A DEAD INFANT

Found on Friday Afternoon,-The Mother Arrested.

On last Friday even this cummunity was startled by the intelligence that the body of an infant was found in the woods near town, and that it was pl there by a young woman who was soon placed u: der arrest and is now in jail to answer the charge of infanticide.

The facts as we were able to learn from the District Attorney are as follows: Late Friday afternoon a young woman was seen walking out the pike from Bellefonte towards the Centre Iron Works, and from there went up the road to Wm. Houser's farm. She carried a bundle wrapped in a newspaper. She passed the house of Willi m Saylor and was noticed by members of the family. The woman went up the road a short Tuesday's election is over-the Belle. distance and laid the package down but noticed that she was being watched, tnenpicked it up and went into the woods ond came back without the packi ge.

Alice and Bella Saylor went up into the woods and found the package which was covered with dirt, leaves, a large stone and a piece of wood. They untied the bundle and were horrified to find in it the body of a male infant probably two days old.

They at once followed the woman to Bellefonte and informed Sheriff Cook of the affair. A warrant was procured, on the charge of infanticide and the young woman was arrested at the Bush House where she has been employed for some time as a domestic. She gave her name as Annie Kriner. She was given a hearing before Justice Linn and was done this far is only a sham to obtain a The returns from other parts followed, committed to jail for further trial. A coroner's jury was empanneled that evening and their verdict was that it was an infant about two days old and that death resulted from hemorrhage of the chord, either through ignorance or intentionally.

The young woman confessed to be the motner of the child but nothing further could be learned in regard to her statement. Her father lives in Punxsutawney and her mother is dead.

The woman must have been in a demented frame of mind or she would not have attempted to conceal the body of her infant under such circumstances and do it in open day.

Rev. Eisenberg, of Mercer, preached in the M. E. church for the Reformed congregation on last Saturday evening. At the close of the services the congregation voted unanimously to give him a call. He is considered one of the ablest ministers in the Pittsburg Synod. His sermon was one that verifies the reputa tion given him by those who recomended him to the people of Penns Valley.

Warren S. Krise received a letter from Rev. Beaumont a few days ago. The Rev. and his family arrived safely in Newberry, Oregon, after a seven days journey. He preached two sermons on the day he arrived in Newberry. He says that he is highly pleased with the country and the people. I hope that if he preaches temperance to the Oregons as he did to the people here they won't starve him out.

That Sugar Valley Railroad.

Work on the Bellefonte and Eastern Railway has been suspended for the present for obvious reasons, and the Italians have gone to a new field of labor. The work, however, will be resumed early next Spring, when the projectors will be better prepared to push the work through to completion. By this time next Fall we hope to see the road completely finished and in actual operation.—Sugar Valley Journal.

This is exactly what the DEMOCRAT predicted several weeks ago. This road is by no means a certainty and the work right of way.

A Proper Recognition.

Editors who receive complimentary tickets to county fairs and other places are often looked upon as dead heads, but the managers of the Henery County fair who have had some experience in such spatters, had the following printed upon the complimentary ticket they issued: "This ticket, probably, has been paid for ten times over by the paper to which it is issued. It will be honored in the hands of any man or woman or child, white black, red or yellow, who favors the Association by presenting it. It is good for entrance and grand stand and the bearer if driving, will be entitled to pass a team free.
