The Grand Jury beg leave to remind the Commissioners that the yard in front of the Court House is in a very shabby condition, and is being used as a play ground, disfigured by pitching quoits and we are also informed that the Court House has been granted for holding exhibitions, band meetings, etc., which we disconnienance, as this is a MISUSE OF THE PUBLIC BUILDINGS."

Prohibition County Convention-A Lady Shoots Herself and Other News Items of Interest to our Readers.

On Monday morning a special session of Court was held to dispose of some matters not acted upon at last session.

The hearing of motions and the naturalization of three gentlemen from Snow Shoe was the principal work done.

In regard, to the proceedings against W. R. Tellar, to have his license revoked, the matter was continued to the next term of Court which, in fact, practically ends the matter.

Hearing of testimony against other hotel men was continued. Lem. Brooks was called and received the usual sentence for f. and b. Mr. Brooks, who claims to be innocent of the charge, refused to give bonds to pieces played being of his own composicomply with the sentence and preferred tion and were executed with a skill and to board on the hill with Sheriff Cook. If Mr. Brooks is clear of the charge, we admire his pluck in refusing to comprmise matters and take the sentence like a martyr.

Prohibition County Convention,

The Prohibitionists of Centre County will meet in mass convention, in the Court House, at Bellefonte, Pa., on a. m., for the purpose of nominating a county ticket, electing officers for the ensuing year and transacting such business as may come before the convention. All persons favorable to constitutional or statutory prohibition are earnestly requested to be present. The fight will not be given up until every American saloon is abolished. This cannot be done in a non-partisan campaign as was plainly shown in the election of June 18th. The Prohibition party is the only one that stands pledged for the total over throw of the liquor traffic and the preservation of our homes and institutions. Let every friend of prohibition help to make this convention the grandest ever held in the county. See that every vot ing precinct be fully represented.

Shot Herself.

Mrs. Jennie Mauck accidentally shot herself with a revolver at her home near Salona, Clinton county, on Saturday morning. The correct version of the sad occurrence is given as follows: Mr. Mauck hearing some disturbance in the chicken yard during the night, got up and secured his revolver and went to the barn. When he returned he placed the revolver on the window still at the head of the bed. The sash being partly hoisted, a slight rain during the revolver, and when they arose, about he can step out with a clean record in 7 o'clock in the morning, Mrs. Mauck 1892, when a Democrat will succeed him. seeing the revolver, picked it up and while in the act of wiping it off with a have to do without until some enter- cloth struck the hammer, when it was prising citizen comes forward and sup- discharged, the contents entering the person and passing through the heart. She gave a scream and fell, expiring in a moment. Mr. Mauck was engaged in dressing himself at the time it occurred.

He is busily engaged teem in which the DEMOCRAT is held by some of our contemporaries. The last article of that nature is one of the many found in the Daily News of this place, commonly known as "Bailey's Noose."

"To show the standing of the papers of Bellefonte, read the comments printed in this paper of the late Democratic county convention and then the comthe Republican county convention. The former was considerate and gentlemanly the latter low and abusive. The Daily News can be read by all classes with profit, and will make only such political criticisms as are justifiable."

REFORMED SOCIAL.

At the Home of C. M. Bower, Esq., last Friday evening

On last Friday evening there was a large gathering at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Bower, on east Lian street. It was composed of members of the Reformed church and others and was given as a sociable of that congregation.

Their new home which was built recently, is a large and spacious brick building, a model of architectural design and has a most desirable location. large hallway and spacious rooms are handsomely furnished; and they were well prepared to entertain a gathering of this kind.

An orchestra composed of young ladies and gentlemen of town, assisted by Miss Miller of Mifflinburg, rendered some fine selections during the evening. Prof. W. T. Meyer, was present and was called upon, and gave a number of renditions upon the piano, most of the expression that held all enwrapt in admiration.

The guests during the evening were invited into the dining room where elegant refreshments were served and all partook heartily. After refreshments there was another pleasant feature. District Attorney J. C. Meyer requested all to step into the Library and announced that Jas. C. Noll would address them. Mr. Noll arose an made a few happy remarks and then turned fo Rev. M. O. Noll, the present supply of the congregation, and informed him that as he was about to leave, the congregation wished to show their appreciation of his labors in thier midst and, in behalf of the members of the congregation, presented the Rev. gentleman with five volumes of Mathew Henry's commentaries on the Bible.

Rev. Noll was taken by surprise but replied in a most appropriate manner thanking the corgregation for this testimonial of appreciation.

Mr. and Mrs. Bower know how to entertain and all enjoyed a pleasant evening.

E. R. Chambers, Esq., Appointed.

In our last issue we stated that E. R. Chambers was an applicant for the Depu:y Revenue collectorship of this district. On Monday morning Mr. Chambers found among his mail a notice of his appointment which came a little earlier than was expected.

Shame! when God's servant must suffer for doing what God's word requires, and what their church demanded that they should do.

Delivered an Address.

Major R. H. Forster, of the internal affairs department, delivered the historical address at the dedication of the monument of the One Hundred and Forty-eight Pennsylvania volunteers, at Gettysburg, Major Forster is a soldier of two wars, the Mexican and civil, and is a writer and scholar of fine ability. His address will be worth preserving among the war literature of the country.

NEXT WEEK'S EXHIBITION

The Grangers of Central Pennsylvania Now Ready for a Grand Time

Tuesday morning next week, Septem ber 17, begins the Sixteenth Annual Grangers' Pic-nic-Exhibition of Central Pennsylvania, in Colonel Taylor's Fort. Woods at Centre Hall. The arrangements for a very successful week's meeting are all complete. Beside the large list of eminent speakers, lecturers and instructors the amusement programme is complete as well. The interior is carefully arranged and One of the attractive features will be finished in a most pleasing manner. The the cyclorama of Gettysburg, which to the grove by the railroads he is said alone will be worth many miles of trav- to receive ten cents. The restaurants el to see. C. K. The application for tents and exhibition privileges are far greater then were anticipated, but everybody will be properly cared for. It will be the largest gathering of farmers and their friends that was ever known in central Pennsylvania.

The Howard Iron Works to Start.

From one of our exchanges we take the following which we hope is correct of complaining. and hope in a short time the hum of industry will prevail in this establisment at Howard which has beed idle for considerable time. The article says:

The ironworks at this place consisting of forge and rolling mill has been purchased by John and Wm. Jenkins, the former of Milton and the latter of Bellefonte. These gentlemen are brothers, both self made, and have had an eye to business from their youth up. This they inherited from their father Mr. Wm. Jenkins, (now deceased) who was known all over the country as a leading business man. The necessary repairs are being rushed as fast as possible and by next week the puddling department will start up, and as soon as possible the forge department will follow suit. This makes everybody happy along the line. Our merchants are filling their stores with goods, and wear their Sunday clothes every day, and think nothing of setting up the cigars to the boys.

Assembly at the Bush House,

Invitations are out for an Assembly Ball, at the Bush House, Bellefonte, Pa. on Tuesday evening next, September 17th. The patronesses will be Mrs. D. H. Hastings, Mrs. J. H. Lingle, Mrs. C. F. -The new Catholic church is to be dedicated Saturday, October 13th. The building is not completed, yet is far enough advance for holding of regular services. This edifice is being built on a cash principle, that is pay for everything as fast as completed and when for its handsome structures and beautiful homes.

-Clinton County Grange extends a cordial invitation to the public of Clinton county to meet them at Agar's Grove (the old Welsh farm) near Mill Hall on Saturday, Sept. 14. > There is nothing in the notion that the fair is held under Granger auspices. That is simply a fancy of the Colonel's to work upon the farmer's credulity. He gets Grangers to address it, such as Piollet, weather prophet DeVoe and James A. Beaver, but these get a small share, if any at all of the profits. It is Thomas' big blow-out and since Thomas enjoys it and makes money out of it and people like to go there for fun for ordinary pleasure, to see the crowds, to get fleeced, to shake hands with old friends and for what not what's the use

Will not Exhibit at Williams Grove:

Trouble of no little consequence exists between many of the agents for agricultural implements, who have exhibited at the grangers' picnics at Williams Grove ever since the first of these big affairs was held, and the men who derive pecumiary benefit from the annual gatherings which thousands of people attend The agents claim that they were not treated right by the picnic managers in the matter of the running of trains and they declare that they will not again take their wares to Williams Grove. They evidently mean just what they say as they have already begun a movement to hold the next meeting of Grangers at Mt. Gretna. Mr. Robert Coleman, the manager of that place, has been consulted, and the terms which he proposes are highly satisfactory to the displeased agents. Mr. Coleman will charge them nothing for exhibiting their machines as is the case at Williams' Grove, and he will in other ways favor them and the other patrons.

One of the disgruntled exhibitors was seen recently and he said : "We have become tired of a few men making thonsands of dollars every year out of the Grangers' picnic by charging us big space rates. They want the newspapers to advertise their show for nothing and in short they are guilty of many selfish acts. There is no doubt that the big crowd will be at Mt. Gretna next year."

HALF RATES TO WASHINGTON.

For Knight Templar Conclave, via Pennsylvania Railroad.

The Triennial Conclave of Knights Templar will be held in Washington October 8th to 11th, 1889. The event will undoubtedly prove one of the most brilliant affairs in the history of the National capital. The grand parade of The Granger who makes the most | the brilliantly uniformed Kights, mounted on gayly caparisoned steeds, will be, in itself, " picture worth going miles to witness. Besides this there will be receptions, drills and other features of interest to others than Knights.

For the benefit of visitors the Pennsylvania Railroad company will sell excursion tickets to Washington from all stations on its system October 5th, 6th. 7th, and 8th, valid for return until October 31st, 1889, at a single fare for the

The specific rate from Bellefonte will be $7.60.

Feidler can't complain, certainly not. He gets all the county printing from the Commissioners and Tuten is left out in the cold. Now he bobs up and says he will get an $1800 per year plum while old party leaders and citizens of the town must take a back seat.

DR. J. W. NEFF, of Snow Shoe, is a graduate of one of the best medical institutions in the country and is meeting with much success in his profession. As Coroner of Centre county he will be the right man in the night place. Every Democrat will support him.

TO THE PUBLIC:

A new shoe store has been opened in room 7, Criders Exchange. The stock is bright and new, was bought from the best shoe dealers in Boston at spot cash prices, and will be offered to the people of Bellefonte and surrounding country at close margins. In connection with the store there is a room fitted up for Ladies and Children to try shoes until suited. All are cordially invited to call and examine the goods and prices, and we will accept the verdict.

Respectfully Yours
