

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

-Have you visited Simon Loeb's new clothing store? -Loeb's clothing store in Brockerhoff row, has an immense rush. -The printers and cigar makers will have a game of ball some day this week -You can save fully 25 per cent. by visiting the Rochester Clothing House. -Hon. J. H. Orvis is attending Supreme Court in session at Philadelphia. -Have you seen the nobby styles of summer shoes and gaiters at Mingle's shoe store. -The floral displays in the churches on last Sabbath were fine and in some quite elaborate. -Col. Bill Nye remarks that it's better to be alive and poor than to be wealthy and dead. -Some of the Prohibitionists of Erie county say they will not plant any barley or rye this spring. -Trout fishing is as popular as ever and Spring Creek is lined every day with anxious anglers. -Mr. Newton Spangler of Tusseyville, has taken up the study of Law, in the office of Orvis Bower and Orvis. -Do you owe anything on subscription? If you do, try, and meet the same the next time you come to Bellefonte. -The girls are out with their new Spring bonnets; thank fortune, we are under no obligations for millinery bills. -Mr. J. Wesley Gephart, expects to attend the worlds convention of the Y. M. C. A. which will meet in London this summer. -A new grocery store will be opened in the room recently vacated by White-man's millinery, by ex-Sheriff Dunkle and a Mr. Fortney, of Tusseyville. -The Flemings will have another game of ball at the College on Saturday next and have made some improvements in the choice of players for this game. -It is reported in Huntingdon that William Africa, baggage master on the Pennsylvania railroad, has drawn a $15,000 prize from the Louisiana Lottery. -One of the finest hotel offices to be found can be seen at the Garman House which was repapered and painted recently and is one of the handsomest rooms in town. -On Monday the large safe of John B. Linn, and that of Orvis. Bower and Orvis, were moved to their offices on second floor of the Crider Exchange building. -The different congregations of town have consented to hold a series of suppers in the Y. M. C. A. rooms on Allegheny St., this week for the benefit of that organization. -There is a big demand for cats in Dakota to destroy the mice which are doing great damage to the wheat and corn. Rankin has been recommended for the position of Sixth Deputy Auditor of the U. S. Treasury. -Up in Potter county the members of a church got up a donation party for their pastor, ate up all the victuals in the house and stole a valuable ring belonging to the reverend gentleman. -Mr. Charles McCafferty left on Wednesday morning for Norfolk, Virginia, where he is interested in several valuable lumber tracts. He expects to take a trip through other portions of the South also. -Mr. Daniel Garman and daughters, Miss Minnie and Rebie, returned on Tuesday from a trip to Lock Haven, Jersey shore and Williamsport. They traveled by carriage and were fortunate in having the finest kind of weather. -Five "white caps" recently visited Samuel Fisher, at his home in Tuscarora township Juniata county, cut his hair and shaved off his heavy beard, and then made him swear to go to work and stick to it. Fisher has not been seen about since. -Morris Swartz, a student at Carlisle University, who was home on a week's visit left on Tuesday morning to resume his studies. Morris is a member of the senior class in that institution and will receive a first class diploma at the commencement exercises next June. -A new machine will be put in this week at the nail works for handling metal after it comes from the puddling furnaces to prepare it for the rolls. The crusher in the form of jaws will be done away with for an arrangement much like a coffee mill on an enlarged scale. -Company B, will leave on Saturday evening for New York City to participate in the Centennial anniversary and parade on the following Tuesday. The boys are in fine trim and make quite a presentable appearance. The company now numbers some sixty active members.

TWO SUDDEN DEATHS.

TWO PROMINENT CITIZENS PASS AWAY.

Bond Valentine Expires Suddenly on Friday-Death of Rev. Snyder at Atlantic City.

The people of Bellefonte and vicinity were much startled Friday morning to learn of the sudden death at 6.15 o'clock of Mr. Bond Valentine, one of the most esteemed citizens of the town. Mr. Valentine had been in his usual good health the previous day and retired at bed time in excellent spirits. He slept quietly until about six o'clock a. m., when one of his sons noticed something wrong with his breathing and in fifteen minutes afterward he was dead. Mr. Valentine was a son of Abram S. Valentine, one of the earlier residents of Bellefonte, and has left two sons, Bond and Edmund to mourn their great loss. Two brothers, Abram and Harry, survive him and also two sisters, Mrs. Pugh and Miss Clara Valentine. Mrs. Stewart Lyon, who died several years ago, was also a sister. Mr. Valentine's wife has been dead for a number of years. Bond Valentine was an excellent man and citizen and his death will be much and widely lamented. He was 55 years old on the 23d March last. The funeral service took place on Sunday afternoon from the residence of his sister Mrs. Pugh and was conducted by Miss Mary Snowden Thomas, of Baltimore, a member of the Friends Society. Mr. Valentine was one well known in this section and was held in high esteem by all who learned to know him as an acquaintance or through business transactions. He possessed those traits of character which constitute a true man: intensely honest, firm to his convictions and conscientious in all things.

On last Saturday the citizens of Bellefonte were grieved to hear of the critical condition of Rev. W. H. H. Snyder, pastor of the Reformed congregation of this place who had gone to Atlantic City for the benefit of his health. But later in the day the sad intelligence was received that the struggle was over and Rev. Snyder was summoned to his final home.

Rev. Snyder for some time previous had suffered very much from an eruption or sore on the face which gradually impaired his health and broke down his constitution. Hoping to regain his strength and for a rest a trip to Atlantic City was decided upon. While there the change was for the better until recently when a cold was contracted and resulted in pneumonia which terminated fatally on Saturday last.

Mrs. Snyder accompanied her husband to Atlantic City and remained by his side to the end. The two children Miss Mary and son Paul, were summoned to Lancaster where the funeral service took place on Tuesday afternoon.

Rev. Snyder was a graduate of Franklin and Marshall College of Lancaster and of the Theological Seminary then located at Mercersburg.

His first charge as pastor was in Alton, Ohio. He was called to Salem Reformed church in Harrisburg, where he labored a period of twenty-two years.

His health was feeble which impeded him to leave Harrisburg and come to Bellefonte where he hoped to recruit his health. He took charge of this congregation.

During fifteen years he was a member of the Board of Home Missions. During part of that time he was a member of the Executive Council and Secretary to the Board. When overtaken by death he was a member of the committee appointed to revise the constitution of the church.

A Candy Panic.

Candy purchasers and consumers will have to pay dear for the luxury this summer. Sugar has been forced up to such a high price by the Sugar Trust that the wholesale dealers have been compelled to raise the price of candy from 1 to 2 cents per pound, and to cut down the size of the stick. Prominent manufacturers of confectionery are very gloomy over the state of trade. "I do not know," said one "how much higher in price we will be compelled to raise our goods. I think that wholesale candy will soon be raised 5 cents more per pound, at least, before summer sets in. I expect that there will be a veritable panic in retail confectionery circles before many days."

The Championship Belt.

BALTIMORE, April 18.-The $1,500 diamond belt for which Kilrain and Sullivan will fight in July, was deposited to-day, by Mrs. Kilrain, with the Mercantile trust and deposit company for safe keeping. It will remain with the trust company until June 8, when it will be turned over to Cridge, the final stakeholder in the fight. The reason for this precaution is that should anything happen that the belt were not turned over to the final stakeholder at the agreed time, the $10,000 deposit of Kilrain's backer, as well as the belt itself would be forfeited.

FIRE AT TYRONE.

A Large Stable Destroyed-Death of a Well Known Citizen.

Sunday evening about 10:30, the large stable attached to the Empire hotel at Tyrone was destroyed with contents, including three fine horses, also a stable adjoining, belonging to Fred. Vogt, clothier. The property was insured. While William H. Carothers was on his way to the fire he took suddenly ill and was carried into a house where he soon expired. It is thought death was caused by heart disease. Mr. Carothers was 55 years of age and was master mechanic of the Pennsylvania railroad shops at that place for twenty-two years. He was a prominent and useful citizen and filled many borough offices, and at the time of his death was a member of the board of education.

-On Monday evening Messrs. W. L. Kurtz and Rev. W. E. Fischer, of Centre Hall, passed through here en route for Berlin, Somerset county. Mr. Kurtz, formerly member of the firm of Kurtz & Son., whose flouring mill was destroyed recently by fire will locate at Berlin and engage in the hardware trade with his father-in-law Mr. C. A. M. Krissinger. Rev. Fischer will make a week's visit to same place, his former home.

-The Hungarians and Finlanders celebrated Easter according to their own idea. On Saturday evening no less than twenty-five kegs of beer arrived by express for these foreigners, and they were on hand to receive it. Their employers, we are told, have notified the different hotels in this section not to sell them any kind of drinks and the result is that they buy beer in wholesale quantities from the breweries and the trouble has become greater than before. There is no use in trying to stop these parties from getting liquor as long as they want it and have the money to pay for it. In shutting off the privilege of buying it at the bar they make the matter worse. With from twenty to thirty kegs of beer in their possession they are a dangerous element in the community. Another affray like the Bernard Cassidy murder is likely to take place most any day in our community.

-A faker was in town on Monday and furnished considerable amusement and experience, as well, for the boys who were interested in his game. He procured a license from the Chief Burgess for the privilege of selling jewelry and no one could interfere with him. His plan was to have a lot of very cheap rings wrapped in paper which he disposed of at the rate of two dollars for five packages and as a special inducement enclosed $5 and $20 dollar bills in occasional packages. He did a brisk business and made many sales, but very few were fortunate enough to secure the prize. When the packages were opened they contained a brass ring with a strip of paper on which the following was printed: Advice to men and boys: Never try to beat a man at his own game, if you get beat always bear in mind you tried to beat the man, and last of all was: Bought experience is always the best education.

Spring Term of Court.

The Spring term of court opened with a large number in attendance. The morning session was devoted to the hearing of several motions and other minor work. Upon motion of C. M. Bower, Esq., Mr. Wm. J. Singer, was sworn and admitted to practice as a full fledged attorney. Mr. Singer was student in the law office of Orvis, Bower & Orvis during the past three years and passed a very satisfactory examination. He is a bright young man of considerable ability and is well qualified. He will have his office in the rooms of O. B. & O. where he will be ready to wait upon all who may need his assistance or counsel.

Mr. Samuel Frank of Rebersburg was appointed foreman of the Grand Jury. The first case tried was Martin Gates vs Platt, Barber & Co., and was concluded Tuesday by verdict for defendant. John B. ... was then appointed auditor of the effects of the Bellefonte Glass Company.

Commonwealth vs Wm. H. Mock, larceny. Tried by jury. Found guilty. Commonwealth vs Jacob Koch, surety of peace. Defendant sentenced by the Court to pay cost of prosecution.

Commonwealth vs Wm. Witmer, malicious mischief. Tried by jury. Defendant found not guilty, but pay the cost.

Commonwealth vs Levi Quick, f. & b. Grand Jury return ignoramus. County pay the costs.

Commonwealth vs Wm. Mulberger, f. & b. Settled by giving bond to Potter township in sum of $400.

Commonwealth vs Milton Herman, larceny. Grand Jury return ignoramus.

Commonwealth vs Abram Mills, larceny-stealing money and watch from Thos. Sheldon. Defendant pleads not guilty. Tried by jury and changed his plea to "guilty."

Commonwealth vs Mrs. Maggie Bosch and Frank Bosch, selling liquor without license. Grand jury return true bill.

Commonwealth vs Lemuel Brooks, f. & b., tried by jury; verdict, guilty.

Commonwealth vs Max Ezersky and Sam Leitzky, larceny of clothing at Phillipsburg, being tried

MATRIMONIAL DOINGS.

LIST OF MARRIAGE LICENSES GRANTED.

Who will be Married-Instead of Who was Married-Dare not use the Weed-Prize Fight.

Believing that the information as to who will be married is of more value to our readers than to know who was married, we will hereafter publish a list of marriage licenses issued as found on the Marriage Docket in the Register's office. This may not suit contracting parties but will be very interesting news to others. During the past week the following licenses were issued:

William Hannon, Bellefonte, and Miss Katie, daughter of Louina Bailey, Bellefonte.

George M. Eccards, Liberty twp., and Miss Laura, daughter of Samuel Hendricks, Liberty twp.

W. F. Miller, Hublersburg, and Elifira Harshbarger, Hublersburg.

J. L. Faust, Potters Mills, and Lydia Ann, daughter of Emma Royer, Potters Mills.

Chas. H. Rettinger, Schancks Run, Mifflin Co., and Mertie, daughter of John Shope, Milesburg. Married.

John McGowens, Osberopt, Clearfield Co., Pa., and Annie, daughter of Edward Burns, Phillipsburg, Pa.

Wellington E. Yearick, Spring Mills, and Mary E., daughter of Luther Stover, Spring Mills.

William Auman, Coburn, and Malinda E., daughter of Samuel Fryer, Coburn.

Orrie White, Julian, and Minnie, daughter of J. Hollinsworth, Bennzette.

Clayton Baney, Bellefonte, and Annie E., daughter of Eli H. Hull, Bellefonte.

Grant Ardrey, Martha Furnace, and Ida, daughter of James Hubler, Millheim.

James Nelson, Phillipsburg, and Annie, daughter of R. R. Dickson, Petersburg.

Crawford McFarlane, Tyrone, and Anna M., daughter of Thomas Weston, Port Matilda.

Dare Not use the Weed.

The rule of the Methodist church that prohibits its clergy from using tobacco is rigidly enforced by the New York Conference now in session in that city. Two of the ten candidates for the ministry who stood before the Bishop on Saturday were unwilling to take the anti-tobacco pledge that has been in force since 1880, but finally after they had been remonstrated with, they gave the desired answer to the Bishop's question, and henceforth, as long as they remain in the pulpit, they can neither smoke, chew, nor take snuff; they must totally refrain from indulgence in these practices, which are enjoyed by many of the clergy of other denominations.

How he was His Own Grandfather.

I married a widow who had a daughter. My father visited my house frequently, fell in love and married my step-daughter. Thus my father became my son-in-law and my step-daughter my mother, because she was my father's wife. My step-daughter also had a son, he was of course my brother and at the same time my grand-child, for he was the son of my daughter. My wife was my grandmother, because she was my mother's mother. I was my wife's husband and grandchild at the same time as the husband of a person's grandmother is his grandfather, I was my own grandfather.

Prize Fight Near Houtdale.

A prize fight with kid gloves for $500 a side took place at the opera house at Beaverton, near Houtdale, last Friday, between George Hogan, of Philadelphia, and an unknown of Altoona, Pa. In the eleventh round Hogan was knocked out. He was terribly beaten and was almost unrecognizable, while his opponent did not receive a scratch after the second round.

Awful Punsters Again.

Spades are trump and we pass, says the Carroltown News. Why not turn it down and rake in the sheekles? - Punxsutawney News. Hoe! lettuce turnip another trump. We seed Punxsy looking at the bottom of the deck head We've been over too long to let you fellows cabbage the stakes that way. -Ez. You are all a set of beats and this business must be squashed; some one ar-ti-choke you.

Annapolis Appointment.

Mr. Andrew Cruse, son of our townsman A. J. Cruse, received the appointment for the Cadetship to the Annapolis Naval Academy from this District this week. He takes the position made vacant by the death of J. Will Dinges, of Centre Hall.

-The down town business men have employed a man to keep the street sprinkled and save their stores from the clouds of dust which the wind carries through the dirty streets. On Allegheny street the dust is several inches deep at times and the merchants care very little whether it finally settles upon their goods or not.
