—Frank B. Gallagher, an employee on the railroad between Tyrone and Phillipsburg was killed on Monday while running a hand car. His coat got in the gearing which threw him on the track and the wheels crushed his leg and sustained other fatal injuries from which he died.

—Milton Cherry, of Tyrone, a brakeman on a freight train on the Bald Eagle Valley road, was pretty badly hurt at Milesburg on Tuesday. He was standing on the platform of his train looking back when he was struck by the passenger train coming east. His hurts will not prove fatal, but his head is badly bruised.

—Will Hoffer, of Atchinson, Kansas, is visiting friends and relatives in this section. About seven years ago he started for the western country where he has been engaged in printing and for a time edited a Democratic paper. Will is a bright young man and still clings to the Jeffersonian principles. He expects to remain at Huntingdon a few weeks, the home of his parents.

—T. B. Hyskell, of Warriorsmark township, Blair county, had as he thought unhurt his team of horses and started to take them to water. One of the traces, however, had not been unfastened, and when the team started the wagon went also. The horses became frightened and started to run when Mr. Hyskell was thrown down and the wheels of the heavy wagon passed over his person. His nose was broken, one of his legs badly sprained and he was generally roughly treated.

—Lumberman Crider is pushing his lumber job in Hull's Gap, up Fishing Creek, with remarkable rapidity. He wants a hundred men. The saw mill, boarding houses, stables, etc., are all up and almost finished. The one boarding house for the men in the "Bear Springs" in "Reo Valley," Petersburg, in Nittany Valley, will yet become a place of note and celebrity. A post office is also talked of. Some new houses will be built, and other evidences are manifest that in the near future a village of some importance will spring up. —Lock Haven Express.

—They say Walter Bayard has some notion of taking out a marriage license for himself and a young lady of Pennsylvania. Old "Dame Rumor" got the credit for similar stories heretofore, but this one is given out as a genuine bore side fact. If it is not a little previous we extend our congratulations.

We stopped the press to announce that the happy event will take place on Wednesday, Nov. 5th, and the bride will be Miss Laura Strohm, of Centre Hill.

BOOZY AT SNOW SHOE.

COLLAPSE OF THE REPUBLICAN SIDE SHOW.

Too Much Enthusiasm Gets Possession of the Boys.—A Howling Mob Got Fired out of a Restaurant.—Disgusted the People.

On last Wednesday afternoon the Bellefonte "Poodle Bosses," some six or eight in number, started for an extended tour through Snow Shoe, Rush township, Phillipsburg and other points of that section to exhibit their curiosities—Fleming and Gray, candidates for Prothonotary, and District Attorney, on the Republican ticket. The troupe consisted of Boss Brown, Jim Feidler, of the Gazette, Sheriff Cooke, the horse jockey, and Jack Dale, the tail end of a law firm.

This combination arrived by carriage at Snow Shoe, on Wednesday night, in all their pomp and splendor and registered at the Mountain House.

J. I. Yarnell, the Republican post master, of Snow Shoe, issued invitations which read in this fashion: "Special friends are invited to meet Chairman Brown, Candidates Fleming and Gray, in Room 17, Mountain House, Wednesday evening, Oct. 16." This is a new wrinkle in politics as it is customary for candidates to visit the people instead of the people running after starchy, aristocratic office-seekers and hoodle politicians. Another strange feature is that these bosses did not want to see the ordinary day laborers and common people but wanted only

SPECIAL FRIENDS.

The result of this invitation was that the meeting was attended by a few Republicans, and the enthusiasm would not come forth until a cork screw was pressed into service. Then the boys in No. 17 grew quite hilarious and their spirits soon became stronger. What occurred later on in the night is the common talk about Snow Shoe and we believe it is true as it comes from the reliable citizens of that place.

At about 12 p. m., in the middle of the night, the gang in No. 17,—Bellefonte bosses and "special friends"—marched up through Snow Shoe making a noise and arousing the people from their quiet slumbers. They happened to find Dixon's eating restaurant still open, and there they halted. More enthusiasm was drawn from their pockets and in a short time they had possession of the restaurant. At two o'clock the enthusiasm had possession of the crowd and the restaurant as well. They became unmanageable and began fighting and kicking up a row, and broke Mr. Dixon's furniture. He could not stand it any longer and opened the front door and fired the boozey gang into the street where he said they belonged, as he was not accustomed to feed cattle in his house. This was the grand finale of the Republican troupe at Snow Shoe, as they packed up their traps the next morning and took their two curiosities on to Phillipsburg, where the same scene was repeated in a milder form.

The citizens of Snow Shoe are thoroughly disgusted with the visit of the Republican side-show and say that if they are the representative men of their party they are sorry for the party. While this scene was enacted at Snow Shoe under the direction of the chairman of the party, Col. D. S. Keller, the former chairman of the Prohibition party, was down in Gregg township urging Democrats to vote the Prohibition ticket and Republicans to vote the Republican ticket.

Important to Lumbermen.

Next Saturday forenoon an opportunity will be given to lumbermen and speculators to invest in valuable timber land. The sale will take place at the Court House, at 10 a. m., and will be conducted by C. M. Bower, Esq., trustee of the Randolph Mullholland estate, which comprises about ten-million feet of white pine timber with hemlock and oak of fine quality. This land is located in Burnside township this county. A farm located in Benner township will also be sold at the same time. See advertisement in this issue.

An Oyster Supper.

It is proposed by the Woman's Relief Corps, of Bellefonte, to give an oyster supper on Saturday, the 29th inst. The proceeds will be for the benefit of the G. A. R. The ladies have been using the room as their place of meeting, and they intend to use the proceeds in the purchase of articles of ornament to the rooms. A chicken and waffle supper will be served also.

The Sugar Valley Railroad.

The force of laborers at work in Sugar Valley on the Bellefonte and Eastern Railroad has been increased this week. The principal work to be done this fall is on deep cuts. There seem to be good reasons to look for a speedy completion of the road.

—All the New Woolens for the coming season now being received. Liberal discount for early orders, during the dull season. Our Fall stock will be the finest we have ever shown. Prices and a fit guaranteed.

MONTGOMERY & Co., Tailors.

—Loeb's clothing store has anything you may want in that line.

CAN THEY EXPLAIN?

The Republican papers are devoting a great deal of space to misrepresenting Schaeffer; might they not turn their columns to more valuable use by explaining to the tax payers some of the following questions which are of great interest to all:

What has become of the $38,000 left in the county treasury by Messrs Griest and Wolf, when they went out of office two years ago?

Why have the taxes been raised on Democratic districts like Penn, Potter, Haines and Ferguson twps., and lowered upon Republican districts like Patton twp., Howard boro., and College twp? Is this just?

If Henderson could run the county on a tax rate of 2 mills why did the Republican board of commissioners lay a tax of 2½ mills and increase the taxes almost several thousand dollars more than last year? Have they squandered the moneys?

Why is it necessary for Messrs Henderson and Decker to hang around the commissioners' office six days out of every week and draw their salary every day in the year? The former board, Wolf and Greist, met during court weeks, and once every two weeks, only to transact business. Are Henderson and Decker not farming that office at the expense of the tax payers?

If the court house was built by the tax payers of Centre county, what authority do the commissioners have to allow it to be used for exhibitions, entertainments and band meetings twice every week? Is this not a misuse of our public buildings and an injustice to the tax payers?

The contract for the Milesburg bridge was given to a political beeler without a public letting. Does this not smatter of official jobbery and a steal from our county? Could more be expected from a man like John C. Henderson, whose career while living at Osceola is sufficient to impugn his honor or integrity? Is not a man who is so miserly as to live on crackers and a five cent bowl of soup a disgrace as a Commissioner of Centre county?

Did John Henderson ever pay the county for the load of plank he hauled from the Port Matilda bridge to his home two years ago? We never saw him charged with them and the people of that section want to know how he paid for them. Is Henderson a plank thief? Will he explain?

Is a man who is guilty of attempting to assault a girl a fit man for sheriff of Centre county?

Should the Sheriff of Centre county be allowed to continue his practice of over charging people who are in financial straits and in distress? Should he not be compelled to refund and disgorge this money stolen from the people?

Is not such a man and official a burning disgrace to this community and county?

Spring Mills.

Mr. Richard G. Eisenhart, now of Horsehead, N. Y., paid a pop visit to his Spring Mills friends last Friday and Saturday. Mr. Eisenhart still retains an interest in the Spring Mills and Rebersburg creameries.

W. Fred Krumrine, son of the late Henry Krumrine, received a check of $50 from the State Relief Commission for loss sustained by the flood of May 30. Mr. Krumrine was operating a shingle mill in Lycoming county, not far from Jersey Shore, at the time of the great inundation. Since then he has been at the old homestead.

David Bible's new store room is up and under roof.

Wm. Barree and wife and child paid a short visit to Mr. Barree's parents in this place. On last Saturday they returned to Altoona.

Michael Leitzel, who is working at his trade in Johnstown, talks of buying and building there.

Killed by a Falling Tree.

Charles Bowers, of Julian Furnace, aged seventeen years, who has been working for Jack Nason on Forge Run, as a woodsman, died last Thursday from the effects of a serious accident that happened to him on Wednesday. A companion was in the act of cutting down a tree, and just about the time it began falling the usual signal was given to get out of danger. Young Bowers hastily got out of the way, but he evidently became bewildered, as he turned around and ran under the tree. It struck him on the head, producing a severe fracture of the skull, throwing him into an unconscious state, in which he remained until death ensued. He was buried at his late home at Julian Furnace on Saturday.

Little Milesburg Girl Hurt.

Little Blanche Harvey, of Milesburg, was run over by a horse and buggy in Williamsport on Friday afternoon, just as she was about to enter a street car. The little girl is about six years old and was with her parents, who have been visiting relatives in that city. The injuries while painful are not serious and it was thought that Blanche would be able to be taken home that-day.

—Powers' shoe store is filled from end to end with an immense stock of goods. Prices most reasonable.

AGAINST THE COWS.

Fleming Worked Hard Last Spring to Have Cows Penned up.

Last Spring the question as to whether the poor people of Bellefonte should be compelled to keep their cows penned up, or let them pasture on the hills and large grass plots on the border of the town, was left to a vote of the people. Persons who were rich could afford to buy their milk and butter, but the poor laboring man would be deprived of these articles of food if their cattle would have to be penned up.

In this fight W. L. Fleming, the aristocratic and starchy tailor, did all he could to defeat the poor man's ordinance. He worked hard and late against the poor man's interests. Fleming had the money to buy these articles of food and the laboring man could not. That is the difference.

Since Fleming is a candidate for Prothonotary he is very much interested in the laboring man's welfare. Last year he voted and worked against their interests and now he has the cheek to ask for their support.

The tobacco-begrimed, whiskey-soaked editor of the nose-rag, sitting behind the calico curtain which hides himself and his cohorts and their dirty doings from the outside world, got off about a column and a half of stuff and nonsense in his issue of last week concerning the candidacy of Mr. L. A. Schaeffer for reelection to the office of Prothonotary. The article purported to have been written by a Marion twp., Democrat, but the most obtuse reader of the sheet could tell at a glance that it was nothing more than a combination of the various squibs heretofore written by Jimmy Fiedler himself.

And the whole purport of the article was to prejudice the minds of the voter. Not one argument why Schaeffer should be defeated or why Fleming should be elected appeared in the whole article from beginning to end. It was all intended to prejudice, and that is characteristic of every political article which Mr. Fiedler writes. But there is where he mistakes the intelligence of Centre county voters. Very few are constituted like James Alvin Fiedler. The great majority of Centre county men read, observe, think and vote through their intelligence, not their prejudice. Does the stupid editor of the Gazette suppose for a moment that the people of Centre county prefer a man who has had no training, no education, no experience in any thing that would fit him for the responsible position of Prothonotary, the office wherein the great bulk of the legal business of the county is transacted, to one who has all those qualifications, training, education and experience.

Does he suppose that they would exchange a man who has been tried and proved honest, faithful, capable, courteous and accommodating to one who has not been tried—a certainty for an uncertainty. We think not. And that is the difference between the two candidates, Schaeffer and Fleming. Schaeffer has served as Prothonotary almost three years. In that time he has, by his liberal interpretation of the fee bill, saved to the people, as shown by an article in another column, many hundreds of dollars, thus showing himself an honest man. Every body having had anything to do with the office during his administration will testify to his faithfulness and capability, and that he has been a courteous and accommodating officer goes without saying. Lew, as he is familiarly called, was born and raised on the farm and knows by experience the trials and hardships that farmers and laboring men have to endure. Having experienced these hardships himself, he has sympathy for the laboring classes, and the farmers and laboring men know it. They know that they will be made to feel at home in the Prothonotary's office so long as he remains in charge. And although Mr. Schaeffer makes no loud profession of love for the soldier, yet the veterans well know that in him they have a friend to whom they can go for anything within his power to give, and that too without fee or hope of reward. As for Mr. Fleming, the Republican candidate, we know nothing. All is uncertain. He has never been proved. His lack of clerical training does not speak for him for so important a position as he now seeks; and the fact that during his whole life he has been surrounded by city influences, imbibed city ideas, cultivated city manners and never until he became a candidate sought to make friends among any but those who were raised, thought and dressed like himself, is the best evidence that all classes would not receive the same cordial treatment at his hands.

If the Gazette man thinks the average Centre county voter doesn't know a good thing when he sees it, we predict that he will receive enlightenment on the subject on the evening of November 5th, notwithstanding the fact that the machine will do all in its power to pull the ring candidate through by the use of all measures fair and otherwise.

Cyrus H. Meyer and Sarah Winklebleck, both of Haines twp.

The Gazette claims the appointment of W. C. Port an old soldier, and present post master at Pine Grove Mills, as an appointee for the Harrison administration. This is not true. Mr. Port was appointed about January 1st, 1889 by the Cleveland administration, because he was an old soldier and unable to do much manual labor. The stay at home Republicans have been trying all summer to have him removed.

LAWYERS who have any respect for themselves or regard for their professional standing never run the streets to drum up business. The Republican candidate for District Attorney button-holes men on the street and solicits their legal business. To act as good lawyers do, he would have no business. Voters can not afford to support such a man for District Attorney.

CHANGE OF PUBLISHERS.

The Daily News and Republican under the Management of Newton S. Bailey.

On Monday of this week editor Tuten retired from the Bellefonte Republican and the Daily News and Newton S. Bailey has assumed the position of editor and publisher. For a number of years Mr. Bailey had been connected with that office as associate editor and manager and is well qualified for his new undertaking. Last week we announced that Mr. Bailey expected to leave for the West, but as Mr. Tuten was anxious to retire from the newspaper business, the change was made and our young scribe will remain with us. We wish Mr. Bailey success in this new undertaking.

The Beech Creek Road.

The Beech Creek railroad will soon enter Williamsport over its own tracks and its extension to Pittsburg is only a matter of time. This the Vanderbilts have determined on and they will not rest until they have a connecting line between New York and the Iron City entirely owned by themselves. Well, the more competing trunk lines that may be built the better for the people who have to use them.

WILL E. GRAY the Republican candidate for District Attorney is a demagogue and not a lawyer.

—Mr. Ed. L. Powers, the wide-awake shoe dealer, is on the sick list.
