

CATARRH,

Catarrhal Deafness and Hay Fever.

A NEW HOME TREATMENT.

Sufferers are not generally aware that these diseases are contagious, or that they are due to the presence of living parasites in the lining membrane of the nose and eustachian tubes. Microscopic research, however, has proved this to be a fact and the result is that a simple remedy has been formulated whereby catarrh, deafness, hay fever, laryngitis, etc., are permanently cured in from one to three simple applications made at home by the patient once in two weeks.

N. B.—For catarrhal discharges peculiar to females (leukites) this remedy is specific. A pamphlet explaining this new treatment is sent on receipt of ten cents by A. H. Dixon & Son, 304 West King St., Toronto, Canada.—Scientific American.

Sufferers from catarrhal troubles should read the above carefully.

Universally Lauded At.

The unthinking are prone to make gains of momentary affliction, the harassing symptoms of which are rendered all the more poignant by ridicule. The stomach is usually responsible for these symptoms—it's weakness and disorder find a reflex in the brain, which is the headquarters of the nervous system. As a nerve tonic and tranquillizer we believe that no one can be pointed out so effectively as Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. In removing vigorous digestion, it strikes the key note of recovery of strength and quietude by the nerves. Headaches, nervousness, all these modify and ultimately disappear as the system gains strength from the great tonic. Dyspepsia, biliousness, the inflammation of the stomach and kidney complaints are subdued by the Bitters.

BRODIE'S BIG JUMP.

The Champion Dare Devil Leaps Over Passaic Falls.

SAM PATCH'S AMBITIOUS RIVAL.

The Bowers Boy Makes the Most Perilous Leap of His Life in Safety—Glory, Not Gold, Was His Object—Says He Will Jump the Genesee Falls.

NEW YORK, May 21.—Yesterday Steve Brodie made the most perilous leap he has ever attempted. He stood on Eagle Point rock, the ledge extending over the Passaic falls, and leaped down into the canyon, 105 feet. He came up after thirty seconds on his back, his eyes closed and his face as white as chalk. He managed to turn on his stomach and swim to the shore, where he lay exhausted. He was revived with whisky, and has no serious injury.

This jump was the most perilous he ever made, as he fell among a chain of rocks on which he would have been smashed to death had he struck them.

He jumped for glory.

The jump was made on no wager or reward of any kind except a desire for fame. Brodie keeps a saloon on the Bowery, near Grand street, and a few days ago some Jersey men from Paterson were in his place when one of them remarked:

"There is a jump over our way you had better never try. If you do you will be killed sure."

"Why?" asked Steve.

"Well, several men who tried it have been killed, and on April 30 last a young man named Leach took a row boat to cross the Passaic river to go to a cemetery. On the way his boat got in a strong current which bore him rapidly towards the falls.

"Fearing that he would be swept over he jumped out of his boat and tried to reach the shore by swimming.

"It was useless. The tide bore him along like a feather, and he was dashed over the falls. His body has not yet been recovered," concluded the speaker.

Sam Patch's Leap.

Steve leaned on his bar for a moment and inquired:

"Did Sam Patch ever make the jump?"

"Not over the falls, but he jumped into the river from a tree in Passaic park, in Paterson, in 1842," was the reply.

"Well, I'll do better. I'll jump over the falls," retorted Steve, quietly.

The Jerseyman laughed derisively and went away.

Brodie was seen at his saloon on the Bowery by a reporter after his return to New York and he said:

"I am going to jump the Genesee falls some day, and then I am done bridge jumping forever."

His handsome little wife interrupted and said:

"The first time, Steve Brodie, that I hear you say jump again I will have you put in a lunatic asylum. I don't want to be left a widow," she ended, with a fond glance at him.

Brodie's highest leap was from the Poughkeepsie bridge, a distance of 230 feet.

More Presidential Appointments.

WASHINGTON, May 17.—The president has made the following appointments:

Solomon Hirsch, of Oregon, to be envoy extraordinary and minister plenipotentiary of the United States to Turkey.

Clark E. Carr, of Illinois, to be minister resident and consul general of the United States to Denmark.

Henry W. Severance, of California, to be consul general of the United States at Honolulu.

The Bridgroom Came Not.

CAMBONDALE, Pa., May 18.—Lights burned brightly, a wedding feast was prepared and the guests were assembled at the home of Miss Augusta Carroll. The young lady was to have become the wife of William Jones, a young tailor. No groom appeared, but a messenger boy came with a note saying that Jones had been called to the bedside of his dying father in New York. Jones' parents do not live in New York, but in Scranton, and the excuse is believed to be fictitious. The wedding is indefinitely postponed and Miss Carroll is overwhelmed with mortification.

Carnegie's Employees Suffer a Reduction.

PITTSBURGH, May 18.—Notice of a new sliding scale of wages was posted today at Carnegie's Homestead steel plant. It is made upon a basis of $7.50 for steel bloom, with the minimum at $5, and it is practically a reduction averaging 20 per cent. It falls heaviest on the best paid men, and cuts them in some cases 50 or 60 per cent. The employees had notified the firm that an advance in wages would be demanded July 1. The reduction will probably cause a strike of the 2,500 employees. If the strike is adopted the scale will probably be ignored in all the other steel mills.

A Miraculous Escape.

HAMBURG, Pa., May 16.—Richard Nice, a young man residing at Schuylkill Haven, having missed the regular train at this station, attempted to jump on a coal train on the Reading railroad, when he fell and was rolled along the track by the car boxes. His left arm was terribly lacerated, and is body is a mass of bruises. His escape from instant death was miraculous.

Two Hundred Buildings Ordered.

PHILADELPHIA, May 20.—The Standard Oil company has placed an order in Philadelphia for 200 buildings, which will be used to guard the Standard tanks in the Ohio field against tramps. Numerous fires have been caused by the pipes of tramps, and it is thought the buildings will keep them away.

Revising the Bible.

BOSTON, May 21.—At the meeting of the Baptist Publication society it was announced that the work of revising the Bible and New Testament is approaching completion, and that work on the revision of the Old Testament is proceeding satisfactorily.

WASHINGTON, May 21.—Secretary and Mrs. Noble left today to visit the Indian schools at Carlisle, Pa., in which the secretary is greatly interested.

"SPEAK EASIES."

Illegal Saloons That Are Said to Flourish in and About Pittsburgh.

PITTSBURGH, May 20.—Since the granting of licenses this year under Judge White's strict interpretation of the Brooks high license law, what are known as "speak easies" have sprung up in the rough districts throughout the city and county.

It is estimated that there are at least 500 of these places in Allegheny county that are selling liquor illegally. The county authorities seem to be paying but little attention to them, while the city police officials are preparing a list of those under their own observation, which they will furnish the county authorities.

Most of the liquor sold in these places is purchased from foreign dealers, the local wholesalers and growers being averse to accommodating them. It is estimated that more liquor is sold at the "speak easies" than at the regularly licensed saloons.

Postmasters.

WASHINGTON, May 16.—Fourth class postmaster appointments as follows: H. J. Bear, Ditar; C. D. Bennis, Pullington; J. E. McGrew, Finleyville; E. F. Hackman, Hatfield; D. W. Rank, Lime-toneville; Charles Roe, Mand; W. R. Vand-griff, Newportville; H. F. Groff, Perkins; E. W. Snyder, Point Marion; J. M. Levern, Putnam; J. E. McKelvey, Schwensville; S. Edward Merriam, Sheridanville; Philo Tulier, Toga.

WASHINGTON, May 16.—Fourth class postmasters were appointed as follows: Pennsylvania—Theophilus Jones, Allegheny; W. A. McMoritt, Hildersburg; Thomas McMillan, Bower Hill; A. N. Einger, Lillsburg; John C. Shertzer, Fairfield; N. S. Eversoll, Loyalville; Charles E. Beach, Milansville; B. C. Shearer, New Bloomfield; O. W. Meek, New Columbia; J. M. A Dedication at Gettysburg.

GETTYSBURG, Pa., May 17.—The corner stone of the Memorial chapel, built by donation of the late Col. John B. Brua, was laid before a large audience. Hon. Edward McPherson presided. Rev. M. Valentine, D. D., president of the college, offered the opening prayer, after which Mr. Charles Emory Smith, of The Philadelphia Press, delivered the oration, drawing lessons from the bravery displayed by both armies in this battle. Rev. P. C. Croil, of Schuylkill Haven, read a poem. President McKnight placed the box in the stone, and Rev. C. A. Hay, D. D., closed with the benediction.

Hon. Wayne McVeagh, who was on the program for an address, sent a letter of regret. The music rendered at the ceremonies was by the college orchestra.

Delaware Water Gap.

DELAWARE WATER GAP, Pa., May 20.—The numerous hotels and boarding houses at this favorite mountain resort are being rapidly brought into fine condition in anticipation of a successful season. As an indication that the mountain resorts are to be liberally patronized during the present summer the officers of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western railroad have called upon the proprietors of the several hotels of the place for a quantity of their circulars for distribution among frequent applicants at the offices of the company, inquiries being more numerous this than in former years.

Beaver Will Vote for Prohibition.

SHARON, Pa., May 17.—In reply to charges made by The Mercy Western Press that Governor Beaver intended bolting the prohibitory amendment on election day, the governor telegraphs to Hon. Samuel B. Miller as follows:

"I have never had any question as to my duty in regard to the amendment and will vote for it, of course, as I have always intended to do. The only question in my mind has been one of duty as a representative of the party. Without pretending to represent the Republican party, I expect to take ground publicly in favor of the amendment in due time."

A Cow Runs Amok.

CAMBONDALE, Pa., May 19.—An infuriated cow held high carnival on one of the principal streets here yesterday. On Tuesday she gave birth to a calf, and yesterday for the first time was separated from it and she became wild with anger. She rushed through the streets, head down, goring a boy about the body and cutting his head frightfully. Her next victim was a girl, whom she knocked down and injured seriously. Then she attacked a fence and tore it in pieces. The animal was finally quieted by the restoration of the calf.

AMENDMENT TO THE CONSTITUTION

Proposed to the citizens of this Commonwealth by the General Assembly or the Commonwealth for their approval or rejection at a special election to be held June 18, 1890. Published by order of the Secretary of the Commonwealth, in pursuance of Article XVIII of the Constitution.

Joint resolution proposing an amendment to the constitution of the Commonwealth.

SECTION 1. It is resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met that the following is proposed as an amendment to the constitution of the Commonwealth in accordance with the provisions of the eighteenth article thereof:

ANENDMENT.

Strike out from section one, of article eight, the four qualifications for voters which reads as follows:

"Every citizen, twenty-one years of age or upwards, who has resided in the State one year (or if, having previously been a qualified elector or native born citizen of the state he shall have removed therefrom and returned, then six months) immediately preceding the election."

And insert in lieu thereof the following: "Every male citizen, twenty-one years of age or upwards, who has resided in the State one year (or if, having previously been a qualified elector or native born citizen of the state he shall have removed therefrom and returned, then six months) immediately preceding the election, shall be entitled to vote at all elections."

Second. He shall have resided in the State one year (or if, having previously been a qualified elector or native born citizen of the state, he shall have removed therefrom and returned, then six months) immediately preceding the election.

Third. He shall have resided in the election district where he shall offer to vote at least two months immediately preceding the election.

Fourth. If twenty-two years of age or upwards, he shall have paid, within two years, a state or county tax, which shall have been assessed at least two months and paid at least one month before the election, so that the section which reads as follows:

"Every male citizen, twenty-one years of age, possessing the following qualifications, shall be entitled to vote at all elections."

First. He shall have been a citizen of the United States at least thirty days.

Second. He shall have resided in the state one year (or if, having previously been a qualified elector or native born citizen of the state, he shall have removed therefrom and returned, then six months) immediately preceding the election.

Third. He shall have resided in the election district where he shall offer to vote at least thirty days immediately preceding the election. The legislature, at the session thereof next after the adoption of this provision, shall, and from time to time hereafter may, enact laws to properly enforce this provision.

Fourth. Every male citizen of the age of twenty-one years, who shall have been a citizen for thirty days and an inhabitant of this state one year next preceding an election, except at municipal elections, and for the last thirty days immediately preceding the election, shall be entitled to vote in the election district of which he shall at the time be a resident and not elsewhere for all officers that now are or hereafter may be elected by the people. Provided, That in line of war or in the actual military service of the State or of the United States, in the army or navy thereof, shall be deprived of his vote by reason of his absence from such election district, and the legislature shall have power to provide the manner in which and the time and place at which such absent electors may vote, and for the return and canvass of their vote in the election district in which they respectively reside.

Fifth. For the purpose of voting, no person shall be deemed to have gained or lost a residence by reason of his presence or absence while employed in the service of the United States or the State, nor while engaged in the navigation of the waters of the State or of the high seas, nor while a student of any college or seminary of learning, nor while kept at any almshouse or public institution, except the inmates of any home for disabled and indigent soldiers and sailors, who, for the purpose of voting, shall be deemed to reside in the election district where said home is located. Laws shall be made for ascertaining, by proper proofs, the citizens who shall be entitled to the right of suffrage hereby established.
