Proposed New Line from New Work of Muldoon the Wrestler York to Pittsburg.

TO PARALLEL THE PENNSYLVANIA. FIGHTER TURNED FARM LABORER.

Pittsburg via Ashland, Selinsgrove and Huntingdon, Connecting with Lehigh

PHILADELPHIA, May 21.-The plan for an independent railroad across the state to connect with the Lehigh Valley rail-road has been revived, and within the past two weeks efforts have been made to interest Philadelphia capitalists in the scheme. Since the South Penusylvania railroad fell into the hands of the Vanderbilts several new projects have been started and old ones revived. The one that is considered to have the best financial backing is the one which contemplates a connection with the Lehigh Valley at Ashland, and it is this one which has been brought to the attention will win the big fight in a canter at New of local financiers.

Line of the Proposed Road. The line of the proposed road is from Ashland due west to Pittsburg, passing through Selinsgrove and Huntingdon. The route is quite direct, and runs close to the Pennsylvania railroad for most of the distance. It is intended that the Baltimore and Ohio terminals at Pittsburg shall be used; while the Lehigh Valley is depended upon to receive and take care of the traffic delivered at Ash-

Engineers say that the route is a good one, although not as good as the South Pennsylvania. From Ashland to Selinsgrove the country is very mountainous, and the work will be exceedingly expensive. From Sclinsgrove west, however, the country is very fair, except in the Allegheny mountains section.

It Will Require $10,000,000. No exact estimates of the cost have been made, but work will not be begun unless at least $10,000,000 is subscribed. A portion of this amount has been secured, and the promoters are searching for more. The experience of the South Pennsylvania syndicate has not given much encouragement to investors, and very few monied men have as yet identified themselves with the enterprise. The promoters of it are pushing men, and feel confident that the road will ultimately be built. Lehigh Valley's Interest. It is not claimed that the Lehigh Valthat corporation is a traffic contract to exchange freight and passengers. The distance from New York to Pittsburg, by way of this route, is slightly less than the Pennsylvania's. The friends of the change talk of large profits that would any vicious attacks Bossie may make. since a large tonnage of anthracite coal could be placed in Pittsburg every year, and besides, the new line would compete with the Pennsylvania for local business at many points.

The Coal Trade.

PHILADELPHIA, May 21.-The coal trade shows some improvement, and dealers generally report a better demand. Orders have been accepted at slight concessions but prices are now firmer, and it is believed that there will be no necessity for making concessions in the fu-ture. Some of the mining companies have started additional breakers to keep their colliers from going to other fields. The resumption will give employment to thousands of men, some of whom have been idle for months. The Engi-neering and Mining Journal says the coal trade continues to show improvement, and that buyers are anxious to book orders at present prices, because on the 22d inst. a slight advance will be made, to take effect on June 1.

BRADECED, Pa., May 20.—Pugilist John Lawrence Sullivan is getting in form for his coming mill with Jake He means business, and since his arrival at Belfast, N. There was a bright luster in his eyes and a healthy glov, in his cheeks, "This will be the fight of my life," he said, "and I am going to win it or my parture that his intimate friends were name isn't Sullivan.'

"When I left New York with Sullivan," said Muldoon to an intimate friend, "I had orders to put him in trum in ten days. If I found that he was not in condition in that time, I was to telegraph Johnston, who would then forfeit the big stake of $10,000. Johnston was determined not to let Sullivan go into the ring unless he was in condition to win, and rather than see any fizzle in the ring was willing to lose his stakes and let the fight go by default.

Sullivan's Docility.

"Suffivan obeys me like a child," said Mr. Muldoon. "I have balled all the whisky and bad blood out of him, and in five days' training find him in splendid form. Up to yesterday I could out wind him in a wrestle, but today he fairly got the better of me. He knows that this is to be the fight of his life, and will put in his best licks. He is catching on to club, but would be specially pleased if wrestling like a thoroughbred, and will, Gen. Paine were selected. He does not in my opinion, whip Kilrain in twenty minutes. When he paralyzed Ryan he was able to whip two like him. If can get him into one-fourth as good a condition as when he fought Ryan no power on earth can save Kilrain.

Sullivan finds no time for mischief on Muldoon's 125 acre farm. He does all kinds of farm work. On Wednesday he put his hands to the plow and turned a big furrow. As a milkmaid, though, he is a failure. One of his duties every morning after getting up is to walk about two miles to the dairy, where he ley is interested in the scheme, and it is tries his hand at milking. Muldoon is of the opinion that over $500,000 will be staked on the fight, and he wants as much of it as he can get to place on Sullivan. Sullivan's arm does not trouble him a bit. He expects to train down to 195 or 200 wants. 195 or 200 pounds.

The earl says he gave the length of his yacht only as a matter of convenience, and the club can sail any length yacht they please against her. He also accepts Oct. 1 as the date of the first race, and is satisfied with the courses proposed. He thinks the start should be made at the specified time, if either contestant so desire, instead of leaving the question to the sailing committee solely. He will accept any umpire satisfactory to the feel competent to discuss the conditions on which the cup shall be held and challenged for in future, and suggests that this question be deferred until after the present race.
