores of the Chesapeake Striven with the Wrecks of Unfortunate Schooners, and Dismasted Hulks Line the Beaches of Virginia—Many Lives and Much Treasure Lost—Norfolk Damaged to the Extent of Two Million Dollars.

NORFOLK, Va., April 9.—The terrible gale is at an end. The weather is bright and crisp, but Virginia beach is strewn with wrecks and many lives have been lost. The four masted schooner Berryman F. Poole, of Providence, for Baltimore, is ashore near Sea Tack station. The crew were rescued. The schooner Emma F. Hart, from Nassau for Boston, is ashore five miles south of Cape Henry. The crew were rescued by the Sea Tack life saving station with the breeches buoy. An unknown schooner, with both masts gone, is ashore three miles south of Sea Tack. Of her crew of five there is said to be only one survivor.

The steamship William Lawrence reports that the schooner Andrew Johnson, of Baltimore, for Rio, is ashore at York river. An unknown schooner is ashore off Old Point. The steamer Chatham, from Boston, passed two miles north-west from Cape Henry lighthouse, the boom of a schooner moored to wreckage. An unknown schooner is on Willoughby Point with the seas breaking over her. The schooner Northampton in Cherrystone creek with crew of four men was blown out into the bay Saturday night and all on board lost. Schooner W. P. Davis is beached on Crany Island and the schooner Charles H. Sinnickson is ashore at Ocean View.

The schooner Hester A. Waters is ashore at Nansmond river, and the schooner George W. Covington has gone to pieces at the mouth of the Nansmond river. The schooner Eva Osborne and James S. Watson are ashore at Peg Point. The schooner Emily N. Burton and the Rising Sun were thrown up high and dry near West Norfolk. The schooner Godfrey is breaking up in Nansmond river, and the Carrie May is ashore at Western Branch. An unknown schooner with masts only visible is sunk off Ocean View. Two unknown vessels are ashore south of Smithfield creek. The long wharf at Seawall's Point is entirely swept away. An unknown schooner is ashore between Peg's Point and Crany Island.

The Old Dominion steamer Guyardette reports that when twenty miles off the Virginia capes she attempted to secure the crew of four men lashed to the rigging of an unknown schooner, but was unsuccessful. The men were so exhausted that they could not help themselves and must have soon perished afterwards.

The schooners James Boyce and Charles H. Briggs were badly damaged at Lumber's Point. The schooner Fairwood Suffolk, of Salisbury, Md., is ashore in Nansmond river, and the schooners John W. Covington and Hester A. Waters foundered in Hampton Roads. The crews floated ashore on wreckage.

Two unknown schooners are ashore in York river. The schooner Petrel is sunk off Hampton. Many buildings at Ocean View were blown down and the roof of the Princess Anne hotel blown off. The steam tug Ida is ashore at Portsmouth and the schooner Watchful ashore at Pillner's Point.

The front of the Naval hospital grounds were seriously washed and damaged. Several local bridges at Portsmouth were carried away. The western branch draw bridge is gone. Large portions of the trestle work of the Seacoast and Roanoke railroad and Atlantic and Danville railroad bridges throughout the county have been washed away. The Christian church in Berkeley was blown to pieces and many houses were unroofed and otherwise injured.

The schooners Annie F. Clark, Robert Healy and Mary A. Irving are ashore above Berkeley flats. The schooner Annie is sunk off the flats. The total damage in this city and vicinity will aggregate $2,000,000. All the wharves along the Nansmond river have been washed away. The store of W. Williamson, at Sleepy Hall, was demolished and Clerk Woodward drowned.

Capt. Elijah J. Berche and two sons, of Portsmouth, are reported drowned from their vessel.

The steamer Georgia, which left Norfolk on Friday night, put into the Rappahannock for safety, but returned here last night with her joiner work badly strained and the vessel is otherwise injured. There was a panic among her passengers.

The Wyoming Conference.
WEST PITTSBURG, Pa., April 9.—The statistical report of the Wyoming Methodist conference presented, showed the church membership to be almost 40,000, with 345 churches valued at $1,500,000. For ministerial support the sum of $157,000 was raised, and for other works of the church $193,000. One of the features of the morning session was the taking from the supernumerary list the name of Rev. William Bisby and making him an effective minister, he having already passed fifty-three years in the ministry, the return to the active ministry of the aged preacher was heralded with great applause.

Reduced Coal Tolls.
BETHLEHEM, Pa., April 9.—The several coal carrying roads met here and reduced the tolls on anthracite to city trade as follows: From Wyoming region to Philadelphia, 10 cents per ton on prepared sizes and 5 to 20 on pea, buckwheat, culm, to New York; 15 on prepared, 5 on pea, 20 on buckwheat, from Lehigh region, 10 on prepared and 20 on buckwheat to Philadelphia and New York; 20 to Buffalo bridges, and corresponding reductions to Lake Ontario ports and New York state points, and 50 cents to Chicago. The new rates go into effect on the 15th inst.

Three Himself Before a Train.
PHILADELPHIA, April 9.—As a freight train going west had just passed the station at Bryn Mawr, the engineer was started to see a man, presumably a tramp, take off his coat and throw himself in front of the engine. The whole train had passed over the man before it could be stopped. Upon going to the rear it was found that the man was cut in half. There was nothing about the man to identify him, and he was taken to Ardmore and taken in charge by Undertaker Josiah Pearce.

AT WASHINGTON.

The Senate Adjourns Sine Die—The Week's Nominations.
WASHINGTON, April 6.—The president has appointed Cornelius Van Cott to be postmaster at New York to succeed H. G. Pearson, whose term expired on Tuesday.

Joel B. Edwards was appointed collector of the port of New York.
WASHINGTON, April 3.—The senate adjourned sine die yesterday. The nominations of Monday were all confirmed. The president sent in the name of Robert J. Fisher, of Chicago, to be assistant commissioner of patents. There were no other nominations of importance.

Riding Through Raging Flames.
CHAMBERLAIN, D. T., April 8.—The people on the passenger train from the east on the St. Paul road had an exciting experience near Mt. Vernon. A prairie fire was raging around the track and the engineer not knowing its extent ran into it, expecting to run through to safety in a few moments. He found the fire getting worse, however, and finally stopped, but could not run back as the flames behind had made the track unsafe. The passengers and train hands got out and fought the fire, but the danger kept increasing. Finally the engine was forced to proceed, as to remain still would have been fatal. It was feared that the rails were warped and the passengers expected a terrible accident but after what seemed a long period of suspense the train emerged from the smoke and flames safely. Several of the passengers who had engaged in fighting the flames were painfully burned. The women passengers were terribly agitated by their alarming experience.

The President's Southern Policy.
WASHINGTON, April 5.—It is asserted that President Harrison has plainly given colored office seekers from the south who are here to understand that they have very little to expect from him. He proposes to recognize the protectionists of the south and to try in this way to make the dividing line of the parties not upon color, but upon the economic policy. The south is full of protectionists who have been always working with the Democrats because of the race situation in that section. It is said that many of these have signified their desire to join hands with the Republican protectionists making that the issue if they can come into the party with the proper recognition. The men who belong to this class are wealthy and intelligent—the active progressive men of the south. It is asserted that Mr. Harrison proposes to ease the way for them into the Republican party by eradicating the race question as an issue and recognizing eminent protectionists, former Democrats, as well as Republicans.

The Calliope at Sydney.
SYDNEY, New South Wales, April 5.—The British man-of-war Calliope, which ran out of the hurricane at Samoa and of whose safety fears have since been expressed, has arrived safely at this port. It transpires that before the hurricane came on every precaution had been taken on the Calliope. Five anchors had been dropped and everything made ready for a big blow. In the height of the storm the chains of four anchors snapped and the vessel commenced to drift. Capt. Kane then determined to leave the harbor, where the danger of being thrown on the reefs was imminent and reach, if possible, the open sea. This he eventually accomplished after a hard fight, during which the vessel made only a half a knot an hour. The seas that broke over the ship were tremendous and did much damage. No lives were lost, however. Thousands of people are flocking to the vessel and praise the pluck of Capt. Kane in bringing his ship through safely.

The Nanticoke All Right.
BOSTON, April 4.—It is reported here that the steamer Nanticoke has arrived at Key West and departed for Rustan. All on board were well. The Nanticoke is the vessel which was supposed to have been in collision with the Haytian gunboat Conserva at Norfolk, Va., one day last week. Until the receipt of this news neither of these vessels has been heard of since that time, and the amount and character of the wreckage found floating in the vicinity led to the supposition that both vessels had gone down.

Women Will Run a Kansas Town.
COTTONWOOD FALLS, Kan., April 3.—A ticket composed entirely of ladies was placed in the field by the "bum" element of this town as an insult to those who were leaders in all good work. The better class of citizens all voted for them, and the result was that Mrs. Minnie D. Morgan was elected mayor and a full board of aldermen composed of the most prominent ladies in the town will aid her in administering affairs.

White Winged Peace Hovers Over Hayti.
NEW YORK, April 4.—Jimenes, Haustedt & Co., the New York representatives of Hippolyte, say they have information that Hippolyte is satisfied with the terms proposed to him by Legitime and that peace will probably be restored in Hayti soon.

Theologues Favor Prohibition.
GETTYSBURG, Pa., April 9.—The faculty and students of the Lutheran Theological seminary at this place unanimously adopted resolutions in favor of the prohibitory amendment.
