in a school to be rented by the state.

The owners of the Mount Joy school offered to rent the building to the state for $500 a year, the commission to make necessary repairs, or $1,000 a year and the owners to make repairs. The school at Chester Springs was offered to the state for for $1,000 rental per year. It was decided to rent Mount Joy school for one year and at the end of that time the children will be put in other schools. The state will have entire charge and the present owners will have nothing to do with its management.

JOHNSTOWN RELIEF FUND.

The Committee Finally Decide Upon a System of Distribution.

JOHNSTOWN, Pa., Aug. 16.—The sub-committee of the flood relief committee concluded their conferences with the local committees and agreed upon a report which provides for the distribution of $1,149,514 to all of the classes as rated by the board of inquiry.

The first three clases are to be paid in full respectively, $1,000, $900 and $500 each, while the others are to get 30, 22 and 15 per cent. of their losses. If after a readjustment the calculation of the committee holds out, there will yet remain $800,000 to distribute, which will require another distribution unless it should be determined to give the amount to the eighteen counties that suffered by the flood in the eastern part of the state.

All Serene at Steelton.

HARRISBURG, Aug. 15 .- No further trouble is apprehended at the Pennsylvania Steel company's plant at Steelton. The restoration of the old wages has disposed of the feeling of unrest, and the men are all at work. It is not known what the outcome will be in the event of an organization of a sub-lodge of the Amalgamated Association of Iron and Steel Workers. Maj. Bent, president of the company, is unalterably opposed to the association, and he may take summary action if the men proceed with the organization, as they propose to do, on Saturday evening. For the present, however, all danger of a strike is past.

Swept Over the Falls.

Easton, Pa., Aug. 20.-Charles Keller, of Philadelphia, now bartender at the Union house, at Lambertville, N. J., accompanied by Mame and Winnie Colligan, aged 17 and 20 respectively, went out boat riding at that place and the boat and its occupants were carried over the fails. The boat capsized, the girls were drowned, and up to noon their rodies had not been recovered. Keller as found a unie below the falls, clinging to the boat, and was rescued. He is a stranger around Lambertville, knew nothing about the current of the river and falls, and did not even know how to by Judge Terry. row the boat. He and the girls' parents are prostrated with grief.

More Money for Williamsport.

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa., Aug. 15.—Mayor Foreman states that a few days since he received a letter from the Lumberman's Exchange, of Philadelphia, stating that they had a balance of flood funds on hand, and wanted to know where he would advise them to direct it. The mayor replied that in his opinion Williamsport was as much in need of the money as any part of the flooded district. The mayor received a check from the exchange, being the balance on band for $155.67 band, for $486.07.

To Inspect Carlisle's Indian School. WASHINGTON, Aug. 15.—Indian Commissioner Morgan left Washington for Carlisle, Pa., where he will remain a week at the Carlisle Indian Industrial school, familiarizing himself with its workings. Many of the Indian boys and girls at this school hire out to farmers in the surrounding country during the summer months. He will visit these also and see that they are with proper people and are gaining a practical knowledge of farm work.

Riotous Cokers.

SCOTTDALE, Pa., Aug. 20 .- A riot took place last night among the cokers of Farr's station, in which Mike Mislow, a Hungarian, was severely cut about the head and otherwise injured. Several others were seriously hurt. The cause of the riot is not exactly known, but is thought to be the outcome of jealousies brought about by the strike. Constable Sellenberger, of Mt. Pleasant, has arrested eleven Hungarians who took part in the riot.

Fell into the Fire.

BOYERTOWN, Pa., Aug. 15.—Mrs. Mary Schanley, an elderly lady residing sev-eral miles west of this borough, was building a fire in a stove, when she sud-denly fainted and fell into the flames. She was found soon afterwards in an unconscious condition with the flesh burned from one arm. Her escape from death was miraculous.

JUDGE TERRY SLAIN.

Sara Althea Hill's Husband Dies with His Boots On.

FOR INSULTING JUSTICE FIELD.

Latest Particulars of the Tragedy-How Deputy United States Marshal Nagle Got the Drop on the Fire Eater-Nagle in Custody-Justice Field's Version of the Affair-The National Government Guarantees Him Protection - Judge Terry's Adventurous Career.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 15 .-- When the southern overland train arrived at the station in Oakland a great crowd had collected, telegraphic intelligence of the Lathrop tragedy having preceded the arrival of the train and the sleeping car in which Justice Field was sitting was at once besieged by United States officials

Justice Fleld's Story.

"I can tell you the story in a few words. For the last few months a number of reports, both public and personal, have reached me that Judge Terry had threatened to subject me to some in-dignity if he should meet me. This fact caused the United States marshal to decide to provide such protection as he could during my stay in this state. When I started for Los Angeles to hold court Deputy Nagle accompanied me. He seemed to be a quiet, gentlemanly official, though I only met him twice while away from Los Angeles. He asked me in that city when I intended to return and accompanied me, taking a safter the warrant was served a writ of seat in the sleeping car opposite me. We heard that Judge Terry and his wife were on the train, but paid no attention heard by him in chambers. Justice Saw-ver cranted the writ and released Justice Saw-ver cranted the writer of the writer

The Encounter at Lathrop. When we arrived at Lathrop we entered the eating station to get breakfast. I took a seat at the end of the table. Nagle sat one side of me, Terry and his wife came in the room soon after. Mrs. Terry entered and went out of the room, as I afterward learned, returning to the car for her satchel. Judge Terry rose and I supposed he intended accompany ing her. Instead of doing so he walked back of me, and struck me a heavy slap in the face.

I was completely astounded and seeing he was making ready to strike again. Nagle cried out "Stop! Stop!" but Terry did not desist and as he was raising his aim a second time Nagle shot at him. the bullet entered his heart. He fell to the floor, Nagle shooting a second time, but the second shot not striking him. Nagle was arrested at Tracy and taken to Stockton to await the result of the inquest. That is the complete story so far as I am aware."

Government Protection to Justice Field. Protection was accorded to Justice Field, it is claimed, by authority of United States Attorney General Miller, who telegraphed from Washington to the marshal of the district to see that the person of the justice was protected at any hazard. The order extended also Judge Sawyer, of the United States cir cuit court in this city, upon whom Mrs. Terry made a personal assault last year while on a railway train accompanied

The order was based upon this fact and upon threats declared to have been made openly by Terry against Justice Field. Deputy Marshal Nagle was directed to accompany Justice Field under this order, and is said to have given Judge Terry full warning to stop when the latter began his attack upon Justice Field, and fired at Terry as the latter was about to strike the second time.

Justice Field left the overland train at the Oakland ferry and drove at once to the Palace hotel, where he was joined by his wife. He was not arrested, and the notice to the chief of police claimed to have been sent by the district attorney of San Joaquin, if forwarded, was not acted upon.

Terry's Eventful Career. David L. Terry was born in Todd county, Kentucky, in 1823. He served in the Texan army under Sam Houston. He came to California in 1849 and settled in Calveras county. In 1855 he was elected justice of the supreme court of California on the native American ticket, and upon the death of Chief Justice Murray in 1857 Judge Terry became chief justice. He was opposed to the vigilance committee of 1856, and stabbed one of the members of the memb one of the members of the committee who had attempted to arrest a friend of Terry's. Terry was held by the vigi-lantes but afterwards was released. He killed Senator Broderick in a duel in 1859 as a result of political differences.

In 1880 Terry was defeated as a Han-cock elector, although his associates on the ticket were elected.

Cause of the Tragedy. Last September he and his wife were the chief actors in a most remarkable case in Justice Fields' court. When a decision was read by Justice Field which was against Judge Terry's wife the latter arose in court and declared the judge was bribed. A United States marshal attempted to arrest the woman, and was knocked down by Judge Terry, who openly defied the court. For this Sam was sentenced to sixty days in prison while Judge Terry was given six prison, while Judge Terry was given six months.

Judge Terry was the counsel of Sara Althea Hill, who claimed to be the wife of Senator Sharon, and after the sen-ator's death and when the adventurous Sara was deep in most sensational liti-gation, he startled the people of California by marrying her.

Nagle and His Victim.

STOCKTON, Cal., Aug. 15.—The coroner arrived here with ex-Judge Terry's body in a box covered with white cloth, Mrs. Terry rode in the express car with the remains, accompanied by several friends of the deceased. When the body was taken off the car she followed and rode with it in an express warm to the with it in an express wagon to the morgue. She was distressed and de-clared that it was a most cowardly mur-clared that it was a most cowardly murder of an unarmed man. An inquest will be held.

Deputy Marshal Nagle was brought here in a buggy by Constable Walker, of Lathrop. When the overland train left Lathrop after the shooting Constable Walker got in the car and arrested Nagle. He rode with him to Tracy and there took a buggy to Stockton to avoid the crowd. When Nagle reached the jail he alignted from the buggy and came in with his coat covering his handcuffed hands.

SULLIVAN FOUND GUILTY.

The Jary Quickly Convicts Him-The Slugger Looks Annoyed.

PARVIS, Miss., Aug. 17.-Arguments In the Sullivan case were made by District Attorney Neville for the state and ex-Attorney General Ford and Judges Calhoun and Green for the defense.

The district attorney urged the jury to vindicate the good name of the state by showing that the law would be upheld. The requests to charge were then read. The jury, after being out an hour and a half, returned a verdict of guilty of prize fighting as charged in the first count of the indictment.

Sullivan looked annoyed, but otherwise showed no emotion. He left the court room with several of his friends and though apparently a little down hearted at first soon recovered his geniality. The case against Referee Fitzpatrick will be taken up today. Sentences will be pronounced later.

Justice lutter on the Terry Tragedy. Pittsbugo, Aug. 19.—Chief Justice Fuller passed through Pittsburg on the "limited" from Cresson Springs, Pa., where he left his two daughters, on his and newspaper men.

Justice Field maintained his quiet demeanor and narrated to a press representative the fellowing that Terry had uttered threats against Justice Field, but I did sentative the following particulars of not know of them personally. I was the shooting; Field had been arrested. I cannot see what he had to do with the murder any more than any other spectator. Judge Sawyer has issued a habeas corpus and Justice Field will no doubt be released.

> Justice Field Arrested and Released. SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 17.-The sheriff of San Joaquin county arrived here and served a warrant of arrest upon Judge Field at the latter's chambers, in the appraiser's building. There was some doubt as to whether the warrant would be indersed by a judge of San Francisco county, as required by law, but the in-dorsement was obtained. Immediately yer granted the writ and released Justice Field on $5,000 ball.

Judge Terry's Funeral. STOCKTON, Cal., Aug. 17.—The funeral of David S. Terry was held here. The body was removed from the morgue at noon and taken to the Episcopal church, where it lay in state for two hours and was viewed by a great num-ber of people. Mrs. Terry occupied a pew near the casket and watched the face of the dead man all the while. Several times she left her seat and threw herself upon the casket. The service was read by one of the vestrymen of the church. The body was interred in the cemetery in Stockton.
