

The Centre Democrat.

THURSDAY, Oct 10, 1889.

CHAS. R. KURTZ EDITOR

"The Grand Jury beg leave to remind the Commissioners that the yard in front of the Court House is in a very shabby condition, and is being used as a play ground, disfigured by pitching quots and we are also informed that the Court House has been granted for holding exhibitions, band meetings, etc., which we discontinue, as this is a MISUSE OF THE PUBLIC BUILDINGS."

They report the woods full of "pineys" and gray and black squirrels to be quite plenty. There are no beech nuts in the northern part of the state and there seems to be a sort of a general migration of squirrels this way.
—Mingle's shoe store is one of the old and well established business houses of Bellefonte. They do not sell goods away below cost or give them away, but handle solid and reliable goods and sell them at the most reasonable rates. After Delinquents.

An exchange is authority for the following. We make no comment, except to say, no doubt, many fail to pay for the paper they receive regularly, through negligence and others refuse to pay their subscription for it, in ignorance of the postal law. It is for those who would take a paper out of the post offices regularly, and when pressed to pay for it, refuse to do so.

A newspaper man in Ohio recently brought suit against forty three men who would not pay their subscriptions, and obtained judgement in each case for amount of each claim. Of these, twenty eight made affidavit that they owned no more than the law allowed, thus preventing attachment. Then under the decision of the Supreme Court, they were arrested for petty larceny and bound over to the sum of $900 each.

All but six gave bond, while six go to jail. The new postal law makes it larceny to take a paper and refuse to pay for it.

Refusing Newspapers.

Once in a while every newspaper office receives a copy of their paper marked "refused." Nine cases out of ten the party returning it are indebted to the office for subscription. It will be interesting to such to learn that the latest postal laws are such that newspaper publishers can arrest any one for fraud who takes a paper and refuses to pay for it. Under this law the man who allows his subscription to run along for something unpaid and then orders it discontinued, or tell the postmaster to mark it "refused" and have a postal card sent notifying the publisher, lays himself liable to arrest and fine, the same as theft, etc.

An Austrian Killed.

An accident occurred at Collins' furnace last Saturday evening and resulted in the death of an Austrian employee of the company. He was working at the top of the elevator and was in the act of taking coke from the cage which gave away when he stepped on it. It fell to the bottom, a distance of over a hundred feet. When the unfortunate man was picked up he was found dead, having a number of bones broken and sustained other serious injuries. He was buried on Sunday.

Tips Upon Trousers.

Trousers are midway between the tight and the loose. The sort called moderately wide are what the man or youth of taste will wear this fall and winter. In patterns, down stripes, plaids and checks are all good. In the latter small effects are recommended.
When you buy a coat see that the collar sets well. Many a man, otherwise well-dressed, has his appearance marred by being indifferent to the aspect of this very important detail of his attire.

Death of George W. Rhoads.

On last Monday night Mr. George W. Rhoads, of this place, died at his home. Mr. Rhoads had been in ill health for some time, was a man of about 40 years and his death was not looked for by his friends and family. He leaves a wife and child.

Spring Mills.

On last Sabbath, one week ago, the new church of the Evangelical Association, at Spring Mills, was dedicated. Rev. West, Agt., of the publishing house at Harrisburg, preached in the morning and Rev. A. E. Gobble, President of Central Pennsylvania College, preached in the evening. Rev. Voght of Centre Hall circuit, Rev. Shambaugh, the former pastor, and Rev. D. M. Wolf of the Reformed church also assisted the pastor, Rev. Beaumont, in the dedicatory services. The indebtedness of the church was $500, of which about $300 were subscribed at the morning service and the balance at the evening service. The Evangelical people of Spring Mills have now one of the prettiest little churches in the valley. They can also feel proud of the fact that they have not only paid their entire church debt, but also paid their pastor their share of his salary in full before he left for Oregon. The entire cost of this church was about $1,800. On Monday following, their pastor and his family took their departure for the sunny slopes of the Rocky Mountains where he expects to continue his work for the Great Master of the Vineyard.

Warren Krise commenced teaching at Coburn on last Monday, and Harry Jamison did the same down near Woodward.
Allison Bros. are repairing their mill dam which had got into a somewhat leaky condition.
C. P. Long, our enterprising merchant, was to the city of Brotherly Love last week and purchased almost enough new goods to stock a new store.
Maj. J. B. Fisher is enlarging his store room at Penn Hall. When finished it will be one of the finest rooms in the valley.

D. Bible who purchased the old Grenoble lots is pushing with vigor the erection of his store building. He expects to be selling goods inside of two months.

Unionville Gilberts.

Miles Gephart realized the full force of the maxim, "a miss is as good as a mile" on last Thursday. He missed the train for Bellefonte by three fourths of a minute by his Waterbury.

Miss Southey Basford is lying seriously ill of that much dreaded disease, consumption.

Squirrels are abundant in this vicinity and hunters ditto. Out of thirty two shots fired by Peck Greist, he brought down three "pinties."
Much complaint is being made by the citizens at the exorbitant price of school books. Talk about your trusts and combines, there is no class of goods on the markets upon which so much profit is realized as that upon school books by the publishers. Is there no remedy.

Joe Bing is now the happiest man in Unionville. Twins by Golly—both sexes represented. Poor Joe! Happy Joe!
Mr. Bowman of Philipsburg, has moved into our beautiful town and we are informed will start a marble yard at this place in the near future.

October Excursion to Niagara Falls.

An autumnal trip that is being looked forward to with marked interest is the personally conducted special excursion to Niagara Falls over the Pennsylvania Railroad on Tuesday, October 15th, 1889. The train will leave Washington at 7.10 A. M., Baltimore 8.20 A. M., stopping at principal stations on the Northern Central Railroad, while all necessary arrangements will be made for those who reside on the main line and branches of the Pennsylvania Railroad, and who intend participating in the excursion, to join the special train at the principal junction points. Tickets will be good to return until October 24th inclusive, and a stop-off will be permitted at Watkins Glenn in either direction. If all-rates tickets will be issued to children between the ages of five and twelve years. On the date named train will leave Bellefonte at 9.32 a. m. Excursion rate $7.55.

He Wanted Medicine to Bring Back His Wife's Affections.

Several of the drug stores in Tyrone were visited last week by a man, evidently a stranger, but who appeared to have plenty of money. In each case he asked for the proprietor and on being shown the gentleman, made known his business. He was in quest of a medicine, he said "which would bring back the affections of his wife, who he feared had ceased to love him." When told by one of our druggists that no such drug was kept in their stores and that some one was trying to make a fool of him, he declared his intentions of visiting all the stores in this section until he found it and when he did he would have it no matter what the charges were. Whether he secured his "love drops," or whether he is still in search of them, has not yet been ascertained.

Death of Wm. Musser of Millheim.

On last Friday evening ex-sheriff Wm. Musser, of Millheim, died at his home. Mr. Musser had been in failing health for some time and his recent illness was too much for him to withstand. He was sheriff of this county many years ago, and was an ardent democrat. He was well known in this county and in his community was a prominent figure.

Garman-Maitland Wedding.

The beautiful residence of Mr. Daniel Garman, on High street, was thronged on last Thursday evening by a large assemblage of relatives and friends to witness the marriage ceremony which united Miss Minnie Garman and Mr. Isaac Maitland in the bonds of matrimony. The large and spacious apartments of the home were well suited for such a gathering. The interior was lighted, and tastefully decorated with smilax, ivy and rich hued autumn foliage, in a manner suitable for such an occasion.

At seven o'clock the guests were gathered in the parlors and awaited the bridal party. Miss Candor, of Lock Haven and Miss Lumley of Williamsport came first and separated the anxious throng by extending ribbons through the parlor. Messrs Jerome Harper and Will Garman, a brother of the bride, acted as ushers. Mr. Isaac Maitland, the groom, and Dr. Hertz, came next, then Miss Rebekah Garman and Mr. Ira D. Garman, brother and sister of the bride, followed Miss Minnie Garman, the bride, accompanied by her father came last. At the eastern portion of the parlors they took their position before Rev. Davis, of the Episcopal church, who conducted the ceremony in a touching manner which joined the young couple as partners in life.

After the ceremony elegant refreshments were served, after which a short time was spent in social diversions and pastimes. The bride and groom left on the 8.45 p. m., train for a trip to Washington city and other points of interest. They will make Williamsport their future home.

What Advertising Does.

The Reading Railroad Company furnishes a splendid and instructive illustration of what can be done by advertising says the Reading Times. At the beginning of the season the company entered upon a liberal policy of newspaper advertising for the Atlantic City line and the result, according to the Philadelphia North American, has been that the receipts have increased nearly a hundred per cent. over last year, while in July and August alone there was a surplus of $27,000 after all fixed charges of the consolidated lines had been paid. And all this was done not at the expense of its competitors, but by new business which has been attracted by the advertisements. This shows what judicious but liberal advertising in newspapers will do, and the example applies to every corporation or individual that seeks a market.

—A sad and fatal accident occurred recently at a railroad crossing about two miles east of Huntingdon. Ephraim Hazlett, a wealthy farmer living near Allentown, started on his homeward journey a little after one o'clock, going along the old turnpike which runs parallel with the railroad and frequently crosses it. Mr. Hazlett had journeyed over this road twice a week for twenty years. Friday at the crossing referred to, his wagon was struck by the third section of day express, and he and one of his horses were instantly killed. There was scarcely a spot on Mr. Hazlett's body that was not bruised or lacerated. His back was broken, likewise his thighs, legs, left arm and several ribs, and his face and head was catabled with deep cuts, incisions and fractures. Evidences were present to show that when the accident occurred he was eating a lunch while driving. After the body was viewed by the coroner's jury it was given into the hands of the relatives of the deceased.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

FOUND IN THIS ISSUE OF THE "DEMOCRAT"

Some of the wide awake business men of Bellefonte—They know the value of Printers ink—The road to success.

By glancing over the columns of this issue a number of new advertisements will be found. The fall and winter season is here and everybody will be in need of something. Where to get it? and who has it? is often a difficult question to settle. By carefully reading advertisements in this issue you will not be at a loss.

The Philadelphia Branch is a familiar name to our readers and the proprietor, Samuel Lewin, is well known throughout the county. He deals entirely in clothing and enjoys a large patronage which he has won by selling reliable goods only and at the most reasonable prices. His advertisement, occupying one fourth of a page, will be found elsewhere in this issue.

The furniture rooms of Camp & Nagney are filled with an immense stock this season and they have taken a large portion of our space to let the people know what they have. This is an enterprising firm and sell an immense amount of furniture. Read what they have to say.

Then there is "The Racket" with its energetic, wide-awake proprietor, Mr. G. R. Spigelmeyer. "The Racket" is one of the new stores in Bellefonte and suppose it is called "The Racket" because it is making a big racket, and is stirring up some of the slow, easy and high priced dealers. "The Racket" can show bargains in almost every line of dry goods, notions, novelties, etc.

Powers' shoe store has a word to say in regard to their line of goods. This is an old and well established house and handles everything in the line of foot wear. Ed. Powers, the proprietor, has been in the shoe business many years and his experience enables him to buy cheap and sell accordingly. Read what he has to say.

Simon Loeb demands a quarter of a page of the DEMOCRAT, for the next three months, to reach his many customers throughout the county. Mr. Loeb's store is a new business house in Bellefonte, yet it enjoys a large and increasing patronage. He carries a complete line of clothing and furnishing goods, and can suit any one.

As we have given a large portion of our paper to advertisers we have not cut in on the regular amount of reading matter which has been increased by printing a supplement.
